

Gold in Twilight

Mrs. J. H. V. Crowe, Royal Military College, entertained at a delightful bridge on Tuesday afternoon. Much to the disappointment of the guests Mrs. Crowe was unable to be present as she was ill with an attack of laryngitis. In the absence of her mother Miss Helen Crowe received the guests. Cards were played at eight tables and among the prize-winners were Mrs. William Hartly and Mrs. Kenneth Blair. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Butler and Mrs. T. Birchall Wood. Mrs. Henri Panoz, Mrs. Francis Cartwright and Miss Anne Scott came in for tea. Those who played bridge were Mrs. E. H. Burdall, Miss Cornelia Birmingham, Mrs. W. H. Macnee, Mrs. Frederick Brownfield, Mrs. W. Robertson, Mrs. P. C. Stevenson, Mrs. H. Tandy, Mrs. D. Young, Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, Mrs. J. P. Shaw, Mrs. E. E. Kent, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Francis Hill, Macnee, Mrs. A. Flower March, Mrs. J. Cappon, Mrs. Kenneth Blair, Mrs. W. R. Givens, Mrs. William Hartly, Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes, Mrs. Stiles (Cornwall), Miss Grange, Miss M. Hora, Mrs. A. de Montigny, Mrs. M. Mowat, Miss Lois Saunders, Miss Eleanor Macdonell, Miss Frances Sullivan and Misses Mabel and Dorothy Brownfield.

The Vancouver, B.C., Province says that Mrs. A. F. Macnee, one of the popular brides of the season, received Thursday, Jan. 5th, for the first time at her apartments in Stanley court, when a great many people called to make their devoirs. Her charming rooms, with their dainty and artistic furnishings, were made still more attractive by the flowers, which were gracefully arranged. Pink carnations were employed in the reception room, where Mrs. Macnee, who was wearing a handsome gown of pink satin combined with pink jewelled net and elements of silver, received with a dainty frock of pale blue moire chiffon over a foundation of Dresden, which showed soft pink and yellow tints. In the tea room Mrs. Walsom and Mrs. J. H. Senkler poured tea and coffee at a polished table laid with a centre and doilies of Duchesse lace, and adorned with a great silver bowl of white roses and lilies of the valley which was softly lighted by yellow shaded candles in massive silver sticks. Miss Aileen Allen, Miss MacDonald, Miss Duchesnay and Miss Ruth Cannon helped serve the visitors.

Taking advantage of the beautiful moonlight night, a number of young people organized a drive for this evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Holloway Waddell as chaperones. The party will leave the Yacht Club, at six o'clock, and drive to Wolfe Island for dinner.

Afterwards dancing will be indulged in. The guests include Miss Amy McNeil, Miss Frances Sullivan, Misses Mabel and Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Marion Redden, Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Irene Swift, Miss Nora Gordon, Miss Leta Carson, Miss Phyllis Short, Miss Grace Hemming, Messrs. Wagarville Waifs.

Wagarville, Jan. 16.—School is progressing nicely with Miss F. Walker as teacher. The young people gave Mr. and Mrs. Beech a linen shower at H. Smith's last week and all report an enjoyable evening. R. Smith has gone to Parry-Sound for a while. G. Raymond intends travelling as agent for A. Connolly, T. McCumber and F. Walker, at W. Goodfellow's, Parham; Mr. and Mrs. F. Kirkham, at G. Raymond's; Misses Cora Wagar and Myrtle McCumber, at R. Wagar's; Mr. and Mrs. M. Cronk, at E. Storm's; Mrs. A. Rattan left returned home after spending the past year at Kingston. There will be Free Methodist meetings in S. Jackson's hall Sunday evening.

At Chaffey's Locks.

Chaffey's Locks, Jan. 17.—School has re-opened with Henry Fleming as teacher. The ice is excellent for driving on. The C.N.R. survey party has left for Quebec. W. P. Kennedy, of Antler, Sask., and Miss Belle are visiting at W. H. Fleming's. A number of parties around here have been enjoyed by the young people. A staff of government carpenters from Ottawa are doing repairs at the locks.

NEWS OF MARYSVILLE.

Timothy Murphy, an Old Resident, Has Passed Away.

Marysville, Tuesday, Jan. 16.—The general work among the farmers now is that of getting in their wood. Quite a number are sick with grippe. Several from here went to Bedford Mills to attend the Doyle O'Neil wedding. A jolly crowd of young people drove to Selby to attend a party given at Mr. Gallinger's. All voted him a genial host. Miss Annie Fahy and brother, James, and their friend, Charles Dudge, of Cobourg, spent Sunday evening with Miss Mary Traynor. Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, of Belleville, is spending a few days with Miss Lillie Drummie. The Misses Darcy received the sad news of the death of their cousin, Mrs. Martin Kennedy, of Belleville, who dropped dead on Wednesday last. He passed away some years ago a resident of this place. Our sympathy is extended to the sorrowing husband and son.

Timothy Murphy, an old and much-respected resident of this township, passed peacefully away at his beautiful home, on the third concession, on Monday, Jan. 9th, after a long illness of paralysis of the throat and stomach. He was a faithful member of St. Mary's church, which in his death will lose a liberal supporter. He was tenderly cared for by his faithful wife and family, but all that loving hands could do could not prolong life. The funeral took place at 9:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning from his late residence to St. Mary's church and was one of the largest ever seen in this section. The masses were celebrated by his two sons, assisted by Rev. Father Meagher, after which the remains were placed in the vault to await interment in the spring. Deceased is survived by his wife, three daughters and six sons: Rev. Father Thomas, of Alberta; Revs. Stephen and Michael, of Ottawa College, Ottawa; James, of Buffalo, Daniel, who resides on the next farm to the homestead, and Francis, at home. The daughters are Mrs. Stephen Coffee, Miss Katie, of Rochester, and Miss Mary, at home.

Storrington Township Council.

The newly-elected council for 1911 met at Sanbury, on Jan. 9th, at 10:30 a.m.; John Taylor, Reeve, Benjamin Kells, Adam Ritchie, John Balls and W. E. Hanley, as councillors. They made the declaration required by law. Minutes of previous meeting adopted. Applications were received from H. W. Sleeth and S. J. Makin for the office of auditors; also from Thos. Cuddy and Robt. Lucy for assessor. On motion, Ritchie-Hanley, resolved that Robt. Lucy be appointed assessor for 1911, salary $45, also that H. Sleeth and S. J. Makin as auditors at $5 each. Moved, Balls-Kells, and resolved that A. E. Freeman, M.D., be appointed medical health officer for 1911. On motion, Ritchie-Hanley, resolved that John Mills be road surveyor and F. S. Ferguson member of board of health for three years. On motion, Balls-Hanley, James Fisher was appointed caretaker of township hall and Joseph Toland sanitary inspector. On

WINTER GIRL IN SNOWY FOX FURS.

White fox is now very expensive, but this beautiful fur is in great demand, nevertheless. It is becoming to young women only, for the clear white of the fur against the face is most trying. There are imitations of genuine fox, which come from the forbidden land of Tibet, but the imitation pelt has not the silky gloss or the pure whiteness of the real fox. The photograph shows a white fox neckpiece and muff and a turban to match—a set designed for one of the debutantes of the winter.

marked upon the map. On motion, Balls-Hanley, resolved that the Bank of Montreal pay all cheques signed by the treasurer except those payable to himself and those upon the order of the council. Adjourned to meet again on last Monday in March.

Charleston Items.

Charleston, Jan. 17.—The crossing on the lake is the very best. M. Slack, Long Point, was a visitor at James Kavanagh's on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slack attended the funeral of their cousin, Miss Annie Slack, at Sand Bay, on Saturday. Miss M. O'Connor is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. N. J. Kavanagh. George Babcock, of Saskatchewan, Sask., is visiting his uncle, George Bradley. Mrs. N. J. Kavanagh entertained a few friends this evening in honor of her cousin, Miss M. O'Connor, who is her guest.
