If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a habit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore, that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

GETTING AFTER THE MEN.

According to a correspondent of the Woman's National Daily—the paper which reflects the life of the University city, outside of St. Louis, founded by E. G. Lewis, and, considering the time it has been in existence the greatest intellectual force of the day—there are 10,000 men in New York city who are supported by their wives. Allowance is made for the mishaps in life, the accidents, failures, sicknesses that put men out of the running, but all these cases are exempted from the estimate of man's incapacity.

Mrs. Burns, the president of the Little Mothers' Aid Association, has no use for the lumbering creatures who impose upon the women, who have an eye to ease and indolence, and marry when they caparizo families where they can be supported without work. The revelation one gets of this kind of parasite is surprising, in view of the alleged wakefulness of the women. These are surely springing up and taking care of themselves in a remarkable manner.

How so many of them came to be humbugged into marriage alliances that brought burdens with them there is no surmising. But the load is there; it is real and intense, and the correspondent says it is degrading in the extreme.

What is to be done? The women give no hint. They have their secret conferences, and may be contemplating a coup that the men dream not of. The suffragettes want the franchise. When they get that they will want the power to legislate, and with this power they may succeed in evolving a plan of campaign. The sooner there is a law which will make every man who can earn his bread with the sweat of his brow the better, and one would be content to let the women dominate our parliaments long enough to bring this great reform to pass.

IMPERIAL UNITY SECURE.

The London correspondent of the Montreal Star questions whether the Duke of Connaught will be appointed the governor-general of Canada. A well-defined Canadian sentiment doubts the advisability of the duke's appointment. Moreover some Canadian papers believe a prince of the blood at Ottawa would be a great aid to the ultra-imperial propaganda. And would that not be a great consideration? The present governor-general is an imperialist. He has an abiding belief in the future of this country and as an integral part of the British empire. Hence his regard for all that contributes to this policy, including a navy for national defence. Hence, too, the all too evident hostility of the nationalist party and press which is divided in its admiration for the empire and its determination that nothing shall be done by Canada towards its consolidation.

A recent article in Le Devoir was significant. It lauded the Duke of Connaught and expressed a desire to see him sent to Canada as the visible expression of British supremacy. But it warned him that he would have to walk circumspectly, and while it was not hinted how he might incidentally offend it was inferred that he would have to be silent on these imperial issues.

How any governor who is the representative of the king could be anything but an imperialist is not conceivable, and how any nation in the political world can expect to snuff out the imperial feeling and ambition in the hearts of a growing majority passes comprehension.

THE STUDENTS WHO SUFFER.

Hamilton has a grievance, but it is very doubtful if it has contemplated the remedy. In the Collegiate Institute, and in connection with the technical department, the pupils make certain marks, and the argument is that a student should be given the credit for them in the technical classes of the university. The education department does not agree to this arrangement.

"It," says the Times, "it be proper to regard the Collegiate Institutes as merely schools for the preparation of youths for the arts course at a university, the attitude of the educational department is reasonable. But when it is considered that not more than fifteen or twenty per cent. of high school students take the arts course at a university with the view of entering a learned profession, it must be said that the attitude of the department is unreasonable and not consistent with the cause of educational progress in this province. A lad who is ambitious to take a course of science at a university and earn the degree of B.Sc. will be better equipped for entering upon that course if he has had the advantage of three years' study in applied electricity at the technical school than if he had, instead of studying electricity, devoted more time to modern languages or literature. Then why should he not, when he applies for matriculation, get credit for the time which he has devoted to elementary electrical science?"

All of which represents healthy argument, but without result for the present. The board of education in Kingston has realized repeatedly that the institute is not giving, in its curriculum, the tuition which is needed by the boys who are going into science, and at the last meeting of the Educational Association a committee of competent men was appointed to prepare a brief and present it. At the Easter meeting this year more should be heard upon the subject.

As the country grows and technical education becomes more necessary the course of study will have to be changed, at least from the institute forward. At present the matriculant would pass an examination in branches which are of no advantage or use to him. The time will come when the science student from his youth, (or entrance to the institute), will be able to find the classes that he needs and that will carry him forward with greater directness and success. The arts course will still be popular and in demand, but in maintaining it the technical course should not suffer through lack of development.

Notes About Hockey and Other Winter Sports.

Wales beat England in the annual rugby game by 15 to 11.

A game of ball was played on the ice of Lake Erie at Sandusky, Ohio, Sunday. The players wore skates.

The National Lacrosse Union has decided to have a paid president. "Eddie" St. Pere or "Joe" Lally will be the man.

No ladies will be admitted to the Roller-Rogers wrestling bout at Riverview rink, Toronto, on Wednesday.

Ottawa Regals signed Bugs Stewart, and he will play against Hendree tonight. This comes as one of the biggest surprises of the season, in view of Stewart's attempt to organize an outlaw league.

"Marty" Walsh who scored the winning goal for Ottawa in the Canadian game played hard, despite the fact that he was suffering from a wrenched back. He was the Ottawa's star after half time.

Toronto Mail-Emire: Parkdale's workout on the big Kingston ice will stand them in good stead when they go to Stratford on Tuesday. "Varsity" juniors should arrange a game with Stratford in order to get accustomed to the big ice, for the chances are they will have to go to Kingston.

Rivalry in "Easy Marks."

The up-to-date Kincaid Review, discussing the failure of the Farmers' bank, says: "It never occurs to the Globe that some investigation should be made to discover why a charter was granted the Farmers' bank at all and why the finance department at Ottawa allowed itself to be hoodwinked by Mr. Travers. If the finance department did not suspect anything it must be an 'easy mark.' Anyone who knew anything about banks could have told the department that the Farmers' bank was shaky and that straight business could not be expected from Mr. Travers." That being so, when the legislature meets, Col. Clark, M.P.P., will, no doubt, move a resolution censuring Col. Matheson for placing a large sum of the money of the people of Ontario in the care of a banker from whom straight business could not be expected. The Kincaid Review's follow-up must be an easier mark even than the finance department at Ottawa.

Why a Great Offender Escaped.

W. R. Travers was arrested on Dec. 21st. A warrant for the arrest of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was issued on Jan. 14th.

A great portion of Ontario's respect for the administration of law, under the auspices of the Whitney government, tumbles into the gap between these widely separated dates.

Twenty-four days were wasted between the arrest of W. R. Travers and the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Dr. W. Beattie Nesbitt.

The Attorney-General's department would have proved itself just as much of a Rip Van Winkle under any of Hon. J. J. Foy's predecessors as it did under Hon. J. J. Foy.

Panorama is Disappearing.

Manitoba, Free Press.

The question of pauperism in London is growing less acute, according to the statistics of poor law relief during 1910. There were nearly 2,000 less persons receiving aid in the middle of December than at the same time the year before, although the total for last month reached the high figure of 128,883. The encouraging fact, however, is that while the number of those calling for relief steadily increased from 1900 to 1909, there has been a decrease in the last two years. Reasons for the improvement are said to be better trade conditions and more employment, and the work of the new government labor exchanges in bringing the laborer and his job together. On the other hand, it is argued that the effect of old age pensions, free meals to school children, and the like, has meant the transference of numbers of individuals to other public funds from those of the poor guardians. There are in London 10,500 persons advanced in years, hitherto recipients of "outdoor relief" who will now be transferred to the old age pension list.

A GANANOQUE FAMILY GREATLY STRICKEN.

Death of George La France—Mother of William Cunningham, Injured G.T.R. Brakesman, Tried to Get Him to Quit.

Gananoque, Jan. 24.—George La France, son of Mrs. Charles La France, Charles street, passed to rest at an early hour yesterday morning, at the home of his mother, a victim of consumption, after a lingering illness. In the twelfth year of his age, making a third break in the family in the past year, the father first, the eldest son, Charles, next, and now George. The funeral takes place on Wednesday morning, to St. John's church, and Gananoque vault.

The sad news reached here, Monday, of the severe injury to William Cunningham, son of Robert Cunningham, Front of Leeds and Lansdowne township, in the wreck on the G.T.R., near Collins Bay, whereby he loses an arm. Cunningham was for several years employed in Gananoque, leaving here a few years ago to take a position as brakeman on the G.T.R. He had spent a week here at Christmas time when his mother did her best to persuade him to give up his situation as she considered it dangerous.

W. J. Allen is spending a short time in Brockville with his wife, who is a patient in the general hospital. Robert McBroome, ill for the past week, is able to be around again.

E. H. Hurd, secretary of the Gananoque Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association, is in Kingston to attend the poultry show which opens there today. He has an exhibit of poultry there. Reeve C. E. Britton, spending the past week in Ottawa, has returned home.

Miss Howson, of Peterboro, is the guest of her sister, Miss Howson, modern language teacher of the staff of the Gananoque high school. Miss J. Livan, stenographer, Toronto, is spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Livan.

George Ralph, Smith's Falls, guest of his aunt, Mrs. O. W. Shears, for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Report to Lynch Law.

Ottawa, Free Press.

The Peterboro Examiner wants Ottawa to tell it to get rid of its unsightly street poles. They had, it appears, everything ripe for removing the poles from George street when one of the companies refused to cooperate with the city and other corporations in bringing about the improvement and it was blocked. How would it do for the people of Peterboro to inaugurate a boycott of that company? Oh, no! we should say that the company needs Peterboro's business patronage even more than Peterboro needs the company's service. We doubt if a corporation in Peterboro or anywhere else could stand up for long against public indignation properly aroused. As a last resort, let the people of Peterboro get out their axes, sharpen them, and then some fine night proceed in a body to George street and cut down the offending poles. This is a case where lynch law is justifiable.

Municipal Board a Tragedy.

Toronto Telegram.

The Ontario railway and municipal board is the crowning weakness of the Whitney government.

The Ontario railway and municipal board is not more conspicuously useless than the Dominion railway commission was before the life of that commission was adored by the strength of Hon. J. P. Mabee.

The Ontario railway and municipal board in its construction and membership is peculiarly the work of Sir James Whitney.

The mental architecture of the Ontario railway and municipal board follows the design of its creator, Sir James Whitney.

The spectacle that the Ontario railway and municipal board made of itself, yesterday, was discouraging to all who want to admire Sir James Whitney and who wish well to his government.
