PAID A HEAVY FINE.

Richard O'Neil Taxed for Disorderly Conduct.

It does not pay to get drunk, abusive, and threaten people. Richard O'Neil, a strapping fellow, found this out in police court, today, when he was taxed $20 and costs or three months. In addition he was bound over in the sum of one hundred dollars, to keep the peace. Early last night, he went to a local hotel, abused the proprietor with his tongue, struck him with his fist, and then made an attack on Constable Downey, who arrested him. There were three charges, that of being drunk, threatening the hotelman and assaulting a police constable. He had $126 on his person, and paid his fine.

Joseph Love, up several times, wanted a chance to make good, but the magistrate made the penalty $2 and costs or twenty days.

RARE ANNIVERSARY.

The Twenty-fifth Year of the Organization Here.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the King's Daughters, in this city, was held, this morning, at the residence of Mrs. Henry Cunningham, Earl street. Miss Gertrude Strange, president of the city union, presided. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Hiram Calvin, who read the xxv chapter of Matthew, followed by prayers by Mrs. Mowat. After a few introductory remarks by Miss Strange, relating to the purpose of the meeting, the origin of the order was given by Mrs. Henry Skinner. Reports of the four circles of the city were read by the following persons: Charity Circle, which was formed in 1891, by Miss Victoria, formed in 1893, by Mrs. Vere Hooper; Whatsoever, formed in 1891, by Miss Marion Redden. A report of the city union, formed in 1898, was given by Miss Birch. The Food and Fuel Circle was represented by Miss Nan Skinner, who gave a favorable report.

After all reports were in Mrs. McLaughlin, a returned missionary from Smyrna, Turkey, gave an interesting account of the work done there. On her return to her work she will take the reports, which were given at this meeting, of the different societies, and read them there.

No collection was taken at the meeting, but a donation of $5 was sent to New York city. A note of congratulation on the occasion of her birthday, which occurred on January 23rd, was sent to Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson, of New York, who is the general superintendent of the International Order of King's Daughters, and editor-in-chief of the Silver Cross, the official organ of the society.

PAID RETURN VISIT

To Install Officers Sons of England.

On January 9th, Lodge Leicester, No. 33, S.O.E., was visited by a delegation of nine members from Cambria Lodge, Gananoque, to install the local officers.

Last night, the return visit was paid, to assist in the installation of the officers of Cambria, by fourteen officers and members of Leicester, composed of the following: Past presidents, Selby, Swain, Bonny, Leach, Huggins, Marsh, Twigg, and Andrew. President Parker, vice-president Gott, chaplain Wright and Bros. Twigg, Osborne and Acton. On the journey down some jokes were made, on the very new, and up-to-date manner of covering the distance between Kingston and Gananoque, (eighteen miles) a journey that necessitates two changes and three trains, also the very close connections made, consuming altogether, two hours before reaching the destination, and one and three quarter hours on the return. The time however, was enlivened by song and speech, and seemed shorter than it was.

During the evening, the District Deputy Supreme President, Bro. John Menden, had the pleasure of rewarding Bro. Perry, of Cambria, and Bro. Twigg, of Leicester, with the beautiful past president's jewel of the order, for long and faithful service, well and nobly done.

After all the business was concluded refreshments were served, and there were songs, speeches and music, till 11.30 o'clock, when the visitors to Gananoque, had to board the train on their return trip, arriving in Kingston soon after one o'clock, tired, but pleased with the reception they had received from their sister lodge.

COMMITTEE FORMED

TO DO MISSION WORK IN THE CITY.

A Strong Appeal Made by H. K. Caskey in the Interests of the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Perhaps the most notable gathering ever held in connection with church or missionary effort in this city, met at the Y.M.C.A., on Tuesday evening. It was also the most representative gathering seen here in many years. Every Protestant denomination in the city was well represented by both laymen and clergy.

This meeting was called by the Evangelical Alliance, in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and was responded to by men of all classes. About seventy-five men sat down to the pleasant tea, provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary, of the Y.M.C.A. After doing full justice to the good things, the president of the Alliance, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, introduced the speaker of the evening, H. K. Caskey, who is general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in Canada. Mr. Caskey is a quiet, yet fluent and effective speaker, and carries weight with every argument he advances. Few men could have emphasized the importance of the movement more strikingly than did Mr. Caskey. When he compared the great volume of money which is expended on the support of the churches at home, with the amount given to lift our brother man who is less fortunately situated than we are, the contrast was stupendous. For instance, Mr. Caskey states that in North America we are spending $300,000,000 for the support of the church at home, with a population of 100,000,000 people, while we are responsible for a population of over 600,000,000 people in other lands, and are giving for that purpose only $11,317,000.

Great numbers of people are not giving to mission work, or even the regular church work, because they feel that their small contribution would not be acceptable, while others are not giving because they are not praying for missions. Mr. Caskey cited an instance of two women who were approached by a member of a certain church, not far from Kingston, and they were asked if they would each give five cents per month for ten months. They stated that they had been saving up their money for some months, and now had one dollar, and asked if that would be accepted. The church member who called, immediately put them down for ten months at five cents per month. He found that this item had a wonderful influence on the givings of other people, as these two ladies were well known, and people knew what it meant to them to give it. The result was that the givings in that church were raised to $46,000 for the year. It not only gave them money, but the spirit shown by the two ladies acted on the minds of the church members and many men came forward to help in the work of the church. It was, indeed, the widow's mite which gave the inspiration to greater service. The church of today should give everyone a chance to give, no matter how small.

Mr. Caskey advocated a personal visit by every congregation, and this was later taken up in definite shape by the different denominations. He pointed out very vividly the great need for money and work in Canada, particularly in the great west, where the unchristianized are coming in by the tens of thousands. What was wanted in order to carry out a successful campaign was a determination on the part of the workers to go after everybody, and not to falter until that was accomplished.

After Mr. Caskey's magnificent address, the meeting assumed the nature of a conference, and a general committee was formed to carry on the work for the city, in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Those appointed to this committee were: Chairman, Dr. R. V. Rogers; secretary, D. G. Laidlaw, with the following committee: Messrs. H. McKelvey, Robert Meek, Dr. E. J. Lake, Dr. J. Carson, W. J. Minnes, Geo. Mills, H. A. Calvin, E. Davis, F. G. Lockett and C. H. Pickering.

It was decided that the 19th and 26th of February should be set apart as the laymen's missionary Sunday in the different Protestant churches, and that after the different churches had completed their canvassing of their congregations, that a general meeting be called by the committee, at which reports should be given of the success of their efforts.

The meeting held last night will long be remembered by those present, as the turning point in the missionary spirit of many men and perhaps churches.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Caskey, and also to the Ladies' Auxiliary and to the Y.M.C.A., for their efforts in making the meeting a success.

FRONTENACS AND PICTON.

To Meet This Evening—Rooters' Club to Be There.

The Rooters' Club will occupy the stand in the covered rink, to-night, with the 14th band. The members of the club are requested to be on hand early and go at once to the band stand in order to avoid confusion in the crowd. The rooters will start their part of the programme early, and will make a big hit. The 14th band will also be on hand to help out, a "big night" is expected. Several new and catchy songs have been added to the "rooters'" original lot.

Picton Team Here.

The Picton team reached Kingston, at noon, to-day, for their game, to-night, with the speedy Frontenacs. There should be a big crowd out to see this game, as it promises to be one of the prettiest of the season. The Rooters' Club had a good rehearsal last night, and as their new megaphones have arrived, everything is expected to run off smoothly.

Boyer Slightly Injured.

During the game with Belleville, Boyer, of the Frontenacs, got a nasty crack over the ribs, and is quite sore. If he is unable to play to-night, "Scotty" Davidson will go up on the wing and Williams will play point. The rest of the team, including Marchand in goal, will be in their old positions.

Played League Game.

In a game in Central Ontario league series, at the curling club, Wednesday morning, Kingston defeated two rinks from Brockville, on the total score of 36 to 27. The scores: Kingston, No. 1—J. M. McCrae, G. J. Mallory, Dr. Bruce, J. Chrysler, skip—15.

Kingston, No. 1—J. Marshall, W. R. Givens, J. M. Elliott, R. J. Hooper, skip—12.

Brockville, No. 2—J. W. Mitchell, H. S. Burns, R. Craig, D. W. Downey, skip—12.

Kingston, No. 2—A. B. Croft, R. J. McKelvey, L. W. Gill, Rev. Robert Laird, skip—24.

The points competition will be commenced this afternoon.

Sporting Notes.

Abe Attell beat Billy Allen, the Canadian featherweight, at Syracuse. The university of Toronto inter-collegiate hockey team will take a trip down New York and Boston way towards the end of the present week.

Toronto Star: Parkdale stock dropped a lot as a result of their defeat by Queen's at Kingston.

Trenton quit professional hockey because of lack of funds. There were 150 people at the final game, at an average price of 35c a head, of which the rink took forty per cent. Not enough left to buy sticks, let alone pay salaries.

Ottawa Citizen: Marty Walsh gave his finest display of the season. He rushed, dodged, recovered and shot in his finest form, being in the thick of play throughout and outpacing Delaire, Bernier and Payer, all of whom were at one time in turn pitted against him. Marty was, in the overtime, probably the fastest man on the ice.
