DUELLING LEFT OUT

LORD CAMPBELL'S OLD ACT IS OBLITERATED.

Revised Act for Compensation for Fatal Accidents—Deserted Wife's Rights Defined.

Toronto, Jan. 28.—Important changes have been made in a number of the provincial statutes that have been revised and recast by the statute revision commission, and that are being introduced daily in the legislature by the attorney-general.

Another revised statute now before the legislature is the Deserted Wives' Maintenance Act. As it formerly stood it gave a wife the right to summon her erring husband to show the court that he was able, either wholly or in part, to maintain "his wife and her family."

Under the revised act it is not necessary to prove repeated assaults or other acts of cruelty as was the case formerly. Orders for the payment of money are made enforceable under the terms of the Ontario Summary Conviction Act.

THE TRADE OF KINGSTON

Will be Increased by the Trade Agreement.

F. S. S. Johnson, United States consul at Kingston, says that the trade agreement just concluded between the United States and Canada, and awaiting ratification, is a measure that will not only benefit, but will increase the trade at this port with the United States.

Mr. Johnson says Kingston enjoyed a trade with the United States amounting to $600,000, the chief articles, with values attached, for the year previous to the passage of the McKinley act, were as follows: Cattle, $10,000; barley, $65,000; eggs, $1,200; hay, $26,000; horses, $14,000; lambs, $30,000; lumber, $200,000; mica, $25,000; iron ore, $15,000; buckwheat, $10,000; peas, $50,000; charcoal, $5,000.

It is true, he says, that the grain coming to Kingston from Western Canada will be diverted to the flour mills of Duluth and Minneapolis in the state of Minnesota.

While the farmers will be benefited by the trade agreement, the consul says he is afraid that the cost of living in Kingston will advance.

BEST EVER MADE.

Opinion Expressed on Tariff Negotiations.

"It is the best reciprocal arrangement which has ever been made for Canada."

This was the opinion expressed, this morning, by a prominent Kingston man, who follows up the tariffs quite closely, and who had the honor of being present in the House of Commons when Hon. Mr. Fielding presented his report on the negotiations. He gave it as his opinion that there would certainly be no objection to it from the Canadian government.

He referred to federar and mica, for which twenty per cent. duty had to be paid for this product going over to the United States. If this new agreement was carried out, it would go free and this would certainly tend to increase the shipping, and at the same time be a good thing for the men owning the mines.

This our only apology for the lack of news in this issue."

HEAVY DRINKER CURED.

Samaria Cured Him and He Helped Others.

A man who has been released from the awful cravings of drink, and whose first thought is to help others, shows the spirit of true brotherhood and philanthropy. Read his letter: "The Samaria Remedy Co., Toronto, Ont."

"Will you please send me book on drink, and a circular containing your valued remedy for the drink habit. I wish to hand these to a friend who is anxious to quit through this remedy. You will remember that I have taken your remedy, and I find it all you claim it to be. I never think of taking or using strong drink in any way, as all desire for it has left me. I cannot speak too highly of your wonderful remedy. You may use my name in any way you wish in public."

H. L. L. White, Bridget, Ontario. Samaria Prescription is tasteless and odorless, and dissolves instantly in tea or coffee, or can be mixed with food. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge. It removes the craving for drink, builds up the system and restores the nerves. Drink becomes distasteful and even nauseous.

Drink is a disease, not a crime. One drink of whiskey always invites another. The inflamed nerves and stomach create a craving that must either be satisfied by more whiskey or removed by scientific treatment like Samaria Prescription. Samaria Prescription has been in regular and successful use by physicians and hospitals for over ten years.

If you know of any family needing Samaria Prescription tell them about it. If you have a husband, father or friend that is drifting into drink help him save himself. Write to-day.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samaria Prescription, with booklet, giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent absolutely free and postpaid in plain sealed package to anyone asking for it and mentioning this paper. Correspondence sacredly confidential. Write to-day.

Are YOU Paying for the Advertising of the Mail Order House?

A Talk to the Merchants

METHODICAL, continuous and liberal advertising is back of every order the mail order house secures in Kingston and vicinity, yet it is the merchants of Kingston themselves who are paying the bills—in the profits on the orders which go to the mail-order house.

Isn't it about time we put a stop to this thing? We can do it—if we will.

You can offer purchasing facilities which the city mail order cannot approach—the choice of selection—the possibility of immediate purchase—the assurance of immediate exchange of goods or refund of money if the sale is not entirely satisfactory.

Practically all your lines are sold at prices quite as close as the mail order price plus postage and express charges—some lines you are offering regularly below the mail order cost.

In every argument which the mail order house has to offer you can go one better.

But you don't—many of you. Or at least you wait until the customer comes in to your store, while the mail order house goes into your customer's home, and takes the cream of his trade, leaving you to supply the balance and pay their advertising bills.

Surely it is time your account with the mail order house was squared long enough—pay now for some of your own. Or rather make the mail order house pay for it in your increased Kingston business.

We are with you heart and soul in this matter, and would suggest the following plan:—

- 1. Meet your customers in their own homes through the columns of the local paper.
2. Make your message there a regular one—so that your customers will look for it as regularly as they do for the mail order catalogue.
3. Use a space sufficiently large to command attention.
4. Emphasize the advantage of dealing at home—the personal selection—the immediate purchase—the absolute dependability which only a personal acquaintance can inspire.
5. Quote prices in every appeal. Show your customers that your prices are fully as low as the mail order cost.

Few have experienced the power of advertising more than John Wanamaker. He sums up his opinions and experiences thus: "Advertising does not jerk—it pulls. It gets very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, and year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power."

And now just a personal word in closing. The Daily Whig has 4,200 subscribers in Kingston and vicinity—subscribers who realize that The Whig stands for the highest interests of this community, and that its columns contain all the news of the district. The Whig has weight with its readers and prestige in the community.

Similar service we offer you in our Job Department, where every order will have personal attention.
