Protest Against Dunphy in City League-Ottawas Defeated Montreal Wanderers by 8 to 2.

The considering of a protest will be the chief topic at an executive meeting of the City Hockey League, tonight, in the Y.M.C.A. The protest has to do with Dunphy, the R.C.H.A. player, who has been mixing things up a bit. He has played two games with the R.C.H.A., and two with Y I.C.B.A. Under the constitution this is an offence. The constitution says that no player will be allowed to play two senior games with different teams in the same league. He may play with a junior team and a senior team, but then he must go back to the junior team and stay there for the remainder of the season. He has played four senior games with two senior Game at Sydenham.

On Saturday afternoon, the Kingston Business College hockey team went to Sydenham, and played a friendly match with the team there, being defeated by a score of 8 to 0. The boys stayed at the Switzer hotel, and were royally entertained. Upon the invitation of the proprietor, they spent the evening at the rink, and had a most enjoyable time.
