I have gained in health, flesh and strength, until I feel like another person." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.) Deaths at Lansdowne. Lansdowne, Jan. 30.—On Friday afternoon Mrs. John Bissell Landon was called to rest, after a long illness of catarrh of the stomach. Deceased, whose maiden name was Alice Webster, was in her seventy-fifth year. In March, 1909, she and Mr. Landon celebrated their golden wedding. She leaves her husband and five sons and one daughter: E. S. Landon, Waterdown, N.Y.; John B. Potsdam, N.Y.; Nelson, Greenway, Man.; William and Gordon, at home, and Mrs. Walter Storey, Gananoque. The late Mrs. Landon was most highly esteemed by all who knew her. In religion she was a Presbyterian. The funeral services were held on Sunday, from her late residence to the Methodist church, which was kindly offered for the occasion on account of the Presbyterian church being too small to accommodate the large number of people. The late Mrs. Landon's life was an example of devotion to her home and family, whose interests and welfare were always her first thought. A remarkable fact is that this is the first break in the family, which makes the loss more keen. It is reported that Louisa Moore has sold his fine farm to Joseph Slack, of Outlet. It is understood that George McKay, harness-maker, has bought G. O. Redmond's store and residence. The funeral of the late Miss Lillian Elizabeth Graham, who died so suddenly of diabetes, took place on Friday last, from her father's residence to the Presbyterian church, which was filled to the doors with sympathizing friends. The remains were placed in the Union vault.

Pittsburg Young Men Debate. Dufferin, Jan. 30.—The open meeting of the Young Men's Club, of St. John's, the 25th inst., was largely attended. Cameron English, the president, presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by the pastor, after which the superintendent, Mrs. Reede, welcomed the club's visitors to their first open meeting, and the president explained the process by which young men became members of the club, namely, by becoming members of St. John's Young Men's class. The secretary, Kenneth Weir, read the minutes of the last meeting, John McEment, the treasurer, read the financial report, in which it was stated that there was over $22 on hand for the purpose of buying books for the club's library. A song and chorus was then rendered by the club, followed with a solo by Russell Weir, after which the debate was called. The question was: "Resolved, that the good roads' system is a benefit to the farmers." The judges were Messrs. Cowan, Franklin, and Stewart. The debating debate was then announced by the pastor, namely, sixty points for argument and forty for style. The affirmative was sustained by Messrs. Charles McLean, William Smith, Russell Weir and George McDonald, while the negative was upheld by Messrs. James English, William Weir, John McLean, and William English. The audience was surprised at the coolness, self-control, fluency, readiness, and logic of the debaters, and saw before them their future councillors and voters. While the judges were making up their decision, William Clare rendered a solo and then, as editor, read the first number of the second volume of the Club Record, in which was happily mingled useful knowledge and humorous bits. The decision of the judges was then announced, giving the merits of the debate to the affirmative. Mr. Franklin complimented the boys on their advantages and opportunities. A short address was then given by the pastor.

FUNDS FOR IRISH CAUSE. Trustees for Party Money Issue Annual Appeal. Dublin, Jan. 31.—The annual appeal of the trustees of the Irish party for campaign funds, which has just been issued, says that the recent elections, and the fact that the party had to fight not only the powerful Unionist party, but also Irish reactionists, strained its financial resources to the uttermost. The elections, it continues, were the most expensive for thirty years, and the cost was mainly defrayed by the ever-generous kinsmen across the seas, and concludes: "Now that victory is within sight it is more than ever necessary for all the friends of Ireland to support the cause."
