THE BIBLE SOCIETY THE ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN CHALMERS' CHURCH

Strong Appeal Will be Made for the Support of the Society—Address Delivered by Rev. W. B. Cooper, M.A.—The Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held last night in Chalmers' church and the attendance was very slim.

Rev. Dr. MacTavish was in the chair and the choir of Chalmers' church assisted in the musical part of the programme. Bishop Mills offered prayer.

Dr. MacTavish regretted the small attendance but pointed out how many great movements had been started by a few people.

The secretary, Rev. H. D. Whitmore, submitted a report, giving the amounts raised by the different churches for the society's work.

Mr. Whitmore also submitted the report of the treasurer, Dr. E. J. Lake, which showed a total of $232.55 raised for the work during the year.

It was held that the society was hardly holding its own but renewed effort is being looked forward to and an extra effort is to be put forth to reach the people for support.

The following officers were elected, on motion of Rev. Mr. Savary: Hon. president, Bishop Mills; president, Rev. T. W. Neal; first vice-president, Rev. D. Laing; second vice-president, Rev. Dr. MacTavish; secretary, Rev. H. D. Whitmore; treasurer, Dr. E. J. Lake; auditors, George Hague and Joseph E. Clarke.

The executive will be composed of the officers, pastors of the city churches and Messrs. H. A. Calvin, Francis King, F. G. Lockett, George Mills, G. Macdonnell, B. W. Robertson, Oliver Chow, D. A. Shaw, Abraham Shaw, Dr. Third, William Graves, J. Laturney, Edward Bennett, John E. McEwen, R. Waldron, Sr., Dr. R. E. Sparks.

On motion of Rev. D. Laing and Rev. S. Selley, it was decided to appeal to the auxiliary, to put forth every effort possible to advance the work this year.

The mover and second were confident of better results, if the effort was put forth.

Rev. Dr. MacTavish and Rev. J. D. Boyd moved a resolution, which was also carried, that a special effort be made to secure more money for the work, the recommendation being made that the city be canvassed by wards.

For subscriptions, or that other means be taken, which would be deemed advisable for the collection. The executive will deal with this matter.

At the close, on motion of Rev. Mr. Laing, a vote of thanks was extended to the speaker of the evening.

At the WILLIAM Y. MILLS. William Y. Mills, who has become a member of the firm of George Mills & Co., the widely-known furriers and hat makers of Kingston, is an active young business man and citizen.

He is thoroughly acquainted with the hat and fur trade, as he was brought up in it, and for several years was "on the road." Mr. Mills has the manner of the business man who succeeds, or he is affable and obliging. He is a captain in the 11th P.W.O. Rifles, and high up in the Masonic order, being one of the few Kingston members of the Mystic Shrine (A.A.O.N.M.S.).

In church, club and sporting circles, Mr. Mills is a leader. The Mills & Co. partnership sale during the past week has been most successful. This firm intends to create a still larger district business, and to do this it has secured the right man in William Y. Mills.

GANANOQUE TIDINGS. The Local Manufacturers Cannot Fill Their Orders. Gananoque, Feb. 11.—A number from town attended the session of the Leeds Conservative Association, at Delta, yesterday. Among the principle speakers were: J. R. Carstairs, conservative organizer; A. E. Lancaster, K.C., Lincoln County, George Taylor and J. R. Dargavel.

The funeral of the late John Kay-anagh took place from the family residence, Leeds township, this morning, to St. John's church, where a requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father J. P. Kehoe, and interment made at Gananoque vault. The funeral was quite largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorey, River street, opened up their home for a social dance for their young friends, last evening.

The heavy snow fall during the past few days have placed the roads in such a condition that it is almost impossible for the farmers from the surrounding rural district to get into town.
