POOR BAPTISTE AGAIN.

sented a sad picture in the police court, on Friday morning. He has been before the magistrate scores times and always on the one chargethat of drunkenness. He has a strong appetite for liquor and nearly every cent he gets finds its way over

Poor Baptiste shed the usual number of tears but the magistrate has got so used to this little "stunt" pulled off by John that it has no effect. The accused pleaded for a chance and between his sobs murmured "Let me go back," but it was all up with poor Baptiste. The magistrate disposed of his case by imposing a fine of $5 and costs, or one month

"Drunk and disorderly." This was the charge registered against a young man, John T. Gilmore, a member of the battery. The magistrate handed him over to an escort from the barracks, and he will be dealt with there. He was arrested late last night. He was in company with several others men and it is stated he refused to keep the peace when requested to do so by the constables.
