Mother Dropped Children to Safety

Inverness, Que., Feb. 22.-Mr. Caig, his wife and family had a narrow escape from being burned to tunately for all concerned, got up earlier than usual to start the fire in the kitchen. When he got this far he found that the place was full of smoke, He shouted to his wife who dropped the older children down through the hot air register aperture, and father caught them and put them outside. It was then impossible for the father to go upstairs or the mother to come down, so the latter wrapped her baby in heavy blankets and threw it on a pile of snow. She followed by jumping. While the family thus fortunately escaped the house and contents were a total loss, with but
