A SUCCESSFUL OPENING ON TUESDAY NIGHT.

The Ladies Who Have Charge of the Different Tables-Progressive Euchre Prize Winners - Queen's Students at Dinner.

The opening of the grand tournament and bazaar, at the new wing of in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth the Hotel Dieu, on Tuesday night, was a great success. The ladies have good | reason to congratulate themselves on the success so far, and still better things are looked for to-day, and tomorrow. The ladies had Mrs. Hanley as an efficient manager, and she is assisted by Mrs. W. > During the evening some of the young ladies provided a choice programme of music. There was progressive euchre, and the prize-winners were as follows: for ladies, 1st, Miss Hanlon; 2nd, Miss Campbell; for gentlemen, 1st, Mr. Miller; 2nd, Leo. Corrigan.

The beautiful new building provides ample room for such an event, and the cozy little rooms have been nicely decorated for the different booths. The adies are deserving of every great credit for the way everything has been arranged. Miss Ida Ronan, the energetic secretary, is due special praise for her share in the work Thomas Ronan was master of ceremonies, and carried out his part of the programme in an able manner. The president, Mrs. Swift, vice-president, Miss Hickey, and treasurer, Miss May Bolger, formed an able band of

The opening event of the bazaar was the dinner given in the dining-room of the main building, which was partaken of by seventy-five Queen's medical students. Mayor Graham graciously presided. The dinner was a splendid success, and reflects great credit upon those who had charge, the moving spirit of whom was Mrs. Devlin. The room was suitably decorated with college bunting, year flags, etc., above the door of the dining coom was the motto, "See the conquering hero which will attend the spring examinations of the students! College airs were played and contributed much towards the cheerfulness of the on casion. Those who were present are unaminous in pronouncing the dinner excellent, in every particular.
