NEXT WEEK'S PLAYS

At the Grand—"The Three Twins" on Tuesday. An event of more than passing interest will be the engagement at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday evening, March 14th, of Joseph M. Gaiter's musical comedy, "Three Twins," when the theatregoers will have the chance of seeing Clifton Crawford and the original New York company. The piece was written by Charles Dickson and Otto Hauerbach, with music by Karl Hoschna. "Three Twins" is markedly pleasing, and the music smacks of an originality and flavor peculiarly catchy. Everywhere it has won the distinction of a clean, neat and dainty musical comedy. It is full of mirth, pretty girls, funny comedians, clever dancers and wonderful electrical effects.

"Madame Sherry." It is a fairly foregone conclusion that the Grand on Thursday, March 16th, will be crowded for the performance of "Madame Sherry," the sensational musical comedy success to be interpreted here by the Karl Hoschna-Otto Hauerbach New Amsterdam Theatre company, direct from New York, where the production's success is the one big smashing musical sensation of the current season. Once in a while a score of a hit occurs like that scored by this production. Though but half a year old in this country, most of the airs of "Madame Sherry" are already popular numbers in every town and city where music is understood. "Ev'ry Little Movement has a Meaning All Its Own," the theme song of the piece, has been a rage here in town for months. "The Butterfly" is another air that has the town by the ears. The company assembled for the presentation of the production includes a roster of famous musical comedy celebrities.

DIED AT MARTVILLE, N.Y.

The Late Ross Walker—Pneumonia Caused Death. The Fairhaven, N.Y. Times says: On Sunday, Feb. 26th, occurred the death of one of Martville's highly esteemed citizens. Ross Walker was stricken with pneumonia just one week from his decease. He came to Martville about three years ago, and by his sterling qualities, and unimpeachable integrity, he won the admiration of all who became acquainted with him. He was progressive and prosperous and a young man with great promise. There was a large assembly of friends and relatives who gathered at the Methodist Episcopal church, filling the edifice, on Wednesday, and not in many years have as many regrets and as much sympathy been expressed as over this young man's death. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Katie Simmons, and two little sons, and in Canada, the land of his birth, he leaves a father and mother, one brother and three sisters, who have been called to mourn the death of their two sons, and brothers, both grown to manhood in the space of four months. All of these as well as other relatives have the sympathy of this community. A delegation of the order of Woodmen, of which Ross was a member at South Lima, N.Y., where he resided before coming to Martville, also a delegation from Hannibal, N.Y., attended. Their love for the deceased was shown by the beautiful flowers covering his casket.

SYDENHAM PRESENTATION.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Barnett go to Saskatchewan. Sydenham, March 10.—On Tuesday evening of this week, the teachers and officers, with some other friends, of the Methodist Sunday school, met at the home of Charles Truscott, to spend a few pleasant hours. The meeting was a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Barnett, who left on Thursday, for their new home in Saskatchewan. Mr. Barnett has been a faithful worker in the Methodist church, as well as Sunday school superintendent for many years. An address was read and a purse of money was presented to Mr. Barnett, as a slight token of the regard that his many friends have for him. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett will be much missed and leave a vacancy that will be hard to fill. John Graham, of Spafford, took the sympathy of this community to try farming in the west. The house formerly occupied by Mr. Barnett has been purchased by Mr. Barnett's Rev. Mr. Hanna was able to occupy his pulpit again last Sunday, after his severe illness. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wartman are moving to Newburgh, where Mr. Wartman intends opening a shop for his business. The work beginning on the new line of the C.N.R. is helping this village, as some of the vacant houses now have tenants.
