VIEWS ON THE BIBLE

PRESENTED WITH COPY TO MARK TERCENTENARY.

His Majesty Spoke in Moving Terms of the Indebtedness of the Whole English-speaking World to the Authorized Version.

London, March 22.—The tercentenary of the unauthorized version of the English Bible was efficiently commemorated, yesterday, by the presentation of a specially bound copy to King George by a deputation headed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and representing the various Protestant bodies of the United Kingdom.

The king's reply was directed to a wider public than that of his own dominions. His majesty spoke of "the joint celebration by English-speaking peoples of this glorious and memorable achievement, which, coming like a broad light in the darkness, gave freely to the whole English-speaking peoples the right and power to search for themselves of our faith. During three hundred years multiplying millions of English-speaking races, spread over more widely over the surface of the globe, have turned in their need to the grand simplicity of the authorized version, and drawn upon its inexhaustible springs of wisdom for their courage and joys."

Appointed Temporarily.

Toronto, March 22.—Preferring not to open a constituency in Toronto at the present time by appointment of an M.P.P., to the position of surrogate court registrar, vacant by the death of Joseph Tait, the Ontario government has asked S. R. Harmon, K.C., to undertake the duties on the understanding that this is merely a temporary appointment.

Having a Conference.

Washington, March 22.—President Taft and Baron Lehide, Japanese ambassador, are in conference, this afternoon, at the White House. It is understood the Mexican situation has something to do with it.

ADJUSTABLE TARIFF CURSED IN RAGE

THE DEMONSTRATION GOT BEYOND CONTROL.

Trouble Began When the Dead Man's Ring Was Produced and Declared to Have Been Found in a Mattress.

Viterbi, Italy, March 22.—During a debate between the opposing counsel at the trial of the Camorristi, today, the prisoners in the cage made a demonstration which got beyond the control of the court officials, necessitating a suspension of proceedings.

The accused men cursed in their rage and sobbed hysterically; their women friends in the audience cried in chorus. The trouble began when the dead man's ring was produced and declared to have been found in a mattress. The lawyer for the prosecution shook the ring in front of the steel cage, awakening the anger of the defence lawyers and precipitating a free fight. Everybody engaged in the turmoil except Abbate, the informer, who sat calm amid all the excitement. The president of the court finding order not to be obtained announced a temporary adjournment.

DRIVE TO THEIR DEATH.

Two Young Men Drowned Near Walkerville.

Windsor, March 22.—Jeremiah Langlois, aged eighteen, and Stanley Labute, seven years old, sons of parents residing in Sandwich East, above Walkerville, were victims of a double drowning of the Canadian shore opposite Belle Isle at about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The team of horses, behind which they had driven into the shallow water near the shore, carried them over the channel bank into deep water, and they went to their death before the eyes of about a dozen spectators, among whom was Mrs. Labute, mother of the little boy.

Langlois struggled to regain the wagon, but the current carried him away from it and after a few moments he disappeared.

The whole thing happened so quickly and the wagon was so far out that the spectators could afford no assistance. Mrs. Labute, the mother of the little boy, made a frantic rush for the river and would have thrown herself into the water in vain attempt to rescue her son if neighbors had not held her back.

Langlois was a son of Dolphus Langlois, a wealthy farmer living on the Tecumseh road, near Walkerville. His mother is prostrated by the shock. Drugging for the bodies was started at once by a party of fishermen.

SANG ON WAY TO SCAFFOLD.

Russian Sang Songs of His Childhood During Last Moments.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 22.—Singing the hymn of his childhood as he walked between two guards through the corridors of the Allegheny county jail, yesterday, Steve Rusio, a Russian, was hanged for the murder of Mrs. Bela Bombay, whom he shot on January 15th, 1910, as she lay beside her sleeping husband and babe, because she refused to accept his attentions.

The strong, full notes of the song continued during the march to the gallows and while the noise was being adjusted, and were stopped as the trap was sprung.

Statements Denied.

London, Ont., March 22.—The charges of Mrs. May Thornley, of the W.C.T.U., made to the ministerial alliance, yesterday, that immorality existed in the city schools and that drinking, gambling and immorality were carried on in the young men's clubs, have been met with a storm of denial.
