They wear their hair long, and have an abundance of it. They also wear full beards, but could shave themselves, as their hands are perfectly steady. They were Whigs in the days before the Republican party was born. They became Republicans at the party's inception, and have voted the Republican ticket ever since. Their memories are splendid. They can recall all the great events that have happened in their time. Joseph says they have lived to see everything "from an ox cart to a flying machine." They remember the Black Hawk War of 1832, the star shower of 1833, the first railroad of the West in 1837, the Mexican War, 1846-48, and the Civil War, 1861-65. They speak admiringly of the great men whose acquaintance they have enjoyed. They saw and knew Lincoln, Douglas, Shields, Turnbull, Logan, destined to round out a century.
