DEATH AT SYDENHAM

OF MRS. JOHN LOCKHART, AGED EIGHTY-FIVE

Much Scarlet Fever in the Valley—Joseph Burley Had His Leg Broken in Two Places.

Sydenham, March 25.—Mrs. Lockhart, widow of the late John Lockhart, died at her home in the village, Thursday, at 6:30 p.m., at the age of eighty-five years. Mrs. Lockhart leaves five children, Dr. George, of Toronto, Dr. Alfred, of Harrowsville, Thomas, a real estate dealer, Mrs. Chown, of Kingston, and William at home.

Quite a number of pupils are absent from both schools, owing to scarlet fever. Miss Davidson, one of the high school teachers, has gone to her home in the city, ill with fever. Ross Sices, who was ill with fever, is well again. Miss Bean is quite ill. George Macnaughton is wearing a pleased smile and passing around the cigars over the arrival of a boy at his home.

A large gang of men are at work on the big hill and the work is being rushed, but owing to the heavy storm work, so several visited the village. After doing their shopping they proceeded to paint the town red. The law-abiding citizens think it would be advisable for the council to appoint a couple of good strong policemen for the summer.

Farmers are drawing logs to the mill and at every house one can see large piles of wood, which has mostly been cut along the right-of-way of the new railroad. F. M. Lawson has moved his cottage from Boyce Island to Caldwell's Point, and has also had a wharf built. Albert Biskup had the job, and is also building a large float in front of Cliff Lodge, the summer home of H. B. Sherwood.

Elmer Wagar, B.A.R., engineer, has moved to Tweed, and Robert Polton, Deseronto, has come to fill the vacancy. Curran Bros., of Hartington, are doing good work around the village with their sawing machine. Joseph Burley, a farmer, met with a serious accident on Thursday while helping a large boiler up to the mines at Gul Lake. He got in front of the team, and the driver not knowing he was there, started the team, with the result Mr. Burley was knocked down and the sleigh and load passed over his legs, breaking it in two places, besides mangling the flesh badly against a large stone. Mr. Burley was taken to his home and Drs. Tovell and Sargeant called.

While cutting wood Thursday morning, at the farm of Mrs. Bowers, Harvey Leeman had the bad luck to give his knee cap a bad cut with the axe. The young man was hurried to his sister's home in the village, and Dr. Sargeant was called. Several stitches were put in the wound. It is only about three-weeks ago the young man cut his leg while chopping wood at Verona.

Smith; Mrs. Albert Amey Norway, at her niece's, Mrs. Babcock's, last week; Mrs. A. J. Young and daughter, spent a few days at Napanea; Mrs. T. P. Maxwell, who has been ill, at the home of her parents, has returned to Kingston, accompanied by her daughter and mother, Mrs. Sanson. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Truscott, spent Thursday in the city. Mrs. G. Bishop left on Thursday, for Toronto. Roy Richerts will attend the wedding of his cousin, Miss Florence Richerts, in Kingston, next week. Rev. Mr. McRoberts and D. W. Lake, are attending the Holiness convention at Inverary this week. Sylvester Hobbs and daughter, Watertown, N.Y., are at Mrs. C. Hobbs's. Mrs. Chown, Kingston, has been here with Mrs. Lockhart. Mrs. Wesley Davis has recovered from her recent illness.

Charles Rutan received word from Inverary, on Wednesday, of the severe illness of his little granddaughter, with pneumonia, but the little girl is doing nicely. The Ladies' Guild, of St. Paul's church, met at the rectory, but owing to the bad walking only a few attended. Services are held every Wednesday night, at St. Paul's, at which time Rev. Mr. Dowdell will answer questions relating to the Bible or church affairs, which are placed in the question box just inside the church door. There were four asked, last Wednesday night, and the explanations were instructive and interesting. WAGARVILLE NEWS

Wagarville, March 23.—The concert held in the Methodist church this week, by Mr. Stubbs, was not very well attended on account of the bad roads and the snow storm. Paul Berger, of Germanicus, and his sister, Clara, spent a few days here visiting their mother, Mrs. Joseph Raben. The latter is now away on a visit to Renfrew county. The village school, which has been closed ever since the Christmas vacation, because the board of trustees were not able to get a teacher, having the desired qualifications, has at last been opened again, with Mrs. H. Reiley, of Kingston, as teacher. M. R. Reid, public school inspector, for North Frontenac and Adlington, is paying one of his official visits to the public schools in this vicinity. Thomas Dool has rented W. J. Slater's farm, near the Swamp Road, and moved on it with his family. Robert Sten has moved again on his farm on the Adlington Road.

Something Wrong Somewhere.

Jesse Lynch Williams says that since the publication of his novel, "The Married Life of the Frailer Carrolls," this dialogue between himself and ladies whom he chances to meet is so common as to be monotonous:

"And what is your new book about, Mr. Williams?"

"It aims to tell the truth about marriage."

"Oh, dear! I'm so tired of unpleasant books!"

"But this one is not unpleasant."

"Well, then, how can it be true?"

Frosty Sky-Scrapers.

"High buildings, sir?" remarked an American, contemptuously. "Why, in England, you don't know what height is! Last time I was in New York it was a blazing hot day, and I saw a man coming out of a lift wrapped from top to toe in bearskins, and I said to him:

"Why, are you muffled up on a broiling day like this?"

"Was," he said, "you see, I live at the top of the building, and it's so high that it's covered with snow all the year round."—Tit-Bits.

Too Much to Expect.

"Don't you know," said the policeman to the servant as she was dumping a pail of garbage in an open lot, "that what you are doing is against the law?"

"Oh, don't talk to me about the law," replied the girl. "It's all I can do to keep the Ten Commandments."
