Dr. Edwards, Frontenac, urged upon the government and the minister of agriculture the necessity of appointing a commission to inspect the weights of butter and cheese. He claimed 'that the farmer did not get full weight for his product and that all dairy products should be inspected, graded and stamped by government inspectors before it leaves their hands for the mar-

Sidney Fisher, minister of agricul ture, could not agree with Dr. Edwards. He explained that if dairy produce was inspected, graded and stamped by government officials, "it would have to be placed in cold storage and the owner would be put to considerable inconvenience in shipping it to the markets. They would have to await its being passed by the inspectors before they could touch this would take time and the minister was of the opinion that the dairy producers would not like to be sub jected to such regulations.

The house then went into committee of supply on the estimates of the minister of agriculture. Interesting statistics are out regarding the resolutions pro and con, as to reciprocity, sent to the government.
