Pretty Good Interest.

Peterboro Examiner The $320,000 voted in parliament on Friday to provide seed grain to give beginners at farming a start in the west, if distributed to those who will make proper use of the privilege, is a good investment. If a bushel of seed yields fifteen bushels of crop, the se sult would be an addition of nearly five million bushels to the wheat production of the west, which at seventyfive cents a bushel, means a value of a million and a quarter. Pretty good interest from a national point of view.
