THE SPORT REVIEW

TWO BASEBALL MEETINGS TO BE HELD.

President of City Baseball League to be Chosen—Park Nine Team to Enter the Junior City Baseball League.

The Victoria baseball team will hold its first meeting this season, in the Y.M.C.A. building, this evening, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers for the year and general transaction of business.

A meeting of the executive of the City Baseball League will be held Friday evening. The chief business is the electing of a president. This will probably be an interesting meeting, in view of the fact that no names have as yet been mentioned for the presidency. Other items of business will also be attended to.

Indoor Hockey Games.
There will be two games of indoor hockey at the Y.M.C.A., this evening. The first game, at 7:30 o'clock, will be between teams captained by Fleming and Edgar. The second one, at 8:30 o'clock, will be between teams captained by Holland and Keill.

Park Nine Organize.
A number of the baseball fans got together, last evening, and organized a baseball team to put into the Junior City League, to be called the Park Nine. Officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, J. McD. Mowat; honorary vice-presidents, Capt. Olsen and Dr. Robert Hanley; president, Thomas Yellowley; vice-president, P. J. Hunt; secretary-treasurer, J. Catlin; manager, P. J. Moran; coach, G. Mathewson; scorer, L. Fitzgerald.

All Kinds of Sports.
Empires of the National Baseball League have had their eyesight tested. The Hamilton Rowing Club has fixed April 29th the date for the Ontario indoor championship meet, which will be held here under the auspices of the club in the new armories.

Gov. Aldrich, of Nebraska, vetoed the Sunday baseball law, accompanying the veto with a message charging the democrats with "peanut politics," in securing the adoption of the measure. Now they say they will pass it again, over his veto.

Ottawa Journal: Though football talk is hardly seasonable at the present, Ottawans will learn with interest that Allan Dowling, the former McGill and Queen's line plunger and inside wing, has located permanently in the capital, and that he will line up with the Big Four squad next September.

Toronto Telegram: Kingston folk are doing their damnest, to raise money sufficient to build a George cup challenger, but have not met with much success. The little hamlet, of Watertown, N.Y., however, has raised the necessary fifteen hundred dollars, and expect to put a fast boat in the water.

Boxing promoters have begun negotiations for the holding of an international amateur boxing tournament in New York, which will practically determine the world's championship. The principal class to be catered to in the proposed competitions will be the heavyweight with entries from England and France bidding for the title against well-known American exponents of the game.

TWO CONCERTS HELD

In Bethel and Zion Churches Last Evening.

A delightful concert was given in Bethel Congregational church, last evening, under the auspices of the "Helping Hand Class," in aid of the walk which is to be built. Twenty dollars was realized. The programme was of a high order. Vocal solos were given by Misses Gertrude Holland, Wynne Wolgar, and Frances Davies. Messrs. Mack and Armstrong were escorted after singing the duet, "Laird and Watch." Herbert C. Tremer, the talented blind organist, delighted everyone with his piano selections and gave a particularly funny musical romance which consisted of snatches from well-known songs. He also played a piano duet, with Miss Hazel Rutherford, which was much appreciated. Ald. Daniel Couper sang in his usual pleasing way. A vocal selection was rendered by the mixed quartette composed of Misses Holland and Messrs. Wilson and Thompson. Readings by Robert Tremer and recitations by Miss Agnes Monks and J. Parker were thoroughly enjoyed. A duet by the Misses Ross was also very much enjoyed.

At Zion Church.

The Ladies' Guild of Zion Presbyterian church held a successful affair in the church, Tuesday afternoon. Home-made candy and produce were the principal things for sale and the members of the congregation bought freely. In the evening, a most excellent dinner was served in the hall of the church, which was largely attended. Afterward a very fine programme was rendered in the church. Rev. J. D. Boyd, the pastor, presided. Bandmaster Webb and A. E. Hunt, of the 14th band, were present and gave instrumental solos, which were much appreciated. Mrs. Craig, a talented reader, gave some very fine Irish readings, which were thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Jessie Reid sang in her usual pleasing manner, as also did Arthur Trousdale, William McFledge, the well-known entertainer, created roars of laughter with his funny jokes and recitations. Isabella and Dorothy Kenny, two little girls, recited very nicely. The ladies were well satisfied with the result of the affair, as they realized quite a sum.

Dead at Wellington.
John W. Clark, Wellington, passed away at his home on Sunday morning. He had been laid aside for a number of years from active church work. He was for over twenty-five years superintendent of the Methodist Sabbath school, also a teacher of a young people's class. Mr. Clark will be missed at home also in the church. He leaves a widow, three sons and three daughters, a sister, Mrs. B. Ferguson, also to mourn his loss. He was aged sixty. The funeral took place Tuesday.

MEETING OF THE W.C.T.U.

The Business Transacted on Tuesday Afternoon.

The April meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held, Tuesday afternoon, in the Y.W.C.A. parlors, and was well attended, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The president was in her accustomed place, and conducted the devotional exercises. After singing the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," Mrs. Briden led in prayer, followed by a very interesting explanation of Philippi, 12, by Mrs. McCallum. She illustrated her remarks by quotations from the farewell sermon of the noted preacher, soon to leave England for New York, Rev. Dr. Jowett. The treasurer's report was brief, but favorable. A kind card of thanks received by the corresponding secretary, recalled to mind the loss to the union of the late lamented Miss Inkster, who, although not an actual member of the union for some time past, yet had always been in entire sympathy with its aims. As superintendent of the department of prison work, she never failed in her interest in the female inmates of the penitentiary; and as long as she was able, continued her visits to the prison, and always spoke so feelingly of how kindly she was received by them. In her death, not only the union, but Kingston, has lost an earnest, devoted, Christian worker.

Mrs. James Gardiner gave a brief report of the mother's meetings held during the winter. The attendance, while not so good as during previous winter months, yet was encouraging. Six was the average attendance. The usual talks were given on useful subjects, and many useful hints regarding the comfort and happiness of home life, were given. Short Bible studies were always held. Refreshments and a social half hour usually closed the meetings. Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Briden and Mrs. McCallum deserve well-merited praise for their unceasing interest in this department of the union's work.

The meetings of the Dominion Alliance were referred to, and it was decided that members of the union do all in their power to aid in whatever way was most helpful to advance the work they had undertaken.—COM.

FOREST-LAPUM WEDDING.

A Former Garden Island Young Lady the Bride.

This morning the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lapum, Earl street, was the scene of a pretty event when their only daughter, Miss Jean Eleanor, was united in marriage to John Forrest, of Brandon. The wedding was very quiet, only the immediate relatives being present. The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room, which was very prettily decorated, by Rev. Mr. Cox, of Wolfe Island. The bride, who was supported by Miss Olive Phillip, of Drayton, Ont., looked very pretty in her wedding dress of white satin, with a white net veil and a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by the brother of the bride, Benson Lapum. After the ceremony, the guests repaired to the spacious dining-room, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served by Caterer Marshall Reid. The decorations of the dining-room were tulips and cut flowers. The bride then slipped away to don her going-away gown of blue tweed, with blue turban to match. The happy couple left on the fast train, at noon, for Toronto. Thence they will go to Winnipeg, and then to their home in Brandon, where Mr. Forrest holds a lucrative position as train dispatcher on the C.P.R.

The bride, who until recently lived on Garden Island was one of the most popular young ladies there, and the good wishes of a host of friends go with her to her new home. A large number of valuable presents were received by her.

AT THE POLICE COURT.

Fines Levied on Prohibited List Members.

This morning two members of the prohibited liquor list were before Police Magistrate Farrell. John Flanagan was fined fifteen dollars and costs or one month in jail and Michael Hogan fifteen dollars and costs or two months in jail. Alexander Smith, who was before the court yesterday, got into trouble again by getting drunk and was fined five dollars and costs. H. Walker, who was drunk, but who had never been in a court before, was given a chance.

Postal Clerks' Association.

The post office clerks held their annual meeting, last night, and elected the following officers for the year: Postmaster James Stewart, hon. president; R. E. Genge, president; R. J. D'Arcy, vice-president; W. J. Wells, secretary; E. C. Hiscock, treasurer. W. T. Harkness was chosen as delegate to attend the civil service convention in Ottawa on April 20th, 21st and 22nd.

The Last Chance.

To witness that most remarkable film, "A Tale of Two Cities," by Dickens, Wednesday and Thursday. Tonight we are repeating Part II, together with Part III. This is one of the many stories the King Edward has booked for the near future. Our motto is: "Quality, not Quantity."

Last of Lenten Services.
Rev. J. O. Crisp, of St. John's church, Portsmouth, spoke at the last of the Lenten services which have been held weekly in St. Luke's church throughout the season. His subject was, "Duty," and he gave a very interesting talk.

ASK COUNTY COUNCIL

TO INCREASE GRANTS TO THE HOSPITALS.

Grand Jury Submit Their Report to the High Court—County Congratulated on the Freedom From Crime.

The grand jury at the high court, submitted their report, on Wednesday morning, and were discharged from further duty by Justice Clute. The jury reported as follows:

"We congratulate the county on the freedom from crime. We visited the jail, and found it clean and sanitary. There were no complaints from officials or prisoners. We also visited the general hospital, and Hotel Dieu, and found them modern and up-to-date. We recommend our county council to increase their grants to so worthy a cause. We visited Rockwood asylum, and Dr. Ryan showed the grand jury through the different wards, and found everything around the building in first-class order, the asylum, with its beautiful grounds, was much admired, and everything around the institution appears to be done with a view to give as much pleasure as possible to the poor unfortunate inmates therein."

After the report had been read by the clerk, his lordship stated that the recommendations made in the report would be forwarded to the proper authorities.

COMING TO THE GRAND.

William Faversham in "The Faun" on Friday Evening.

The title of William Faversham's new play, "The Faun," by Edward Knoblauch, which he will present here on Thursday, April 6th, at the Grand, will prove somewhat curious to the average theatregoer. Were it not for the name of Peter Pan, this play would very likely be called the Son of Pan. There is no likeness between the two plays, however, only this—a faun is supposed to be the son of Pan, one of the deities of the woods and herds. In this new play Mr. Faversham impersonates the faun. Mr. Knoblauch has devised a most curious and unique story, a distinct dramatic novelty. He has taken a faun, a half human creature with horns, pointed ears and goat's feet, and transported it from the woods and herds of the countryside to modern life. The faun, of course, is unacquainted with the conventions of modern society with the result that many curious situations are involved. Mr. Knoblauch's achievements as a dramatist are of such a character to lead one to expect a play of very unusual quality.

The Private Secretary.

That most successful play, "The Private Secretary," comes to the Grand on Saturday, April 8th, matinee and night. "The Private Secretary" will never lose its place in the field of light comedy as long as people like to laugh and forget the whips and scorns of time. The piece deserves to stand in the front rank of all theatrical comedies designed for laughing purposes only. The English company representing the comedy is a very capable one, many having appeared in the play over 500 times. C. James Bancroft plays "The Rev. Robert Spaulding," a part he has played over 2,000 times in England.

Mr. Smith Faints

When he discovers that instead of marrying Flossie, an actress, that it is his own wife in substitution, but a cup of cold water brings him to.

Separate School Board.

A meeting of the separate school board was held, last evening, but no business of any importance was transacted. A number of new rules were moved, but on account of the number, it was thought advisable not to pass any of them at present.

Couldn't Divide Children.

So no divorce will be allowed to Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

Both parties to this dreadful affair have made up and are now happily located in Kingston at the Bijou theatre for to-night.

Left for Halifax.

William H. Smallridge, foreman for Michael Sullivan, left at noon, to-day, for Halifax, N.S., to superintend the construction of the armories there, $90 contract. He expects to be gone until December.

Reciprocity in the Interests of Canada.

The first debate under the auspices of the newly formed Young Men's Club of Cooke's Presbyterian church was held in the lecture hall of the church last evening. The affair was well attended and proved very interesting. The subject was "Resolved, that reciprocity is in the interests of the Dominion of Canada." The affirmative was taken by Grant Smith and the negative by Donald Parkhill. After a very able discussion the affirmative side won by a very narrow margin and it was decided that reciprocity was in the interests of the Dominion of Canada. The negative side was somewhat hampered by the fact that David Somerville, one of its members, was unable to speak on account of illness. The first debate is regarded by the officers and all those who are connected with the club to have been a very successful affair from every standpoint.

W. B. Yeats Gets Pension.
The Irish Booklover says that Premier Asquith has conferred a civil pension of £150 ($750) a year on W. B. Yeats, the Irish poet. Irishmen the world over will feel pride in the fact that one of the most brilliant living Irish writers should have been the object of official recognition. W. B. Yeats' efforts on behalf of Irish literature have been unceasing for several years, and he has done much to encourage the study of the ancient poets and singers of his native land. Mr. Yeats gave an address in Convocation hall, Queen's university, several years ago.
