IMPRESSIONS OF IRELAND. Some Ideas on Irish Home Rule Propounded.

Conditions in Ireland, at the present, impress others as they did Rev. T. E. Bourke. The following excerpts are from the Montreal Witness of recent date:

Rev. Joseph Sullivan, M.A., delivered an illustrated lecture on Ireland and the Irish people in the lecture hall of the First Baptist church, last night. The lecturer said that the Ireland of his boyhood had passed away. The people then continually quarrelled concerning religious matters, but now they did not interfere with each other, and were a prosperous, united people.

"John Bassett, B.A., was the speaker at a meeting of St. Patrick's Literary and Debating Club, The Future of Ireland, was his theme and after referring to what he considered some serious defects in the present system of Irish government, he made a powerful and eloquent plea for the establishment of a national parliament in Dublin.

"Mr. Bassett, as an Irish Protestant bore testimony to the spirit of toleration and friendship between all classes and creeds which was rapidly spreading throughout Ireland. There was every reason to believe, he said, that with the advent of home rule the last vestige of religious bigotry would disappear.

SMOKE NUISANCE EXPENSIVE. Loss of $17,600,000 for Extra Laundry and Cleaning.

Chicago, April 5.—The smoke nuisance is responsible for an annual financial loss to citizens of Chicago of $17,600,000, or 88 per cent, in the matter of extra laundry and cleaning, according to a report made to Mayor Luse, Saturday, by Paul P. Bird, in charge of the department of smoke inspection. The report says:

"Fully one-half of the dirt caused by soft coal smoking comes from steam locomotives. Neither by the use of smoke devices nor by the use of fuels in the smoke from a steam locomotive is reduced very much below the point already achieved by the roads who are doing their best.

"The conclusion is, therefore, that electrification offers the only final and satisfactory solution of the railway smoke problem."
