Suit Satisfaction--Trimmings

Don't you know that the quality of linings and pockets are very important in a suit of clothes? Good lining and pockets and all other trimmings are very necessary to suit satisfaction. Unless the four has good canvas, haircloth, and padding, etc., he cannot make a good job in moulding a coat to the form of the body. We are careful to buy and use only good trimmings, so when you get from us a Suit, you have good cloth, good trimmings, and good style and workmanship, which is sure satisfaction.

MAY ASK REDUCTION

OF THE LIQUOR LICENSES IN KINGSTON.

The Newly-formed Temperance Association to Meet This Evening—Questions Up For Consideration.

A meeting of the newly-formed Kingston and Frontenac Temperance Association will be held in the Y.M.C.A. this evening, at eight o'clock. This association was formed about three weeks ago, as the result of a conference following the field day here of the Dominion Alliance. It was formed for the purpose of assisting those townships which wish to have local option in getting their desire. The meeting this evening will be for the purpose of outlining some campaign for either reduction of licenses or local option. There are a few townships in the county which have not local option, and ways and means for launching a campaign will be discussed. It is altogether probable that the question of license reduction in the city of Kingston will also be discussed. The law regarding the license reduction is more favorable now than heretofore. As it is now, if ten per cent. of the people petition for license reduction, the petition must be read twice by the council and then submitted to the people for their vote. If there is a majority in favor of license reduction, the council must read the bill the third time, when it becomes law. It is not the privilege of the council to shelve it, as heretofore. It is hardly probable that the association will adopt a measure to have a local option campaign launched. Rev. Dr. MacTavish, who was elected president, will preside at the meeting.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

Mild Weather Sure Start for Opening.

The marine men regard this mild spell as a sure "starter" for the opening of navigation.

Navigation opened at Port Arthur on Monday. The steamer Easton was the first steamer to arrive in port, making the trip from Duluth, with freight and passengers. Last year navigation opened at Port Arthur on March 31st.

A meeting of the underwriters was held in Kingston, last night, for the purpose of making a settlement on the steamer Cataract, which was recently damaged by fire at Brockville.

Remembered Mr. Dolan.

John H. Dolan, who recently resigned the principalship of Picton high school to take a similar position in the Oshawa Collegiate Institute, was generously remembered by his Picton friends. The Tennis Club presented him with the set (fifteen volumes) of Stoddard's Travel Lectures. The students tendered him a banquet and presented him with a gold watch and Mrs. Dolan with a beautiful cut glass vase, and the Sunday school presented him with an upholstered oak chair.

Woman Approves Harem Skirt.

A prominent teacher in one of the public schools of this city says the harem skirt is all right. "The sooner the women wear those skirts the healthier they will become, and the fewer colds they will have," she said. This lady is also a leading Sunday school worker, so her words should have weight.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

Of the First Baptist Church Was Held Wednesday.

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist church was held Wednesday evening. The pastor presided and a large amount of business was transacted. The clerk's report showed that eighteen members had been added during the year while death had claimed two of the oldest and most highly respected. The treasurer's statement showed all liabilities met to date, except the winter's coal bill, which it is hoped will be taken care of shortly.

A. C. Singleton was re-elected clerk and W. R. Campbell was re-elected treasurer. Dr. Lake, treasurer of the building fund, had a very encouraging report to present, and was re-elected treasurer of that fund. T. A. Wright and W. H. Pickering were appointed auditors. W. R. Campbell and Dr. Lake were re-elected to the layconate. H. Breathwaite was added to the building committee and James Leslie was elected a member of the finance committee and of the advisory board. All the officers of the past year were re-elected. The meeting was largely attended and very harmonious.

REFUSED TO PERMIT

Chicago Man to Wear Harem Skirt on Streets.

Kingston is the first place to refuse a man permission to appear on its streets in women's garb. It is said the reason permission was refused was on account of the fact that Mayor Graham has been getting after the police for not enforcing the petty by-laws. When the harem skirt man arrived in town, yesterday afternoon, he went directly to Mayor Graham and, he says, he was given permission to appear on the streets dressed in the latest feminine garment from Paris. Chief of Police Bailey got busy in the meantime and warned the visitor if he appeared on the streets dressed in such a garb, he would be arrested. He paraded around the Randolph hotel, but did not go on the street, as constables were waiting for him. In the meantime, Arthur Lynn, manager of the Orpheum Theatre, got busy, and printed handbills, saying that the harem-skirt man would appear on the stage once during the evening. A packed house greeted the appearance of the novelty.

Kingston Presbytery.

A meeting of the Kingston presbytery will be held on April 27th, and at this session students will be licensed to preach in the western mission fields. At this meeting the call extended by the Sunbury church to Rev. E. Drummie, of Roseau, will also be considered. The resignation of Rev. Dr. Mackie may also come before the members, but it was not known definitely, to-day, if it would be taken up at this meeting.

The Loading Depth.

William Livingstone, president of the Lake Carriers' Association, has received a message from J. W. LeL. Ross, engineer in charge of the Canadian canal at Sault Ste. Marie, announcing that the recommended loading depth for up-bound vessels at the opening is 17 feet 9 inches, and for down-bound vessels 15 feet 3 inches.

Appointed a Committee.

There was another meeting at Cooke's church, on Wednesday night, relative to some proposed alterations to be made to the Sunday school hall, but no definite action was taken in the matter. A committee was appointed to make plans, which will be submitted for approval at another meeting.

ABERNETHY'S

ACTION DISMISSED

CLAIM FOR DAMAGES BY REASON OF FLOOD.

Case Against Township of Wolfe Island Was Disposed of—No Entry Made of Work Carried Out.

At the high court, late Wednesday afternoon, Justice Clute dismissed, without costs, the action of Emma Armstrong against the corporation of the township of Wolfe Island, for damages to the extent of $1,000 for the flooding of her property, which is situated on Wolfe Island. It was reported that the township council has agreed to expend the sum of $50 to place the drain, which figured in the case, in proper shape. Quite a number of witnesses were called to give evidence. Messrs. G. M. Macdonnell and J. M. Farrell appeared on behalf of the plaintiff and J. L. Whiting and W. F. Nickle acted for the defendants.

The claim put forth by the plaintiff was that her cellar had been flooded, owing to the fact that the township had diverted their drainage, and in connection with this a most extraordinary thing was revealed, in that no record could be found on the books of the township to show that the work had been carried on by the township. The work was carried out on the instructions of the township council, but no minute of this matter of business could be found on the books, although it was shown that money had been paid out for the work. This unusual state of affairs brought forth a comment from the judge.

The evidence of the plaintiff went to show that prior to 1899, when the diversion in the drainage was made, no trouble had been caused by flooding of the property.

Mrs. J. Davis and G. Keyes gave evidence for the plaintiff at the Wednesday afternoon session, the plaintiff giving evidence in the morning.

William Fawcett, reeve of the township, was the first witness called for the defence, and he told about the plaintiff's cellar being flooded prior to the time when a change was made in the water course. Speaking of the property witness said the house in question was seventy years old and that he would consider it would be well sold for the sum of $1,000.

D. J. Dawson, the township clerk, was called, and produced his books, but no record could be found concerning the work to the drain.

Other witnesses called for the defence were Capt. James Crawford, J. Davis, Thomas Gaffill, Michael Shea, James Davis, William Card, W. G. Woodman, Dr. Spankie and Thomas Hutchison.

In presenting argument Mr. Macdonnell pointed out that damage had been caused to the plaintiff's property by the back flow of water. The cellar could not be used and the spring water in it could not be used owing to the overflow of the water into the drain. He held that an injunction should be given to the plaintiff to abate the nuisance. The council had been notified but gave no heed to the protests.

Mr. Whiting contended that the township had a right to divert the drain. There was no evidence to prove that the municipality had caused the damage. As to the claim for damages the house would only bring a rental of about $60 a year. The case was one which should have been taken before the county court and fought out. The case should not have been taken to the high court.

His lordship stated that he found that the property in question was flooded a long time before the change in the drain was made. He also found that the change was the cause of a certain amount of injury to the plaintiff in that it allowed the water to stand in the cellar. In a time of a flood it required more time for the water to get away. It had not been shown, however, that the township council had authorized the change, and he would therefore dismiss the case without costs. If, however, he was found to be wrong, in this regard, he would request that the township expend the sum of $50 to make the necessary changes which would do away with the flooding.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

This Evening William Faversham in "The Faun."

William Faversham will present his new play, "The Faun," at the Grand to-night. "The Faun" was written for Mr. Faversham by Edward Knoblauch, and the nature of the story promises an entertainment of great novelty and dramatic interest. In this play Mr. Faversham impersonates a faun—the same being the son of Pan, the god of the shepherd. While this might indicate that the play was one of pure fantasy, this is not entirely the case. The faun, in Mr. Knoblauch's comedy leaves his natural element, that of the woods and fields, and one night wanders into London, where he is discovered one night bathing in a fountain. He is taken into the house, clothed as a human being, and then the story begins. As the faun knows nothing whatever about the conventions of life, it may easily be imagined that the dramatist has utilized the theme to the end that some surprising results are secured. Mr. Knoblauch, the author of "The Faun," has the greatest success now current on the London stage, the same being "Priscilla Runs Away" at the Haymarket Theatre. Mr. Faversham is supported by a fine company. His leading lady is the beautiful Julie Opp.

The Private Secretary.

What should prove one of the most noteworthy of the offerings of the present theatrical season will be the presentation of that funniest of all farce comedies, "The Private Secretary," which comes to the Grand on Saturday, April 8th; bargain matinee and night. "The Private Secretary" was revived this winter in Boston and New York, where it broke all records in both the Colonial in Boston and the Empire Theatre in New York. So great was its success in the latter theatre that Mr. Gillette extended his engagement for three weeks longer, going to the Criterion, where it enjoyed the same huge business. "The Private Secretary" is a scream from the rise of the curtain until the fall of same and the company presenting the famous comedy is one specially selected for their respective parts.

Old Lake Captain Dead.

Capt. James Stebbins, an old marine man, died, in Sodus, N.Y. He was the oldest resident of that town, being ninety-four years old. Capt. Stebbins came to the great lakes from England when twenty years old, and sailed for a number of years under Capt. Allen. Later he sailed several of the largest vessels on the lakes, retiring in 1872.
