PUBLIC TEST

Wants to Have North York Opened Up.

TO TRY RECIPROCITY

THE OPPOSITION ALWAYS SEEKING A NEW TRIAL.

And They are Generally Very Much Worse Off in the End—Sorry to Lose Hon. Mr. Aylesworth Should He Decide Not to Run Again.

Special to the Whig. Ottawa, April 13.—Before the House of Commons, April 13, before the debate on reciprocity, yesterday, (Claude Macdonell (South Toronto) challenged the government to open up the constituency in North York, which is represented in the commons by Hon. Sir Allan Aylesworth, on the question of reciprocity.

Mr. Macdonell said that this constituency was one of the farming districts in Canada and it would make a good public test. It is understood that Mr. Aylesworth will not run again and why not have a bye-election at once, said Mr. Macdonell.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth replied that it was time that he had told his constituency that he would not again be a candidate. But said the minister of justice: "I approve of reciprocity with both hands and I believe that it suits the people of North York as well as the people of the rest of the country from people who never voted for it in their lives and they intend voting for reciprocity on the first opportunity." Sir Allan humorously pictured the opposition as a bunch of convicts in a penitentiary, "always asking for a new trial. But should they be granted a new trial they would be worse off in the end."

Ton. Mr. Fielding said it was evident that the opposition wanted to see an appeal to the people immediately and quoting from a conservative newspaper, "the opposition had better be careful, the London tariff reform spring an election before we are ready and the result might not be as expected." Mr. Fielding paid a high compliment to Sir Allan Aylesworth and said that the government would be sorry to lose his valuable services if he decided not to run again.

Mr. Lancaster, of Lincoln, blurted out that Mr. Aylesworth was the convict because he had been defeated once (in Durham) and the government had to find a seat for him in North York.

A. Broder (Dundas) asked the minister of railways if he had obtained a report of the conserving of the water power at Waddington and if so what effect would it have on the navigation on the St. Lawrence.

Mr. Graham replied that he had not as yet received the report but would look into the matter at once.

R. L. Borden, leader of the opposition, wanted to know if it was the intention of the government to make any fiscal change in the British preference during the present session. He read from the London tariff reform league pamphlet that tariff changes were to be made by the Canadian parliament immediately reciprocity was passed. He claimed that Mr. Fielding had foreshadowed this in his speech on Jan. 26th and also on March 2nd in his cable to Lord Strathcona, Canadian high commissioner at London, that the British preference would be increased to forty per cent. the moment reciprocity was passed.

There has been no reference to this in the budget speech and it is about time a clear statement was made on this matter by the finance minister, as to the policy of the government.

Mr. Nesbitt: "If I may be allowed, 'Are you in favor of an increase of the British preference?'"

Mr. Forden: "If we were seated on the treasury benches, we would give a much clearer statement of what was proposed than has been given by the government."

Hon. Mr. Fielding said was understood that while the discussion of reciprocity was on, it was not proposed to discuss British preference. There is nothing in the reciprocity agreement to prevent the Canadian people from having changes made in the tariff at any time, such freedom was reserved. It may be necessary if reciprocity passes to make a few changes in our tariff with Great Britain, but these changes will not include an increase of the British preference to fifty per cent. He was of the opinion that the Canadian manufacturing interests could not be successfully carried on if this was done. If we do not make farming implements free and also do not increase the British preference to fifty per cent., the reciprocity agreement will work out decidedly disadvantageously.

Charles Owen (Northumberland) asked the minister of agriculture what were the qualifications of the 220 census commissioners just appointed.

Mr. Fisher answered that the commissioners appointed were those who had the best knowledge of the different electoral districts and who were recommended by those whose judgment "I have most faith in."

Mr. Owen: "Are there any conservatives to be appointed?"

Hon. Mr. Fisher: "If there are any conservatives competent to fill the positions the government would have no objections in having them appointed."

In answer to a question, by Col. Sam Hughes, "if it was the intention of the government to permit any ecclesiastical dogma or rule to override the laws of the people of Canada," the minister of justice replied that the government was not acquainted with any law in Canada that is over-riden by any ecclesiastical dogma.

For some time it has been hinted in liberal circles that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attendance at the imperial conference might be contingent upon the outcome of the reciprocity question. There is said to be nothing in the report that the premier has abandoned the idea of going to Great Britain. He wants to go and has arranged to sail on May 12th.

It is felt to be highly desirable, if not essential, that Sir Wilfrid should attend the conference and represent the country at the coronation of his majesty, but if the session is to be prolonged and the reciprocity agreement, now under discussion for three months, is to drag on indefinitely, it is quite probable that the prime minister will stay where he is.

It is believed, however, that after the recess there will be a sort of readjustment of matters. A parliamentary delegation of eighteen has been selected to go to the coronation and they are all pretty keen about it. It is believed that matters after Easter will be in a more settled condition than heretofore and the fate of reciprocity will then be definitely determined as regards the attitude of both parties to it.

Just at present the government shows no sign of abandoning the proposal, while the opposition is equally insistent in its stand. It is obvious, however, that interest in the house is petering out. For the past week little more than a bare quorum has followed the discussion in the chamber.

NEWSPAPER SUES FOR LIBEL.

Chronicle Will Get After "Esteemed Contemporary."

Quebec, April 13.—The Daily Telegraph (liberal), of this city, having accused the Quebec Chronicle of being a subsidized organ of the anti-reciprocity league, the Canadian Manufacturers' association, and the high protectionists, the Chronicle has instructed its solicitors to institute an action for damages against the Telegraph.

The Authorities of the University Do Not Know What to Do With the Supply Left by Crocker.

New York, April 13.—Members of the faculty of Columbia University are unable to determine what disposition should be made of 60,000 cigars, said to be worth from $20,000 to $30,000, left by the will of the late George Crocker, together with a sum exceeding $1,000,000, which is to be used for the study of the cure of cancer, to which both he and his wife left victims.

The cigars, which bear the monogram of the dead philanthropist, were found in a vault made especially for them in the Crocker residence on the great estate at Mahwah, N.J., in the Ramapo mountains.

The cigars were made in factories in different parts of the world, for Mr. Crocker, who was a connoisseur in tobacco.

Should the lawyers find that the cigars cannot come under the classification "household goods and furnishings," the trustees of the university will be unable to sell them and consequently will have to find some other method of disposing of them.

ABDUCTED HIS NEPHEW.

Now He's in Jail and Money Returned.

Las Vegas, N.M., April 13.—The preliminary hearing of Will Rogers and Joe Wiggins, confessed abductor of little Waldo Rogers, has opened here.

As Rogers is an uncle of the boy who was kidnapped from his mother on the night of March 29th, there is much feeling against him. The father of the kidnapped boy paid $12,000 for his recovery. Will Rogers told where the money was hidden and it was recovered.

MAY HAVE BEEN AMBUSHED.

Fears for Safety of Expedition Against Tribesmen.

New York, April 13.—A cable from Calcutta says: "Grave fears are felt for the safety of an expedition under Deputy Commissioner Bentick, of the military police, which set out to punish the Abor tribesmen, who murdered Neel Williamson, a British official, and his party on the Assam frontier last week. No news has been received from the party since it left."

Caught the Burglars.

Hamilton, Ont., April 13.—Joseph Kibble and William Hurd, captured by the police after an exciting chase, were committed for trial on a charge of burglarizing the residence of Dr. William Bell. The doctor heard a noise in his kitchen and telephoned for the police, who caught Hurd and Kibble in the vicinity. Kibble is out on parole from Kingston.

To Take Up Land in Province of Alberta.

Guthrie, Okla., April 13.—The exodus of negroes from this state to Alberta, which started several months ago, is continuing despite the fact that it is not being encouraged by the Canadian government. Twenty negro farmers from near Falls, Lincoln county, left here last night, to take the colony in Alberta.

They expect to take up claims, and will immediately build homes and start their crops, after which their families, numbering in all about two hundred persons, will join them. It is said here that a colonization company is financing the negroes during the first season.

RAILWAYS IN ASIA MINOR.

Russia is Opposed to American Projects.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—That Russia is opposed to American railway projects in Asia Minor is for the first time officially acknowledged in an interview which the editor of the Novoye Vremya has had with the acting minister of foreign affairs, M. Neratoff. The minister informed the editor that Russia regarded the recent acquisition of a railroad outlet at Alexandretta by Germany with indifference, as Alexandretta is outside the direct sphere of Russian interests. On being asked why Russia, according to reports, had intervened and insisted that Turkey reject the American railroad project of securing an outlet at Mesina, the minister replied that the American proposals introduced into Asia Minor an entirely new element, which not only considerably complicated the railroad problem, but affected the general political situation in which Russia was interested.

New York Professor May Have to Walk the Carpet.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—Alleging that the teachings of the Rev. Dr. William Adams Brown, a professor at the Union theological seminary, New York, on the inspiration of the Bible and on miracles, are not in accordance with the orthodox teaching of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. W. L. McEwan, a prominent minister of this city, took the initiative before the Pittsburg presbytery and demanded that Prof. Brown be brought before the general assembly. The presbytery accepted an overture and a report will be made at a special meeting on April 24th. Prof. Brown may have to defend his views on the floor of the general assembly, which meets in Atlantic City next month.

Ottawa, April 13.—It is reported here that Canada will soon lose Hon. Clifford Sifton, and that what will be Canada's loss will be Britain's gain.

Hon. Mr. Sifton sold his handsome Ottawa residence and is negotiating for an English place. The belief here is that Hon. Mr. Sifton has an eye upon the Canadian high commissioner in England, and hopes to be appointed Lord Strathcona's successor by a Canadian conservative administration. This project is said to have had something to do with his attitude toward reciprocity.

NO REDUCTION

In Grain Rates From Buffalo to East.

RATES REASONABLE

THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION DECIDES.

Lake and Rail Rate Materially Lower Than the All-rail Rate—Proceedings Pending Many Months.

Washington, April 13.—In a decision yesterday afternoon, the interstate commerce commission declined to make any reduction in what are known as ex-lake grain rates from Buffalo, N.Y., to eastern destinations, either on domestic or export traffic.

The proceeding, pending for many months, was instituted by the Chicago City Railroad company and many other eastern carriers, and by the New York Produce Exchange against the New York Central & Hudson River railroad and others. The complaints were not consolidated, but were heard together and are covered by a single opinion prepared by Commissioner Prouty.

Both complainants attacked the reasonableness of the rates on grain received at Buffalo by water from the west and shipped by rail from Buffalo to eastern points, in the one case for domestic consumption and in the other for export.

The Chicago Board of Trade maintained that the present rates divert traffic from the water-and-rail route to the all-rail route, resulting in undue prejudice against Chicago. The complainant urged that in charging a higher rate on ex-lake grain from Buffalo to the east than from Buffalo to the same destinations when the grain is moved by the all-rail route the carriers were guilty of unjust discrimination against the lake grain, and, therefore, against Chicago.

The defendants replied that the ex-lake rate from Buffalo to Boston, for instance, was reasonable, that the rate from Chicago to Boston was competitive, and that the division of the Buffalo-to-Boston rate, acceptable as the price of engaging in this competitive business, ought not to be used as a standard to measure the reasonableness of their ex-lake rate from Buffalo.

The commission took the view of the carriers, pointing out that manifestly the lake and rail rate from Chicago to the east was reasonable, and, in addition, it is materially lower than the all-rail rate.

Substantially the same arguments applied to the export traffic rates to eastern points. It was decided, therefore, to dismiss both complaints and leave the rates as they now exist, the commission holding that it could not find any unjust discrimination.

FARMERS OF LENOX

Endorse Reciprocity at Meeting at Tamworth.

Tamworth, April 13.—We, the farmers of Lenox, fully endorse the policy embodied in the reciprocity agreement, believing that reciprocity will be mutually advantageous to Canada and the United States, and, moreover, will lead to a better understanding between the two countries.

Western Ontario farmers are strong for reciprocity, but there are enough doubting Thomases to make the issue a fighting one in the east. The farmer who comes out against the agreement feels as lonely as a reciprocity advocate in a manufacturers' meeting.

The men of Lenox gathered two hundred strong in Lenox, yesterday afternoon, to meet Hon. A. G. Mackay, Dr. Morley Currie, M.P. for Prince Edward, and J. McDonald Mowat, of Kingston. At the close of the meeting the above resolution was carried amid an outburst of enthusiasm.

The chairman, Lieut. Col. Clyde, called for the men of Lenox, which was surprised that there was no response, and yet a third of those present were conservatives. The dairy industry occupies a large share of the attention of Lenox farmers. Of the great direct benefit reciprocity will be to them there are no two opinions. The ship in the American tariff, which made the duty on cream five cents a gallon instead of five cents a pound resulted in the shipment of cream to the value of $1,694,000 from Eastern Ontario into the United States in one year. Lenox received its share of American dollars, to the farmers do not need to be told what the removal of the rest of the duty will mean to arouse opposition to the agreement, by declaring that it will force the cheese factories out of business.

Hon. A. G. Mackay, in his address, this afternoon, told the farmers that the agreement would be the one thing that would save the cheese factories. Canadian cream, he pointed out, was being taken away from Canadian factories, but the removal of the duty on cheese, allowing the Canadian product free access into the higher American markets, would equalize things. Farmers, voted their approval in no uncertain way.

Relief on Doctor's Evidence.

Goderich, April 13.—Just before adjournment for luncheon in the Jardine trial, Crown Prosecutor Blackstock suggested that in view of the nature of the evidence given by doctors in regard to the mental and moral nature of the prisoner, Jardine, that everybody but officials, male witnesses, jury and press be excluded this afternoon. His lordship agreed to this. It is understood that the defence will practically rest on the evidence of the doctors regarding their examination for insanity.

REPORTED FAVORABLY

On the Reciprocity Bill Before Congress.

Washington, April 13.—Without the slightest opposition by voice or vote, the Canadian reciprocity bill, introduced in congress yesterday, was reported on favorably, today, by the ways and means committee. There was more discussion, however, when the free list bill was brought up. The vote on it was strictly on party lines, the democrats favoring it and the republicans voting against it. The latter said it was too early to express an intelligent opinion on it. They wanted it referred to the tariff committee, and taken up item by item, and eventually it was agreed not to report it till to-morrow. The Canadian reciprocity bill will come up in congress to-morrow, and will probably pass the House of Representatives without serious opposition. Then for the senate, which may be a different proposition entirely.

DOCTORS ARE DIVIDED

In Opinion as to Cause of Miss Brimacombe's Death.

Cobourg, April 13.—Evidently the trial of Matthews, Jr., the lake sailor, charged with the murder of Miss Brimacombe, will resolve itself into a conflict of medical testimony, as the defence's cross-examination of doctors this morning, was along the line of whether the woman was murdered at all, or merely choked to death by one of the fits to which she was admitted subject. Crown Prosecutors Peter White has found that many of the crown witnesses are very antagonistic to his case, and it is not thought that a conviction will be secured. The doctors are divided in their opinion as to the cause of death.

Relief parties are being distributed all over the stricken district.

FACE ANNIHILATION

TURKISH TROOPS ARE IN GREAT DANGER

In Northern Albania—Grave Doubts Are Expressed as to the Putting Down of the Rebellion.

Constantinople, April 13.—The Turkish forces in Northern Albania are facing utter annihilation at the hands of the rebel tribesmen. The situation is admitted by high officials today to be the most serious in Turkey's history. Grave doubts are entertained that the rebellion can be put down, and there are many of the higher officials who are advising the sultan not to send any more troops for reciprocity, but there are enough doubting Thomases to make the issue a fighting one in the east. The farmer who comes out against the agreement feels as lonely as a reciprocity advocate in a manufacturers' meeting.

Gift to General Hospital.

On Wednesday afternoon the Victorian Circle of the King's Daughters presented a beautiful clock to the Yates ward of the general hospital, in memory of the late Mrs. Octavious Yates, who was the founder of the circle, and who was deeply interested in the work of the hospital, in which a ward is named after her husband, the late Dr. Yates. The presentation of the clock was made by Canon Starr in presence of a goodly company.
