 on the Kenney property would expire on Friday.
 Trustee Elliott favored purchasing the property on Alfred street, and allowing the option on the Kenney property to expire.
 Trustee Walken favored the Kenney property. He believed that it was the proper site, and he did not think a matter of a few dollars should change the location.
 The motion of Trustee Meek, to amend the report, so as to purchase the Pigeon property at a cost of not more than $4,500, was passed on this vote, the chairman breaking a tie.
 Trustee—Chairman Renton, Trustees Bennett, Donaldson, Elliott, Farrell, Henderson, Meek—7.
 Nays—Trustees Anglin, Chown, Craig, Lambert, Metcalfe, Wallace—6.
 The second clause of the report recommended that the plans of the new school, as submitted, be adopted. The plans were read by Architect Ellis, but on motion of Trustee Meek the plans will be printed with the report of the committee, and if necessary a disinterested expert will be secured for the selection of the heating system. This committee will also report on the matter of manual training in the schools. Trustee Meek pointed out that this was a matter that would not doubt be introduced later on, and provision should be made for it.
 The tender of the Harold Wilson company for gymnasium equipment, being the lowest, was accepted. The figures are $136.25.
 The tender of the James Smart Manufacturing company for pupils' desks for the Orphans' Home, being the lowest, was accepted. The figures are $131.76.
 Wire guards will be placed on the inside of the gymnasium windows to protect them while basketball is being played by the pupils. Cost, $11.30.
 The request of the principal of the Collegiate Institute for eighteen pupils' seats for use in the physics room was granted. Cost, $27.
 Trustee Meek asked that the board be furnished with a list of the various amounts of insurance carried on the different school buildings.
 Trustee Walken gave notice of motion that he would move that the office hours of the inspector be fixed from 4 to 5 p.m., on school days, when not engaged in examinations, and on Saturdays, 2 to 3 p.m.
 Chairman Craig, of the finance committee stated that owing to members being away, it was very difficult for him to get a quorum at his meeting. "Let the committee resign," suggested Trustee Meek.
 Messrs. Metcalfe and Chown were asked to be members of the committee.

(a) The expression "trading stamps" includes, besides trading stamps commonly so called, any form of cash receipt, receipt, coupon, premium ticket or other device, designed or intended to be given to the purchaser of goods by the vendor thereof or his employee or agent, and to represent a discount on the price of such goods or a premium to the purchaser thereof, which is redeemable either,

(1) By any person other than the vendor, or the person from whom he purchased the goods, or the manufacturer of the goods, or

(2) By the vendor, or the person from whom he purchased the goods, or the manufacturer of the goods, or in cash or goods not his property, or not his exclusive property, or

(3) By the vendor elsewhere than in the premises where such goods are purchased,

Or which does not show upon its face the place of its delivery and the merchantable value thereof, or is not redeemable at any time; but an offer, printed or marked by the manufacturer upon any wrapper, box, or receptacle in which the goods are sold, of a premium or reward for the return of such wrapper, box, or receptacle is not a trading stamp within the meaning of this section;

(b) The expression "goods" means anything which is merchandise or the subject of trade or manufacture;

(c) The expression "every one," "vendor," "purchaser," "merchant," "agent," or "person" includes any partnership or company, or body corporate.

(2) Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to one year's imprisonment, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars who, by himself, or his employee or agent, directly or indirectly, issues, gives, sells, or otherwise disposes of or offers to issue, give, sell, or otherwise dispose of trading stamps to a merchant or dealer in goods for use in his business.

(3) Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to six months' imprisonment and to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars who, being a merchant or dealer in goods, by himself or his employee or agent, directly or indirectly, gives, or in any way disposes of, or offers to give or in any way dispose of trading stamps to a purchaser from him of any such goods.

(4) Every one is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, who, being a purchaser of goods from a merchant or dealer in goods, directly or indirectly, receives or takes trading stamps from the vendor of such goods or his employee or agent.

giate Institute, submitted a report for the month of March. Number enrolled, 380; decrease, 31 from last year, and of 18 the previous year, average attendance, 347; decrease of 31 from last year, and 29 previous year. Attendance has been about what it was in 1906-07. The institute staff is about to undertake the work of cataloguing the library scientific apparatus, etc. The principal suggested that one of the staff should be appointed librarian, the responsibility for the care of the books would then rest upon one individual.

The principal reported that the sum of $40 had been realized from the recent gymnasium exhibition given by the pupils, under Physical Instructor Palmer, and that the pupils had agreed to spend this amount on new gymnasium apparatus.

The offer of the deputy minister of education to continue the model school work at $500, was accepted.

Inspector J. Russell Stuart's report for the month of March showed a total enrollment of 2,191 pupils. This is an increase of twenty-six over a year ago. The total average daily attendance was 1,889, a decrease of 63 over a year ago.

ASTOR BUYS LONDON PAPER,
 And Truth Discusses the Latest Purchase.

London, April 15.—Mr. Labouchere's paper, Truth, in an article which has produced considerable amusement and interest in political circles discussing the purchase of the famous unionist Sunday paper, the Observer, by Waldorf Astor from Lord Northcliffe, says: "When the reciprocity treaty was promulgated Lord Northcliffe and his friends concluded that the game was up for the policy of colonial preference.

"This conclusion was signified in the columns of his newspaper, the Daily Mail," continued Truth, "but Mr. Garvin, the editor of the Observer, who is a 'whole hogger,' was indisposed to be in line, the upshot being that the paper has been sold to the American millionaire, who makes his home in London and who owns the Pall Mall Gazette.

"Who said American gold?" exclaims Truth.

Lord Northcliffe seems to have been wise in his generation. It is no good for a newspaper to flag a dead horse. The lesson of three elections has shown the country to be resolutely against tariff reform. When Mr. Chamberlain started his mission with tariff reform as the first article in the new creed food taxes were frankly confessed to be necessary for imperial preference salvation. The Mail stood boldly forward and said it would not do. Circumstances led to the sudden abandonment of this attitude at the end of a few weeks.

"The logic of events though shows that the first thoughts were right and the second wrong!"

Muskrats are Proliferous.
 Muskrats are reported to be quite numerous this spring, and some fair catches are reported by trappers. One person is said to have landed eighteen for a one day's run last week. The price this year is considerably less than was paid one year ago. Buyers paid about ninety cents a pelt last spring, and the price at present is only about forty cents.

At the Orpheum.
 The show at the Orpheum for the remainder of this week is both unique and interesting. The Hawaiian duo, in their distinctive Hawaiian dance, are good. Their songs are full of harmony. Miss Dulcie Dean, character change vocalist, was real good in her portrayal of childish songs.

The Millers Will Survive.
 Toronto Globe.
 Mr. Low, M.P., states that Mr. Sifton and certain of the press opposed to reciprocity had predicted that reciprocity would mean the death of the milling industry. As one of the largest millers in Eastern Ontario he challenged the statement. He was the first large liberal manufacturer who had spoken in the house on the proposals, and he declared unequivocally they would greatly benefit industry.

Instead of being the death of the milling industry, he was preparing to double the capacity of his plant, making the production 500 barrels per day instead of 250 barrels per day as at present. "This is how it works out practically," he declared, amid liberal applause. The natural milling industry in Canada was that of farm milling, and it could compete with the world, since Canada had the best wheat, the best climate, and the best powers. Mr. Low thought manufacturers were ill-advised to undertake to run the country. The readjustment did not affect them generally. The farmers had asked for reciprocity in their products and were getting it. If the manufacturers came, asking the government in the same unanimous way for reciprocity in their products, they would doubtless be similarly considered.

Marriage at Cusheadall.
 On Wednesday evening, the 12th inst., a pretty wedding took place in the parsonage, Cusheadall, when Miss Jean Hyland was married to Herman B. Smith, of Seely's Bay. The bride, who looked charming in her travelling suit, was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Hyland. The best man was Walter F. Neal, cousin of the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple left for their new home.
