This bill proposes to place on the free list, exempt from all tariff cessaries which the farmers are com pelled to buy.

By this measure the democrats hope content with the abolishment of the duties on Canadian farm products and win them to the cause of reciprocity.

From present prospects, it will be well along into the summer before final action is taken on either the reciprocity bill or the "farmers' free list" as some of the suspicious insurgents will be inclined to hold up in the senate the reciprocity measure until they get the desired reductions of manufactured traffic :
