EDWARD COWAN SHOT HIMSELF WHILE INSANE.

Put a Revolver to His Head—While in Yard at His Home—Had Been Employed at Penitentiary for Several Years, and Was Well Known Resident—Nephew Witnessed Tragedy.

While temporarily insane, Edward Cowan, employed as a guard at the Kingston penitentiary, committed suicide on Tuesday evening by shooting himself in the head with a revolver, while in the back yard at his home in Portsmouth.

Coroner Dr. D. E. Mundell investigated and found that it was a case of suicide, and that no inquest was necessary. Mr. Cowan was well-known at Portsmouth and also in the city, and the news caused quite a sensation.

According to what can be learned, Mr. Cowan had been in his usual good health of late, and had been working steadily. On Tuesday evening he appeared as well as usual, but his rash act cannot be accounted for, but for the fact that he must have gone suddenly insane. After having his supper he went out into the yard to do some work, and was also engaged for a time in his stable. After working for some time, he went into the house, secured his revolver and going out into the yard again, put the revolver just above his right ear. There was a loud report, and soon all was over, as death was almost instantaneous.

Thomas Nicholson, Jr., a nephew of the deceased, was in the kitchen of the house at the time, and glancing out of the window was a witness to the sad tragedy, but, of course, it all happened so quickly that he was unable to do anything. Dr. Mundell was summoned and after he had made an investigation, James Reid & Sons took charge of the remains.

Deceased had been a guard at the penitentiary for about seven or eight years, was a man who paid every attention to his work and home duties, and was held in high esteem by the many with whom he was acquainted. His home was in Gananoque, but he moved to Kingston several years ago. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Emma Nicholson, daughter of the late John Nicholson, but no family. He was a member of Granite lodge of Oddfellows. Deceased was very fond of driving, and kept a horse and travelled around the city a great deal after working hours.

The Local Baseball Clubs are Getting Busy.

There will be a meeting of the executive of the Sunday School Amateur Athletic Association in the Y.M.C.A. building, Thursday evening. The business will consist of drawing up rules to govern the association. There are a number of new members, and it is desired to have representatives present from each Sunday school in the city, so as to have their views on the different questions brought up for discussion.

St. George's Meeting Postponed.

There was to have been a meeting of those interested in athletics in St. George's church, last evening, for the purpose of appointing officers for the baseball team. The meeting had to be postponed until Thursday evening on account of the fact that Canon Starr is absent from the city.

Sydenham Athletic Club.

A meeting of the Athletic Club of Sydenham Street Methodist church was held last evening, to transact business of a varied character. It was divided into a junior and senior team. It is intended by this club to follow up everything in the line of clean and legitimate sport that is introduced by the association.

SALVATION ARMY BAND HOME.

Had Fine Time at Montreal and Other Places.

The last of the Salvation Army band of Kingston came home, last evening, from their Easter trip. They left here Friday at noon. In the evening they gave a concert in Brockville, which was largely attended. Saturday night they played at Point St. Charles. Sunday they played at No. 1 corps, in Montreal. Monday evening they played at a concert in Montreal. They had a splendid time while away, and were treated right royally. Some of the members came home, Monday evening and some Tuesday. They expect to go to Ottawa in the near future.

Capt. Daniel Noonan attended the funeral of the late Perry M. Graham, in Brockville, this afternoon.

HAS ARRIVED IN KINGSTON FROM OSWEGO.

Steamer Sowards Reached the City on Wednesday Morning—Schooner Ford River Off to Work on the Sharples—Marine Notes of Interest.

The honor of having brought the first cargo of coal into the city this season goes to Commodore Max Shaw, of the speedy little steamer Sowards. The Sowards arrived from Oswego on Wednesday morning and is now being unloaded of her cargo at Crawford's slip. It would be in order for the harbor master to prevent Commodore Shaw with a fine new hat—that is, providing the rules in other places were carried out.

The Sowards went over to Oswego on Monday night and had a fine trip. From now on the Sowards will keep the line warm between Oswego and Kingston.

The government boat Scout is in port again. She is working in this district.

The tug Bartlett cleared for Prescott, to-day, to bring up some barges.

The steamer Marshall cleared from Brockville for Oswego.

The steamer Island Wanderer went to Clayton, yesterday, and will go on her regular route there.

W. J. Douglas and H. B. Mills, of the Thousand Island Steamboat Co., went to Clayton, yesterday, to make complete arrangements for the season's work there.

The schooner Ford River cleared for the Galloway Islands, this morning, with about twenty-five men, and will work on the wreck of the steamer Sharples.

The schooner Bertha Kalkins cleared for Oswego to-day.

The schooner Mergill has cleared for Oswego.

J. C. Eaton's beautiful yacht Florence will clear from Toronto for Ogdensburg, N.Y., in a few days to go on the Main dock there.

Several of the Rutland boats which wintered at Chicago are being loaded there and will start for Ogdensburg this week. The outlook for package freight business has improved considerably within the past few weeks, and while the season will not be a record-breaker, it will average up well with recent seasons, despite the pessimism which has existed in marine circles.

Capt. Byron J. Estes, mate Henry Burkh, and several sailors, of Alexandria Bay, are in Oswego fitting out the steamer Island Belle, which had now boilers installed there. Capt. Estes expects to get away this week.

Capt. Henry Matthews, acquitted at Cobourg of murder, sailed into this port as master of the steamer City of New York last year, and on the schooner Oliver Mowat the year previous.

Ice is packed up the lake from Buffalo for a distance of thirty miles.

An offer of 1 1/2 cents on grain, Fort William to Buffalo, has been made for spot tonnage. This is one-fourth higher than has been offered this spring. Vesselmen do not consider the price worth the chance under present conditions, as there is too much uncertainty of a return cargo.

The steamer Senator Dertyschire and Samuel Marshall, left Brockville, on Tuesday, for Oswego, the first boats to clear from that port this season.

The steamer Britannic is being fitted out for the season's work and will make her first trip from Montreal to Kingston on Thursday, May 4th. The Britannic will have the same run as last year and will be manned by the following officers—Captain, F. S. Anderson; mate, C. Hart; first engineer, I. F. Marchand; second engineer, Eugene Marchand; purser, A. N. Smith.

The Rideau Steamers.

The officers of the Rideau Navigation company steamers this season will be: Rideau Queen—Edward Fleming, captain; William Fleming, mate; W. F. Noonan, purser; George Tuttle, engineer.

Rideau King—William Scott, captain; Thomas Lynch, mate; George Shannon, engineer; D. G. Donovan, second engineer.

The Rideau King will make her first trip Monday, May 1st. She has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and has new furnishings. Everything about her is in first-class shape.

MARGARET ANGLIN TO-NIGHT

Will be Seen at the Grand Opera House.

Margaret Anglin, the distinguished Canadian actress, whose appearance last season resulted in a splendid impression of her remarkable dramatic powers, is coming here with a new role and a new play. This season she is, under the direction of Messrs. Liebler & Co., at the Grand to-night, in "Green Stockings," written by A. E. W. Mason and George Fleming. The condition under which Miss Anglin consented to consider a contract with Messrs. Liebler & Co. was that they should exploit her in a comedy role and they having agreed thereto, the contract was signed and "Green Stockings" was the result. We are told that the play is a pure comedy with an interesting story, the scenes of which are laid in England, and that Miss Anglin has been provided by the authors with a part that will give her ample opportunity for portraying the lighter and happier side of her art, hitherto only indicated in such of the emotional roles as gave her a slight modicum of fun. Those hints of her latent comedy powers, however, were sufficient to indicate great ability as a comedienne and it is matter for congratulation to her admirers that Miss Anglin now makes her new and important departure.

"The Kissing Girl."

On Monday, April 24th, at the Grand, the latest musical comedy success, "The Kissing Girl," direct from its phenomenal run of nearly 250 performances at the Cort Theatre, Chicago, will reveal the charms of its tuneful score and the beauty of a cast of principals and chorus said to be of great loveliness. It should prove doubly welcome to the theatregoing public of this city, because of the originality of its dialogue, and the musicianly quality of its melodies, together with the eminence of its cast of principals. The company is one of power—not only in musical sense, but in dramatic interpretation of lyrical works. It is headed by the accomplished Texas Guinan.

TWO KEGS OF BEER.

Were Cause of Some Trouble on Bay Street.

Two kegs of beer were responsible for trouble at the home of Elizabeth Tozer, Bay street, the other night. According to the evidence taken in a case at police court, to-day, there was a little drinking party at the home. All went well until Mrs. Sarah Kane, who occupies a room with her husband, in this household, appeared on the scene. When she came in she found that her husband was one of the number who were drinking, and she asked him to go to his room. He refused, and then Mrs. Kane abused Mrs. Tozer by calling her names, such as would not look at all well in print. This resulted in Mrs. Kane having a summons issued for Mrs. Tozer, and after hearing the evidence, Magistrate Farrell fined Mrs. Tozer $5 and costs or one month. Mrs. Kane refused to be "sociable" as one witness put it, with the drinking party.

Mrs. George Vallean, who has been spending the past few days with her son, G. D. C. Vallean, Montreal street, returned to her home in Selby, to-day. Chiver's marmalade and jelly. Kirk's grocery. Phone 417.

AT ST. JOHN'S, PITTSBURG.

Easter Tea and Concert on Tuesday Evening.

A fair-sized audience gathered in St. John's church, Pittsburg, on Tuesday evening, for the Easter tea and concert. Tables decorated and groaning beneath their weight, were laid in the Orange hall, next to the church building and when the material things were cared for everyone repaired to the church where the programme was given.

With the exception of one solo, the music was furnished by members of the Kingston Princess Street Methodist church mixed quartette. The quartette sang two numbers. The chairman was Rev. F. H. Sproule, of Princess Street Methodist church. He complimented the people on the fine interior of the church. The beautiful ballad, "Mary," in the hands of William Mack, was capably rendered. Miss Grace Mitchell sang "Spring is Coming." Upon request, Miss Jennie Reeds, the accomplished daughter of the pastor, sang very nicely. Rev. Mr. Reeds spoke very briefly, concerning material and spiritual things. Miss Mitchell and Mr. Mack sang "Rock of Ages." After the concert, those who had taken part in the programme repaired to the hall, where an excellent supper was served.
