ROYAL COURTS BEGIN IN MAY

King George Will Probably Beat the Record as the World's Champion Hunter. This will be a busy year for King George V.

THE IRISH ABSENT. They Decided to Hold Afloat From the Coronation Festivities. The Irish party decided to hold aloof from the Coronation festivities.

TROOPS FROM OVERSEAS. Twenty-five Thousand of Them Will Line the Route of Procession. It is estimated that more than 22,000 troops will be employed in London during the Coronation ceremonies.

CORONATION CROWDS. It is Estimated That Two Million Will See the Parade. Some interesting statistics of the Coronation may be compiled now.

MAIDS OF HONOR. Queen Mary once more has displayed evidence of her strong practical insight in the choice of her four maids of honor.

AN AUTOMOBILE TOUR. British and German automobilists will meet in a friendly rivalry both in Germany and in Great Britain during the coming summer in commemoration of the coronation of King George V.

BOUQUET AND FAN. The Queen will be presented with a special bouquet by the W. & A. Company of Gardeners for her Coronation.

A Lucky Debutante. Lucky indeed is the debutante of this Coronation year of 1911, for she will come in for much entertaining on a truly magnificent scale.

When the atmosphere is damp, with sudden changes in temperature, almost everybody has Catarrh. The ordinary cold in the head inflames and weakens the membranes lining the nose and throat.

As Catarrh develops the discharge increases—drops into the throat, especially at night—and takes on an offensive odor. Besides being exceedingly disagreeable, there is great danger of the disease extending to the lungs, stomach, or bowels.

IRISH ABSENT

The Irish party decided to hold aloof from the Coronation festivities, according to their settled practice since the coronation of King George III in 1801.

It would be a great source of satisfaction to us if we could, as the representatives of the Irish nation, take our place side by side with the representatives of the other great commonwealths of the Empire.

Some interesting statistics of the Coronation may be compiled now that the details of the two processions have been definitely fixed.
