CELEBRATED DAY OF THEIR PATRON SAINT.

Concert and Social Held Monday Evening—A Delegation Was Present From Cambria Lodge, Gananoque.

A very successful concert and social was held Monday evening, in the hall of Leicester Lodge, No. 23, S.O.E. The entertainment was under the joint auspices of this lodge and of the Daughters of York Lodge, of the Daughters and Maids of England, No. 55, and a great deal of the success, as usual, was owing to the splendid work of the ladies. The chair was occupied by Bro. John Munden, D.D.S.G.P., who, with an escort of eighteen other members, were in attendance from Cambria Lodge, Gananoque, a truly brotherly feeling existing between the two lodges.

The lengthy programme was in two parts during the intermission. Those taking part in the entertainment were: Song Misses A. and E. Chart, N. Oldfield, E. Purdy and F. J. Clayton; A. J. Sholey, J. Greenough, J. H. Parker, E. Eames, G. H. Acton, G. Perry, W. Worth and E. Roswell; quartettes, Miss J. H. Parker, G. H. Acton, E. Roswell and E. Leech; recitations, Miss A. Eastwell, Mr. Kelly and W. McFledge; instrumental selections, J. W. Weaver and the Salladary brothers. The entertainment closed with a benediction, representing Britannia, and John Bull, all singing "Rule Britannia."

The Late Cyril Connors.

The death occurred Monday night of Cyril Connors, at his home, No. 6 Chestnut street. The young man lived for a number of years not in the home alone, but in the hearts of every one. He was a kind, a lovable boy and had a nice disposition. His many friends will miss him for he was loved as old as well as young. His room was kept cheerful, and bright for the past thirteen weeks with beautiful flowers. He was a member of Zion church, and also helped in Queen street Methodist choir, and the young men's club, in which he took a great interest in and was always ready to give a helping hand in a good work. He leaves an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Base, and four cousins. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, and the service will be conducted by Rev. J. D. Boyd, of Zion church, and Rev. Mr. Sellery, of Queen street church.

The widening of Sydenham street, from Johnson street to Brock street, will make a big improvement, and will demonstrate the desirability of still further extending the street to Princess street. Ten Sydenham street would be a main thoroughfare. The wall across the Hotel Dieu property is being built and will likely be left as high as the street with an iron fence as a guard.

Turned Down the Job. William McAdoo, former police commissioner of New York, and once as assistant secretary of the navy, tells a good story of an experience he had while stopping at the hotel in a small town in Nova Scotia. "You from New York?" asked the owner of the hotel. "I am," said McAdoo. "Know anybody down there who kin run an hotel?" "Several people." "Well, I wish you would tell me the name of a good man. I can get a room up here and run this hotel for me. I don't get time to attend to it, and I want an honest, sober, respectable man to take hold of it for me." "How much will you pay?" asked McAdoo. "Twenty-five dollars a month, or, if he's especially good, I might go to thirty." McAdoo promised to think it over, and that night he told the owner a good man to write to. A few days later George C. Boldt, proprietor of the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York, and the Bellevue-Stratford, in Philadelphia, was highly astonished to receive an offer of $25 a month and heard to run an hotel, with the promise of a raise to $30, but no more, if he made good.

VESTIBULE OF HELL

WHAT BOSTON PASTOR CALLS WOMEN'S CLUB.

Women Climb Social Ladder and Hang There by Means of the Cocktail—Rather be Pastor of Savages.

Boston, April 25.—During an arraignment of the Black Bay women of the fashionable Chilton Club, a women's organization which recently obtained a license to sell liquor, the Rev. Cortlandt Myers, pastor of Tremont Temple, yesterday, described the club as "the vestibule of hell."

"I hope that none of the members are in my congregation," he said. "If they are in my church I hope they will move out and stay out. I would rather be the pastor of savages than theirs."

Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren street Baptist church, said:

"When women indulge in drink, cigars and cigarettes we have a right to interfere. It is time we reminded these women of the debt they owe. These women climb up on the social ladder and there they hang by means of the cocktail."

LAURA LAMB. In "Honeycomb Trail" at the Grand on Thursday, April 27th.

At the Orphanum Theatre. The show put on at the Orphanum for the first part of the week is classed. Everybody thought "Bau Muntze" was a man until at the end he took off his wig and disclosed his golden hair. De Grant and McQueen, two very polished singers, caught the attention of the audience with the quality of their songs; and the way they were rendered. Their dialogue was also good. A new apparatus has been installed in the picture machine, whereby the principals in the pictures are brought up more prominently than before.

A SMALL MIX UP. Through error a mix-up occurred on page ten in the arts results. The list marked "Arts Pass List" and running down to Junior Latin in the second column should be the "Arts Honor List." The pass list begins with Junior Latin.

As the Story Goes. The negro boy was up for the sixth time on a charge of chicken stealing. This time the magistrate decided to appeal to the boy's father.

"Now, see here, Ah," said he to the negro, "this boy of yours has been up in court so many times for stealing chickens that I'm tired of seeing him here."

"Ah don't blame you, sah," returned the father. "Ah's tired of seeing him here, too."

"Then why don't you teach him how to act? Show him the right way and he won't be coming here."

"Ah has showed 'im de right way, sah," declared the old man earnestly. "Ah has untily showed 'im de right way, but he somehow he's getting caught comin' 'wud wid dese chickens."

Always Excuses. Col. Edward H. R. Green, discussing business success at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, said:

"The man who succeeds is the man who does what he sets out to do—not the man who makes excuses."

"Excuses are cheap and easy, but success is hard and rare. Excuses, though, we meet everywhere. Only yesterday, in a downtown restaurant they gave me a tough chicken."

"Waiter, I said, 'this chicken is odd.'"

"Yes, sir," said the waiter. "A very healthy bird, sir. Otherwise, of course it couldn't have lived to such a great age."

French Cannon Melted Down. For the first time since the French revolution French cannons have been melted down to be turned into money.

In Paris, for some unexplained reason, the copper coinage has a way of disappearing, and the mint authorities have suddenly been called upon to provide $600,000 worth of new ten and five-centime pieces.

For this purpose the war department has made a present to the mint of the old cannons in the forts in and around Paris, which are of no particular value. The lot weighs about 330 tons.

Two young men named Joseph Walsh and William Root were drowned at Trenton, Monday afternoon through a scaffold collapsing on the neck of Larkin & Sangster, canal contractor.

THEIR BLUFF FAILED

TORONTO GLOBE WAS TAKEN TO TASK

By Conservatives in the Commons. But It Was Shown That its Report of the Sealey Affair Was Correct.

Ottawa, April 25.—The six members of the opposition who, at an early hour on Saturday morning, placed themselves in the ridiculous position of voting for the amendment proposed by Mr. Sealey, of Wentworth, approving of the reciprocity resolutions with the exception of fruit and vegetables, schedule success last night in emphasizing the absurdity of their position. In Billingsgate language on the part of some they attacked the Globe as the chief sinner for calling attention to their blunder, declared that it was "a deliberate, inexcusable, false and slanderous statement" of the proceedings, and in their anxiety to hit back called the Globe all manner of names, and even threatened to have the writer of the report haled before the bar of the house.

The answer to their attack came in clear-cut and unequivocal statements from the deputy speaker, these words, "The only real insinuation shown in the report was the substitution of the name of Mr. Henderson for that of Mr. Goodeve in the list of the six conservatives who fell into the error."

All the press representatives present with the Globe men in the press gallery at the time of the occurrence on Saturday morning, representing papers of both political parties, volunteered to vouch for the fact that the deputy speaker read the concluding clause in the amendment, which the opposition said was not read.

A RELIGIOUS CEREMONY In Which Eight Sisters Took Final Vows.

The solemn and religious ceremonies of profession and reception took place Tuesday morning, in the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows, House of Providence, Right Rev. Mgr. Masterson, officiated, assisted by Rev. A. J. Hanley, rector, R. J. Halligan, master of ceremonies, C. J. Duffus, J. J. Salmon, Norrisburg, Ont., W. E. Cavanagh, Corkery.

Eight sisters who had spent four years in probation in order to discover in their inmost hearts if they had the strength to undergo the duties that await every professed member of the order, were admitted to perpetual vows. These vows bind them to a life work for which all their previous years of training were a preparation. To this number was added one other, who assumed temporary engagement for two years, while three new candidates received the white veil and holy habit.

The following are the names of the sisters for final vows: Teresa Masterson (Sister M. Florentina); Catherine Walsh (Sister M. Amelie); Sarah Foley (Sister M. Constance); Matilda Marsh (Sister M. George); Veroni Blanchfield (Sister M. Angelica); Elizabeth Whalen (Sister M. Lawrence); Rose Hamilton (Sister M. Thelma); Philomena Roberts (Sister M. Christina); Margaret C. Kennedy, Huptley, known in religion as Sister M. Gregoire (temporary vows).

Those who received the holy habit and white veil were: Misses Max Kearney, Picton; Ethel Martin, Detroit, Mich.; Mary O'Neill, Erinsville, Ont. Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Mgr. Masterson, V.G.

Girl Prisoner Arrived. Lizzie Smith, found guilty at Barrie, of having caused the death of her baby, and given seven years in the penitentiary, was brought to the city, this afternoon, to commence her term. The sheriff and matron were in charge and the party of three had their dinner at a downtown hotel before going out to the penitentiary. The prisoner is only eighteen years of age. It will be remembered that her baby was found in an outhouse, frozen to death.

Arthur Fields, who has been very ill in the Hotel Dieu, was removed to his home on Princess street on Monday afternoon, in James Reid's ambulance.

"Buy flower seeds," Gibson's. C. F. Dickson, collector of inland revenue, was in Napanee on Monday, attending the funeral of the late W. K. Prayn.

"Buy spring tonics," Gibson's. May Irwin, actress, will leave the stage forever and will pass the summer at her home among the Thousand Islands.

A DRAPED PASHA TURBAN MADE OF THREE KINDS OF STRAW. Very flexible, soft straw braid, laid in folds, was used for this new spring turban. The crown effect is high, according to the new fashion, and the three sorts of straw are in the same shade of deep tan. On the front the straw and chenille trimming makes an attractive finish and on the left side of the crown, flattened well against the straw, is a big white magnolia blossom in its green leaves. Like all these large turbans, this model is drawn far over the hair, settling almost against the neck at the back, but falling somewhat away from the face in front.
