WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS
TELL US.The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They are Saying.

Trevelyan, April 25.—Some of the farmers have started ploughing. D. E. Rogers, Brockville, spent the past week the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Leader, previous to his departure for Buffalo, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Leader, entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Leader, Quinton, spent Sunday evening at Frederick Leader's. James Cobey, Long Point, called on friends during the holidays. E. J. Leader intends raising his new barn on the 26th. R. Dixie and Miss Letta spent Sunday with Athens friends. Work on the tower is to begin in a few days with Mr. Pierce of Athens, as contractor.

At Fair View.

Fair View, April 21.—The cool weather is keeping the farmers back with their seedling. Miss Lillian File and Earl File spent the holidays at home with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. Thompson spent Sunday at Schuyler Loucks. James McTaggart is severely ill with little hope of his recovery. Miss Maud Bell and Carl Bell spent Easter at Captain Bartley's. Robert Hudson and Earl Vanvalen are building a barn for John Sparford at Switzerland. The cheese factory has opened. John Bennett is drawing milk for Mr. Gerow. Marvin Thomson is drawing for Mrs. Empey. Look for the turquoise blue jar.

News From Tichborne.

Tichborne, April 26.—School has reopened with a good attendance. The schoolhouse is receiving a coat of paint and other improvements. Mr. and Mrs. L. Kish are spending a few days at Harrington. Miss Emily Swerbrick has returned to her home at Murvale, accompanied by the Misses Gladys and Marion Swerbrick. Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron, Flower Station, at L. A. Cameron's; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Howes and Son's; Mr. and Mrs. C. Clowbridge, at T. Hampton's; Miss E. McKivior, at J. Dermott's; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cameron and Mrs. J. Brown, at Mrs. H. Gray's; Stewart Brown, at Mrs. J. Brown's.

Broke Leg at School.

St. George's Lake, April 24.—R. Wright, of Crystal, cheesemaker here, last year, has purchased the factory and intends making extensive improvements before beginning the season's operations. School has re-opened. Miss Jessie Leslie, of Echo Lake, is in charge. J. Clark of Mountain Grove, visiting at G. McTaggart's, has returned home. William Sly has gone to Perth. Mrs. J. McTaggart and Miss Florence McTaggart spent a few days at Sunnyside recently. R. Wright spent Sunday at Mountain Grove. W. Drave had the misfortune to break his leg while playing at school. Dr. Kilborn attended to the injured member, after which he was removed to the Kingston General Hospital, where he is doing nicely. Mr. and Mrs. G. Goudy, Orono, visited at J. Scott's recently.

At Lavant Station.

Lavant Station, April 25.—Mrs. J. S. Paul is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lee. Miss Mary E. Thomas entertained a number of young people at a taffy party last Friday. J. McKillip, Queen's, has taken charge of the mission field for the summer. Miss Irene Affleck has returned to her school after spending the holidays at her home in Renfrew. Mrs. John E. Lee and John Allen were taken to the general hospital, Kingston, last Thursday, under the care of Dr. Bogart. They are improving favorably. Elkins Jacob has returned to Kingston to resume his studies in business college. Robert Lyon visited his home in Kingston last week. Louis Madgwick left for Regina, Monday, to secure a situation.

Junctown Jottings.

Junctown, April 25.—Jacob Warren is very ill with pneumonia. Mrs. T. Summers, Mitchelville, is a guest at Jacob Warren's. Mrs. William Flood and children have returned from visiting her parents, at Soperton. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott, of Yonge Mills, were guests of H. Scott, on Sunday. Charles Tennant, Brockville, spent the holidays with his parents here. Miss Vera Heribson, Brockville, visited Miss Evelyn Purvis, last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. Heribson, Fairfield East, spent Sunday with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Earle, Fairfield East, visited last week at J. A. Heribson's. Miss Arley Purvis spent Friday in Brockville. H. T. McGhee has returned to his school here, after spending the holidays at Athens and Elgin. Miss Mund Avery left yesterday to take a course at Guelph Agricultural College.

Reynoldston Reports.

Reynoldston, April 24.—Owing to the cold weather, seedling has not yet commenced. The sap weather is about over, after a very good run. The cheese factory will open on May 1st, with R. Vanderwaal as maker. A. Knox has moved to the Thompson house. Measles are again prevalent in this vicinity. School re-opened this morning with a good attendance. Miss Bertha and Charley Jeffrey, Hastings, spent a few days with relatives here last week. The Misses Jeffrey, Bush and Reynolds, home for their Easter holidays, returned to-day to Sydenham, where they are attending high school. A number from here attended the quarterly meeting services, at Verona, on Sunday. Ralph Botting spent Easter at home. A. Leslie, at Mrs. C. W. Reynolds'; F. Moore, at Wm. Shepherd's; Rev. S. Snyder, at his brother's, W. Snyder's.

Keelerville Tidings.

Keelerville, April 24.—Quite a supply of milk is coming into the cheese factory. A meeting of the Excelsior cheese factory was held last Saturday night in the school house. James McLeod and Thomas Moore were elected members of the managing committee, in the place of John Tatton and George Ruthven, who left their farms and went west. W. J. Anglin, of Battersea, was engaged to sell the cheese and John Robb to make up the books. Rev. J. A. Waddell, Harrington, preached here on Sunday, to a very large congregation. There is a large attendance at school after the holidays. The school is progressing well under the management of George Hutchings. Quite a lot of maple syrup has been made this year. Mrs. R. J. Stanley spent a few days last week with friends at South Lake and Gananoque. Visitors—R. J. Boal and William Boal, of Cedar Lake, at James Ball's; Rev. J. A. Waddell, of Harrington, at J. F. Anglin's; Mrs. John Karley, of Killarney, at Frederick Light's; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sleeth, at Charles Clark's.

Aheren, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Aheren, of the same place, Rev. Father Kingsley officiated. The bride was assisted by Miss Mamie Moran, of Kingston, and the groom by his brother, Rev. John Aheren. The fair young bride looked charming in a smartly tailored blouse of lace and an Alice blue toupee of mohair braid. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. The groom's gifts to the bride and bridesmaids were beautiful gold bracelets and the groomsman a handsome tie pin. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. After the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them, and were greeted by their immediate friends. They then left for their future home in Cataracta.
