Mountain Grove Saw Mills.
Mountain Grove, April 25.—Mountain Grove is getting to be quite a flourishing village, when it can afford to have three saw mills. E. Barker, of Arden and A. Marshall, of Harlowe, have portable mills here. Mr. Marshall has secured the contract of cutting George Boomhovers logs. He has a fine lot. Messrs. Card Bros. also have a mill which they have been repairing for the last few weeks making some labor saving improvements. They expect to have things pretty handy when they start. They have a fine cut to put through for Alias and Norman Jackson, of Moscow, who purchased a timber lot here last summer from C. E. Foster. A. McDonald also has a fine cut besides others. The lumber industry seems to be increasing instead of decreasing here.

WIFE TO BARE PAST

TO SAVE HER HUSBAND FROM THE GALLOWS.

She Admits Her Unfaithfulness—Her Husband Would Not Allow Her to Testify and Injure Her Character.

Albany, N.Y., April 27.—Gov. Dix has granted a respite until the week beginning June 26th to Charles L. Green, who was to have been electrocuted at Clinton prison next Wednesday for the murder of his fourteen-year-old step-daughter, at New Scotland, Albany county, in July, 1910. The respite was granted despite the fact that Green refused to sign a petition which was for the commutation of the sentence of death of life imprisonment, saying he was resigned to his fate and anxious to pay the death penalty. The governor has denied this application.

The respite was granted on the affidavit of Mrs. Green, who was also shot by her husband, at the time her daughter was killed, and is for the purpose of permitting Green's counsel to present newly discovered evidence to the court.

Mrs. Green, in her affidavit, confesses that her husband discovered a few days before the shooting that she had been unfaithful to him, and she attributes this confession as the real cause of the tragedy. She swears that her husband would not permit her "to testify to anything that would help him and hurt me," and that he told her that he would rather die than let her say a single word against me or my character. I feel that in a way I am responsible for all that he has done and the burden rests heavily upon me.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE.

New British Bill Based on Contributory Principles.
London, April 27.—The government insurance bill will, according to present arrangements, be introduced by Mr. Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, next Monday. Ottawa, April 27.—The council of the village of Gattineau Point, with a population of 2,900, decided last night to abolish all the bars. Eight hotels and one shop license are affected. They will be given three months to sell out.

Rev. Mr. Neilson, Lennoxville, Ont., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Winchester Baptist church, and will preach his first sermon on May 21st.

PLAYS AT THE GRAND.

"Honeymoon Trail" is the Attraction This Evening.

The public demands entertainment, clever, clean entertainment, and the producing manager, to meet this demand, produces an attraction, the component elements of which are music, light, color and action. To this must be added another, essential to comedy. It is doubtful if any musical comedy now in vogue in this country combines in a higher degree the essentials of musical comedy success than does "Honeymoon Trail," the record-breaking Hough, Adams and Howard masterpiece from the LaSalle Theatre, Chicago, which, with a company of over half a hundred "post graduate fun-makers" appears at the Grand to-night. The musical numbers are in "Joe" Howard's best strain, the titles of some of the most popular songs being "One Little Boy Had Money," "If All the Moons Were Honeymoons," "I Want That Kind of a Girl," and "Honeymoon Trail." The original LaSalle Theatre chorus thirty strong, is a feature while "New Wayburn's Dancing Brownies," too, one of the greatest dancing "broods" in America, are a distinctive novelty.

"The Man on the Box."
Those of our local theatregoers who appreciate high class comedy should be very much interested in the coming of "The Man on the Box," written by Grace Livingston Furness from the novel of the same name by Harold McGrath, to be presented at the Grand, on Saturday, April 29th matinee and night. As the book was, and still is, one of the "best-sellers," so has the play proven to be one of the best and most successful comedies staged in recent years.

Both in the book and on the stage, "The Man on the Box" develops a combination of comedy, farce, sentiment, emotion and mild melodrama that is pleasing to all lovers. It is well written, its scenes are well constructed, and the plot moves with a rapidity of action that helps along its mirth giving qualities and its comic power. John Meehan heads the company presenting the play here, supported by Miss Marjorie Johnson and a strong cast. The production will be complete in all details.

Death Sentence Commuted.

Winnipeg, April 27.—His excellency Earl Grey, yesterday, decided to commute the death sentence passed upon Nicholas Bilowus, in reply to the deputation, which requested the request contained in the petition, his excellency said that he had received from Ottawa the recommendation of the minister of justice for a commutation of the death sentence, and it was with pleasure that he acquiesced in the commutation.

Beavers Too Destructive.
Regina, Sask., April 27.—Beaver have become so numerous and are destroying so much fine timber around Oxbow, that settlers are appealing to the government to exterminate them.
