Plymouth, Eng., May 11.—Miss Olive MacLeod, daughter of the late Sir Benjamin MacLeod, the first white man who has ever penetrated anywhere in the interior of Africa, arrived here, yesterday, on her return journey. She accomplished her trip of 3,700 miles for a romantic object. Her sweetheart, Lieut. Boyd, Alexander, the famous explorer, was murdered by natives in Central Africa in May, 1910, and she determined to make the journey in order to place a memorial cross on his grave.

Manoeuvres Not Reform.

Toronto World. Lord Lansdowne's house of lords' reform bill, while sufficiently revolutionary in its treatment of the hereditary principle is admirably calculated to preserve conservative predominance in the new chamber. Also it proposes to remove from a liberal government the one great compulsion to control surrender to the will of the people—the creation of new peers who are also members of the legislature. Mr. Balfour, Lord Lansdowne, and other unionist leaders denounce single chamber legislation, but conveniently ignore that with a conservative government in power and a second chamber ready to ratify any and all of its measures precisely that condition has existed and will exist. Just the same joke is offered in a referendum proposal only operative when the two houses differ. That can only happen with a liberal government and liberal measures. During conservative regimes there will be no difference and no referendum. Propositions such as these are not reforms, they are only political manoeuvres too transparent to conceal the determination of the party of privilege to retain control, in or out of office, of the policy of the country.

Challenges the Enemy.

Hon. Mr. Oliver in Parliament. I repeat that I court the fullest parliamentary enquiry into any administrative act of mine in all the thousands which have taken place and the millions of dollars that they have involved. I want it, distinctly understood in this house and throughout the country that there is no restriction to an investigation of this insinuation, but the insinuation in question is the only instance in which my name has been mentioned. The committee will have full opportunity to examine my bank accounts in connection with the tangible insinuation made or in connection with any other transaction brought forward in a similar way.

FAIR OF ALL NATIONS

OPENED IN ARMOURIES THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

It is Being Conducted by the Daughters of the Empire in Aid of a Tuberculosis Dispensary.

The "Fair of All Nations", which is being conducted by the Daughters of the Empire, in the Armouries, Thursday afternoon, by Mayor Graham. It was expected that Hon. Adam Beck, of London, Ont., who is here, would also be present. The interior of the armouries presents a very pretty aspect, which represents days of unceasing labor on the part of those who are in charge of the different booths. The idea is to raise money to build a dispensary in the down town district and to place a nurse in charge to fight tuberculosis. The work is receiving the hearty support of the medical men of the city, and is of undenominational character. Mrs. J. B. Carruthers is the general secretary of the Daughters of the Empire and the other officers are: Mrs. H. R. Duff, first vice regent; Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, second vice-regent; Mrs. St. Pierre Hughes, secretary; Miss Macdonald, treasurer; and Miss Norton-Taylor, standard-bearer. The ladies belonging to the different booths have been at this week in arranging the decorations. Upon entering the "Dutch booth", right in the centre of the building, is the first one in the line of vision. This is presided over by the LaSalle chapter, of which Mrs. Platt is the regent. The booth has for sale quick lunches of all descriptions, and "the price is so low that any one can buy. The decorations are very pretty, being red and white, while the booth is banked with red geraniums.

Across from this, on the right side, is the "Cafe Chantant," which is under the direction of the Cataragi chapter. Mrs. Norman Stuart Leslie has charge of this, and assisting her are Mrs. Walter Macnee, Mrs. Francis Macnee, Mrs. March, Miss Macleod, Mrs. Howard Folger, Mrs. Frank Strange, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Arthur Williams, Miss Beets, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Frank Cartwright, Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Doris Kent, Miss Marjory Merrick, Miss Susie Angelo, Miss Helen Gordon, Miss Kathleen Crisp. In the afternoon tea was served here, as well as ice cream, which in the evening coffee. In addition to these, is to be served. A musical programme will be given every fifteen minutes during the evening by the following: Lieut.-Col. Crowe, Capt. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craig, Miss Mona Knight, Miss Mignon Telgman, Miss Jessie Ross, Capt. Prioleau, Sergt. Harte and others.

The Turkish booth is one of the most interesting of the whole exhibit. It is on the right hand side, nearest the gun-room, and is in charge of the Prince Charlie chapter, of whom Mrs. Douglas Young is the head, assisting her are Mrs. A. Z. Palmer, Mrs. W. K. Blair, Mrs. William Harty, Miss Crawford, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Lassie Kirkpatrick, Miss Carruthers, Mrs. Forté, Mrs. Hansard Hora and the Misses Sport. The painting, shooting gallery, Punch and Judy show, and other amusements are the chief things carried on by the ladies in-charge. All the ladies were to appear in harem skirts in keeping with the name of the booth. Comfortable divans, lounges and chairs were everywhere so that those who were weary with sightseeing could have a chance to rest.

The British booth at the left of the entrance is where the real hearty meals are served. This is called the chafing dish booth. Hot meals are to be served there after seven o'clock in the evening. This booth is looked after by those at the head of the whole affair, assisted by Mrs. J. V. H. Crowe, Mrs. Birchall Wood, Mrs. J. P. Shine, Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, Mrs. Alexander Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Sedgewick, Miss Jean Duff, Miss Mamie Garrett and Miss Christine Cochran.

A show was put on in the gun-room consisting of theatricals, tableaux, and other amusements, under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Shine, assisted by Miss Marie Carruthers and Miss Dorothy Brownfield.

A New Railroad.

Ottawa, May 11.—An ambitious railway project, which comes into contact with the Canadian Northern, was before the commons railway committee this morning, when G. F. Hodgins, M. P. for Pontiac, presented a bill to incorporate the Quebec and Great North-Western Railway company which proposes to build a road from Port Arthur to Quebec with several branches. It would open up a new country lying midway between the C.P.R. and National Transcontinental north of Cobalt. Deferred.

Treas City vs. Country.

Washington, May 11.—It was the case of city against country, in the discussion before the senate finance committee to-day on the Canadian reciprocity bill. Henry M. Flagg, speaking for thirty-five thousand farmers of the north-west United States said that nothing since the war had inflamed the populace so much as this insipid bill. On the other hand representatives from boards of trade along the international boundary endorsed the bill without qualification.

A Somenfat Different Story.

Hamilton Herald. Believed that the salt industry is one of the few Canadian industries that might be injured by the reciprocity agreement. But the fact that British capitalists have bought the salt wells near Goderich and are preparing to spend a lot of money in operating them is pretty good indication that these capitalists aren't afraid of reciprocity in salt.

Influx of Money.

Montreal Herald. Fifty thousand settlers, with ten million dollars in real money, have been brought into Canada already this year by the C.P.R.—alone. The fifty thousand will soon be working for us, and we will soon be building for us a bit of that money.

A SERGEANT MISSING

AND ARTILLERY AUTHORITIES ARE SEARCHING.

Sergt. Kennedy Disappeared Thursday Morning—Thought He May Have Been Drowned.

Where is Sergt. Kennedy, a member of "B" Battery? This was the question asked at Tote de Pont Barracks on Thursday morning. Sergt. Kennedy was around as usual on Wednesday night, but Thursday morning he was not present to answer to his name when it was called. It was feared that perhaps he had been drowned, and the water at the rear of the barracks was dragged for a couple of hours by some of his comrades, with no result. Every effort has been made to locate the missing man, but no trace whatever has been found of him.

It was stated that Sergt. Kennedy would soon have been placed on the retired list, and it was believed that he was worrying over this fact. Sergt. Kennedy joined "B" Battery here six years ago, coming from Montreal. He went to Toronto with the battery, when it was transferred there, and came back to Kingston again when it was transferred.

Another Member Deserted.

In connection with the disappearance of Sergt. Kennedy, from the barracks, it is reported this afternoon that another member of the battery had also deserted during the night.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impoverished—condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength. The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Any preparation said to be "just as good" is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla.
