IMPROVE CITY HALL

BY REDECORATING AND RE-LIGHTING IT.

Tenders to be called—to Make School Playgrounds of Lots on Cowdy Street.

The city property committee has decided to improve the interior of the city hall this coming summer. It adopted, yesterday afternoon, the specifications prepared by City Engineer Craig for redecorating, painting and lighting the hall. White, silver grey and gold will be the ceiling tints. The new electric lights will be placed in the ceiling. It was decided to retain the chandeliers now in use, as they might sometime be required for gas. Owing to the fact that the painters are very busy just now, the committee decided not to call for tenders till after June 1st.

Other changes and improvements required to be made in the city buildings. The Children's Aid Society wants its headquarters there. The police department wants a door cut through the rear of the police station so that immediate access can be gained to Brock street. Ald. Litton asked that the offices of the buildings be labelled, so that people would know where to find them.

Ald. Hoag reported that a sub-committee had examined the city's lots on Cowdy street, and recommended that the lots be placed at the disposal of the Board of Education for playground purposes of Frontenac school. He also recommended that the board of works be asked to continue Cowdy street to Adelaide street. These recommendations were adopted.

It was decided to sell the city's vacant lot at the corner of York and Alfred streets. Tenders will be invited. Ald. Bailey said the lot should bring $700.

In attendance at the meeting were Alds. Ross (chairman), Bailey, Givens, Couper, Litton and Hoag.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Field Gathering in Union Street Baptist Church.

There was a fine gathering of Sunday school workers, in the Union street Baptist church, on Wednesday night.

At 6.16 o'clock, the workers at the Union street church, entertained the workers from the First Baptist church at tea, and the event was a most enjoyable one, to the large numbers who were present.

After the tea, Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, of Toronto, general superintendent of Baptist Sunday school work, in Ontario and Quebec, conducted round-table conference, on the work, which was very interesting and instructive. This was concluded at 8 o'clock and afterwards, the address of the evening was given by Rev. Mr. Dayfoot.

DEATH OF A. H. MIDDLEMASS.

Formerly a Science Student at Queen's University.

The death is reported at Johannesburg, Transvaal, South Africa, on April 12th, as the result of an accident, of Arthur H. Middlemass, only son of the Hon. J. Rolfe Middlemass, formerly of Montreal. The deceased young man was well known and very popular in Kingston, for he spent three years as a science student at Queen's university, entering in October, 1897, and leaving in 1900, afterwards proceeding to South Africa during the Boer war, and remaining there. He was a rugby and hockey player, and figured on several of Queen's teams during his course at the university.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Two Fires on Wolfe Island Thursday Morning.

Lightning, which figured in the early morning storm, on Thursday struck two places on Wolfe Island. John Greenwood's dwelling and the barn of Philip Vaness were damaged. Both buildings were insured by Godwin & Son, and Mr. Godwin went over to the island to-day to adjust the same.

Fine Rain Storm.

"It was just what we needed." This was the general comment, on Thursday morning, over the heavy rain storm, which struck the city shortly before five o'clock. The city people are delighted over it, likewise the farmers, for the rain was needed to bring out the growth.

Prevost, Brock street has received all his spring and summer goods for his order clothing department, also in ready-made clothing and general furnishings department. They are all well assorted with new goods.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Devlin, Winnipeg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Myrtle, to Harry E. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kelly, Victoria, Ontario. The marriage is to take place in June.

Kaiser and king attended a glittering performance in Drury Lane theatre at London.

YOU LOOK OLD

In nine cases out of ten it is not because you are old, but because you are tired, all worn out, and you act as if you just wondered how you are going to get through the season and do your work.

This condition may be caused by a run-down and debilitated condition, or by a bad cold which has left you without strength or ambition.

We want to ask every such person to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil. If it does not build you up and make you feel young, strong and well again, we will return the money you paid for it. Isn't that fair? Vinol's drug store, Kingston.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Getting Instructions.

The county enumerators were in the city Thursday, receiving instructions from the commissioner, R. J. Vair. They will remain in the city a couple of days.

Important to Ladies and Baid Men.

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, will be at the Randolph hotel on Friday, May 19th, with complete samples of hair goods, latest London, Paris and New York creations. You are invited to call and inspect his goods.

Trip on to London.

A citizen called at the Whig office this morning to suggest that the city council authorize its permanent deputations, when it finishes its present jaunt, to continue the trip to London, Eng., to inspect the pavements there and, incidentally, view the coronation.

Given a Position.

Prof. F. R. Marshall, of Columbus, Ohio, formerly of Westbrook, has received an appointment from the United States government, with others, to collect information to the cost of production of leading farm products now paying duty. The work commences as far west as Nevada.

Grant-Parker Wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. George R. Parkin have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Maude Erskine, to Professor W. L. Grant, of Queen's university, Kingston, Thursday, June 1st. The ceremony will take place at the church of St. Thomas of Canterbury, Goring-on-Thames, England. Afterwards there will be a reception at the cottage.

Formerly of Collins Bay.

James Ewing died at Carleton Place, on May 16th. Deceased formerly lived near Collins Bay, on the farm which he still owned at the time of his death. Five years ago, with his family, he removed to Carleton Place. His death was due to cerebral hemorrhage. He lived only about five hours, during which time he never regained consciousness. He was seventy years of age.

Smallest Egg on Record.

Probably the smallest egg ever laid by a local hen is on exhibition at the Whig office. The egg was laid Wednesday by a Rhode Island Red hen belonging to John Fitzgerald, Wellington street. The egg is about the size of a robin's egg and weighs half an ounce. It is perfectly developed in every way, and has a hard shell like an ordinary egg. It is quite a curiosity, and Mr. Fitzgerald is very proud of it.

Ricardi's Voice.

Goventry, Eng., Herald: The audience were not lacking in their appreciation of the wonderful beauty of Miss Ricardi's soprano voice. She was encored for her rendering of Sir H. R. Bishop's song, "Lo! Hear the Gentle Lark," one of the most enjoyable items of the evening. She gave "In My Garden," (liddle), in response to an encore, and this was rendered with charming sweetness. Miss Ricardi has an extraordinarily high register, and her capabilities in this direction were judged in the famous Polacca from Mignon.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

Men Arriving to Take Charge of Vessels.

The steambarge Westport cleared for Seely's Bay.

The steamers Renvoile, Haddington and Neepawah passed to-day.

The Calvin company will probably start another raft down the river on Saturday.

The steamer Jeesa arrived light from Smith's Falls, and cleared for Oswego, to load coal.

The steamer Sowards cleared for Oswego. This little steamer is a "hustler" in the coal trade.

The steamer Stranger is in the slip at the Kingston laundry for a few days to have some minor repairs made.

John Bongard, first mate on the steamer Sowards, who has been quite ill, has recovered, and resumed his duties.

At Swift's wharf: Steamer Dunbrin up, last night; steamer Belleville, down, last evening; steamer Aletha, down, from bay ports, to-day.

The steambarge Westport, loaded with lumber, at Burritt's Rapids, dis- charged at Cape Vincent. The West- port was in Kingston Wednesday afternoon.

During the past week, a great deal of grain has been rushed through to Montreal, although nearly all the vessels which came down from Fort William, at the opening of navigation, discharged in Kingston.

The arrival of the old steamer Norman, at Swift's wharf yesterday, caused marine men to talk over old times, when this steamer was running steadily from Port Dalhousie to Kingston, being used as a lighter to carry the grain.

The coal schooners running out of Kingston are very busy these days, and from now on to the end of the season they will be on the jump. It takes a great deal of coal, to keep the dealers supplied. Last winter was such a hard winter, on coal, that nearly the entire supply was used up.

M. T. Co.'s elevator. The steamer Mapleton, from Fort William, dis- charged a cargo of wheat, flax and oats; the steamer arrived at 8.30 o'clock Wednesday night and cleared for Fort William at four o'clock on Thursday morning; the tug Thompson arrived from Montreal with two light barges, and cleared for Montreal with two grain barges. The steamer Windsor passed up on her way from Montreal, last night, to Oswego, picking up the barge Kingston here.

"Buy spring tonics," Gibson's. A week ago last Saturday, Peter Cream, a native of Beckwith, died suddenly, at his home in Pilot Mound, Man., aged seventy-one years. He ceased work among the early settlers of the west.
