WILL BE ELECTED

DECLARES TAFT WILL BE NOMINATED AGAIN.

Brother Says He is Confident He Will be a Presidential Candidate Off on Trip to Europe.

New York, May 22.—That President William Howard Taft will be re-nominated by the republicans in 1912, was the prediction made by the man, who knows there is anyone else, was responsible for Taft landing the nomination three years ago. Sailing on the steamer Lapland for Europe for a motor trip through England and Southern Europe, Charles P. Taft, brother of the president, said that he was confident that President Taft would not only be re-nominated, but that he would be re-elected.

DEATH OF GEORGE ADSITT.

Kingston Tree Trimmer Passed Away on Monday.

George Adsett, who was confined to the general hospital since Friday last as the result of falling out of a tree, died in that institution early Monday afternoon. For some time after he was taken there he did not recover consciousness, but rallied for a short time on Sunday. During the night he took a turn for the worse.

Deceased had been for a number of years caretaker of the fair grounds and tree trimmer for the city, and was well known. He is survived by his wife and a family, as well as the following brothers and sisters: John Adsett, of Westbrook; Samuel Adsett, of Garden Island; Mrs. Robert Patterson, Victoria street; Mrs. Strachan, South Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Amanda Wright, Hanlon, N.Y.; and Mrs. Dabzell, of this city.

PORTUGAL'S TROUBLES.

Report of a Counter-revolution—Monarchists' Arrangements.

London, May 22.—A Paris despatch in the Daily Mail says there is reason to believe the monarchists have completed their preparations for a serious uprising in Portugal. According to private messages received in Paris the counter-revolution will begin in the north, where the anti-republican feeling is strong, and where discontent with the new regime has been manifested in strikes at Oporto. If Lisbon, as expected, should follow the example of the north, a counter-revolution will be a most serious affair and will certainly be attended with much violence and bloodshed.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY

Of Toronto Police and Pinkerton's at Woodbine.

Toronto, May 22.—During all the quiet and excitement of the running of the King's Plate, on Saturday, there was a sharp dispute between the local police and a force of Pinkerton detectives, hired by the jockey club, as to who was entitled to the honor of escorting the governor-general with King's Guineas. It developed into a question of Pinkerton authority in Canada. Finally the local police took charge but the larger question of Pinkerton authority is still to be decided.

Signal to Canada.

Paris, May 22.—The installation of more powerful machines in the wireless station on the Eiffel tower has been completed, and signals were sent last week to Canada. PITH OF THE NEWS.

The Very Latest Culled From All Over the World.

A circus elephant broke away from Howe's show at Ingersoll and marched into a swamp. The animal created consternation in the district. The feature of the racing at Woodbine, this afternoon, will be Glambala, one of America's best horses, who will race in the Queen's hotel feature. A wooden bridge on the Wilkash G.T.R. line, near Stony Point, was burned on Saturday, and trains had to be taken around by other lines.

The Battle of the Baltic.

Lake Ontario has seen a second "Battle of the Baltic," with Captain Leslie in the role of Lord Nelson. Mr. Leslie was employed by the city to raise the broken section of intake pipe. The city dismissed him when success was in sight. But, like Nelson, who refused to cease firing when ordered, the admiral of Lake Ontario put a telescope to his blind eye and declared to all and sundry, "Gentlemen, I cannot see the signal." In other words, he carried in his pocket his unopened mail, which contained information of his release by the city. He buckled himself raising the pipe, towed it successfully to John street, and won a second victory of Copenhagen.

A man who doesn't know when to quit is sometimes a valuable asset. Captain Leslie, at any rate, has done Toronto a service by refusing to consider himself discharged. Technically, his pay may have ceased when council dispensed with his services. But technicalities should not stand in the way of his receiving full remuneration for his services since that time. One of the most ungenerous things ever said at the city hall was the statement by Controller Hooken that Capt. Leslie's pay should stop with the passing of the resolution discharging him.

How England Feels About It.

Montreal Witness. Lord Haldane declares that the greater the trade the better market the United States the better market for England, and that is sound reasoning. Speaking for the British government, Lord Haldane says: "From every point of view we look upon the step" (Canada) is taking as probably a very good step in our interests as well as in the interests of Canada." And he concludes with the assertion: "We are free traders, and we intend to remain free traders." This must be trying and tiresome reading to the Canadian opposition, and other anti-reciprocity talkers and writers on this side, who profess to be sorry for poor England in this matter and who accuse, directly or by implication, all Canadians who favor reciprocity of unpatriotic feelings and disloyalty to the "Mother Country."

The Closing Incident.

Ontario Globe Toronto. Following concurrence in the measure passed, Hon. Mr. Fielding moved the adjournment of the house till July 18th.

"I hear a well-defined rumor," said Mr. Sproule, "that our friend Miss reciprocity has suffered a nervous prostration and has suspended animation. May I ask the leader of the issue if that is the case?"

"My hon. friend has the unfortunate habit of hearing many rumors which have no foundation in fact," replied Hon. Mr. Fielding.

Mr. Borden asked what business would have precedence when the house resumed.

"The young lady to whose distress my hon. friend just alluded is entitled to our first attention," replied the finance minister.

A Queen's Nickname.

Even a queen may have a nickname though few persons are privileged to use it. Queen Alexandra's is "Alix." It was King Edward's favorite name for her as was shown by a photograph on which was written "To Alix, from Edward." Charlotte Molyneux has for many years called the queen "Alix." Though a grown-up English queen may have a nickname they are not for royal babies. The queen and others who have the care of them are forbidden to call them by any pet name other than "Baby," from the time they are three years old. A prince is called "Sir." The queen of Norway is in a sense an exception to the general rule. She was called "Harry" in her infancy and still is "Harry" to her intimates.

Canada's Navy to be Home-Built.

Toronto Globe. The Canadian navy is to be brought out, so far as possible, of Canadian manufacture. The gratifying announcement has been made to the Executive Council of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association by the Tariff Committee of the association that advice have been received stating that the conditions of contract provide for this. It is stipulated that the hulls of the vessels, the propelling engines and the boilers must be built in a shipyard established in Canada, and that the materials and the machinery used in the construction and equipment of these vessels must be of Canadian manufacture, when possible, and in any case must be manufactured within the British empire.

Miss Bessie Friendship, daughter of John Friendship, of this city, has received her diploma from the Rochester City hospital as a graduate nurse. Her many friends will learn this news with pleasure.
