THE SPORT REVIEW

OUTSIDERS FOR HOLIDAY FOOT RACES.

All the Events Will be Keenly Contested—Scores in Big Leagues and Sporting Notes.

The foot races to be held on Victoria day, in connection with the other celebration, at the fair grounds, are sure to be keenly contested and to create wide-spread interest. Entries are coming in from outside towns, which mean a mixed field. Four young athletes are expected from Ottawa. Red Tubman, of Ottawa, made one very fast time last season, for the mile run, going the distance in less than five minutes. With O'Brien, from Bananovic, and Adams, of Kingston, backed up with the Ottawa boys, there will be some lively going in the mile. Adams is in good condition, having trained faithfully the last couple of weeks, under the watchful eye of an experienced trainer. The quarter and hundred yards events are also being up. The entries to date are as follows:

100 yards—F. Beckwith, J. Adams, H. Jones, of the Y.M.C.A., city, W. Skippen and F. Sparks, C.P.A.S.C., city; C. W. Foster, Napane; Red Tubman, Samuel Cuff and Edward Langdon, Y.M.C.A., Ottawa.

440 yards run—W. Jackson, Battersea; Edward Langdon and Samuel Cuff, Y.M.C.A., Ottawa; C. W. Foster, Napane; F. Sparks and W. Skippen, city; H. Jones, J. Adams, F. Beckwith, G. Fleming and H. Singleton, Y.M.C.A., Kingston.

One mile run—W. Jackson, Battersea; Samuel Cuff and Red Tubman, Y.M.C.A., Ottawa; C. W. Foster, Napane; J. H. Grades, Clayton, N.Y.; A. O'Brien, Gananoque; J. Adams, G. Fleming and H. Jones, Y.M.C.A., Kingston.

The officials for these races will be Starter, F. Kinnear, clerk of course, R. Bowron; judges at finish, Prof. James Small, Dr. W. Anglin, and E. C. Winchester, of Toronto; timers, J. C. Esterre, W. Kelly, E. F. Trimble.

S.S.A.A.A. Meeting.

The last meeting of the executive of the S.S.A.A.A. before the opening of the baseball league Thursday evening, will be held this evening in the Y.M.C.A. building. The principal thing on the programme will be the presenting and adopting of the schedule. Arrangements for the opening of the league will also be made.

Kingston Boys Play Ball.

It will be interesting to know that Ernest Kennedy and George Veale, two Kingston boys who left here this spring and located in Bow Island, Sask., are both playing ball this season. Ernest is holding down the first bag for a senior team there, and George is playing third for a junior team. Both teams are husky aggregations and the boys are showing up well. Both played with Bethel baseball team last season.

WILL AWAIT RESULT

OF CASE FOR VIOLATION OF SUNDAY LAW

Before Granting Restaurant License to D. Campbell—City Council Discussed Refusal of Chief of Police to Give License.

When should a restaurant license be granted to an applicant? This was a question that occupied three-quarters of an hour of discussion by the city council on Monday evening. D. Campbell, who conducts the Turkish bath and restaurant on Princess street, complained to the council that the chief of police would not give him a license, although he had applied for and was entitled to one. He asked the council to grant the license.
