TO BE HEARD FRIDAY

CHARGE MADE OUT AGAINST D. CAMPBELL.

Who is Accused of Violating Lord's Day Act—Witnesses State They Were Served With Biscuits and Cake, With Ice Cream and Soda Water.

The case against D. Campbell, who conducts the Turkish baths, and a restaurant, on Princess street, charged by the police with an infraction of the Lord's Day Act, will be thrashed out in police court, on Friday.

The case was to have been heard, to-day, but owing to the fact that counsel for the accused was not ready to proceed, an adjournment was made for a day, after the evidence of three witnesses, who could not be secured for to-morrow, were heard. D. A. Givens is acting as counsel for Mr. Campbell.

The case is one which caused so much discussion at the city council meeting on Monday night. Mr. Campbell was not granted a license for a restaurant, by the police, as the police are of the opinion that he does not keep a restaurant. This question of granting the license, was left over until the decision is given in the police court case.

John Morrissey, Henry Eves and George Crawford, all young men, were the witnesses who were heard. Morrissey said that he had been in Mr. Campbell's place on Sunday, May 14th, with his wife and his sister's child. They were in the place between three and four o'clock. They wished to have a lunch, but Campbell informed them that in order to be served with the ice cream, they must have a lunch with it. Witness said that a short time before he and the members of his party had partaken of their dinner, and as a result they did not care much about a lunch. However, they consented to have something, and were served with ice cream and cake.

Henry Eves went into the restaurant with George Crawford. This was about ten o'clock on the night of Sunday, May 14th. Several other people were in the place at the time. He and his friend were served with biscuits and a glass of soda water. This evidence was corroborated by Crawford.

A copy of two bills of fare, used in the restaurant, were submitted to the magistrates, but the case did not proceed any further.

THE LATE CAPT STALEY.

One of Kingston's Fine Old Mariners at Rest.

At 6:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning, Capt. Charles Staley, of the steamer Holcombe, passed peacefully away at his residence, 307 Barrie street, after an illness of only a few days. The deceased was one of Kingston's oldest and best known mariners, having been sailing for the past fifty years. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Sylvester and Vincent, of Buffalo, and Edmund, of this city; and three daughters, Clara and Theresa, of this city, and Eva, of Chicago. The funeral took place, Wednesday morning, from St. Mary's cathedral, at half-past nine o'clock.

The late Capt. Staley was a resident of Wolfe Island up to twenty years ago, when he moved to Kingston, where he since resided. He was a brother of Archibald Staley, Wolfe Islander, and Theresa, of this city. His father, Arthur Staley, Toronto, and Louis Staley, of Railton, nephews of the deceased, were present at the funeral rites, the mass being celebrated by Father Louis Staley. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

DEATH AT SUNBURY

Of James Moreland, Aged Eighty-Nine Years.

James Moreland, one of the best known farmers around Sunbury, passed away at his home, Wednesday, May 24th, after an illness of some duration. Deceased was a mariner for a number of years, but for the past fifty years he resided on his farm in that community. He was widely known and well respected, and his many friends will bear with sorrow his demise, at the advanced age of eighty-nine years. He was a Presbyterian in religion, and leaves to mourn his loss his widow, three sons and five daughters. The sons are: Hugh J., Storrington; John, of Marvale; and William, at home. The daughters are: Mrs. Alexander Sharpe, of Kingston; Mrs. Rattan, Pittsburg; Mrs. John Toland, Kingston; Mrs. J. J. Wilmut, Pittsburg; and Mrs. Richard Arthur, Sunbury. His funeral will take place Friday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, from his late residence.

SEVERAL HOLIDAY DRUNKS.

Eight Were in Line-up Before the Magistrate.

As usual, the holiday was celebrated by a goodly number, in over indulgence, and as a result, eight drunks were in the line-up, at the police court, on Thursday morning. Out of the number, only one was fined, and he was touched for $2 and costs, with the option of fifteen days in jail, as he had been before the court a short time ago. Thursday was his Jonah Day, all right. For the most part, the offenders were all outsiders, going to show that Kingstonsians were on their good behaviour. Trenton, Gananoque, Glenburnie and even Bath were represented.

The first man up hailed from Trenton. He was looking for a chance for a job on a boat.

"I'll give you the chance," remarked the magistrate, "but make sure it is not a 'schooner' you are looking for."

"I didn't think that people in Bath drank liquor," remarked the magistrate, when the resident of that village made his bow. It was his first appearance, so he got a chance.

Endorsed the Vice-President.

At their regular meeting held on Tuesday evening, the Masons' Union unanimously endorsed every action of Thomas Izzard, fourth vice-president of the International Union, and the local committee, since coming to this city.

Mrs. Turner, Nelson street, is in the general hospital, with Master Charlie, who has scarlet fever.

THE LATE J. C. DEPORCHERON.

John C. DePorcheron, aged forty-one years, passed away at the residence of his brother-in-law, David C. Laidlaw, Earl street, Tuesday, after a long illness. Deceased was for a time in the general hospital, in Montreal, but came here about seven weeks ago. He was a brother of Mrs. Laidlaw. The remains, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw, left on the midnight train for Quebec, where internment will take place.

Elected a Vice-President.

W. J. Driscoll, Kingston, was elected a vice-president of the Ontario Labor Educational Association, which met at Guelph on Wednesday.

A resolution was brought in with reference to McNamara, the union organizer, who is charged with dynamiting. It was ruled unconstitutional for this body to interfere with union matters across the border, but a resolution of sympathy to McNamara was unanimously carried.

MARRIAGE AND ENGAGEMENT.

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Mills, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Mills, to Victor Drury, of Halifax, will take place in St. Andrew's church, Ottawa, on June the 21st.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith MacArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur, London, Ont., to W. G. Paterson. The marriage will take place in June.

Two Trotters Sold.

I. A. Jenkins, the well-known horse buyer, purchased Sir James from F. Trudell, Bath road, for the race in the fair grounds on Wednesday afternoon. Sir James captured second place in three heats of the 2-40 class. It is understood that the price was $500. W. Gibson, of Gananoque, purchased Prince Wilks from T. Fitzgerald, of Thorburn, immediately after the race. It is said the price paid for this horse was $250. Prince Wilks took third money in the 2-40 class.

SCORES OF THE CADETS.

The Empire Daily Mail rifle match took place at the Royal Military College on May 24th. The following are the scores, the ranges being 200, 500 and 600 yards:

Cadet Melvor heads the list with 103. B. S. M. Gordon, C.S.M., do Lohriehar, 97; Major Dawson, 97; Cadet Turner, 95; Cadet Hamilton, 93; Cadet Lovelace, 93; Capt. Kaulbach, 92.

The grand total was 768, average score, 96.

First Trip Steamer Kingston.

The steamer Kingston will make her first trip of the season, leaving Toronto on June 1st, arriving in Kingston on the 2nd. The steamer Toronto will leave Toronto on June 2nd, arriving here the next day. The crew is about the same on the Toronto, with the exception of the assistant steward, Charles Foine, who has been appointed to this position. Richard's Somerville and Thomas Nash, of this city, have been appointed night lookout watch. John Grady is day lookout watch.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST CONTRACT.

The Panama Canal of 1911. This is the largest engineering work that the world has seen for is likely to see for some time, therefore we cannot help feeling that the film showing the actual condition of the work at the present moment will be of great interest to the entire community, estimated cost between 400 and 500 million dollars. Largest concrete mixer in operation, costing one million dollars, track shifter doing the work of four hundred men; at The King Edward to-night, Friday and Saturday, 2,000 feet of good comedy and drama will also be shown.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Should be Careful.

Attention is drawn to the fact that people should be very careful in leaving oily rags around a building, as they very often are the cause of a fire. If thrown into closed places, spontaneous combustion will be the result.

His Money Still in Bank.

Twenty-five years ago the late John Bowman, for many years collector of tolls on Catarquin bridge, and who died last December, deposited $1,000 in a local savings bank. It has just come to light that this amount, together with the full amount of interest, lies in the bank untouched.

Death of Trained Nurse.

Mrs. H. M. Lawson, Sydenham street, received the sad intelligence on Wednesday morning, of the death of Miss Alfreida Welstead, of Thorold. Miss Welstead was an accomplished trained nurse, well-known in this city and vicinity. Internment took place, on Thursday at St. Catharines.

Gave Exhibition at Inverary.

A number of girls from the Collegiate Institute, under the direction of Physical Instructor Palmer, and a number of the boy tumbler, under the direction of Physical Instructor Bowman, of the Y.M.C.A., went out to Inverary, Tuesday evening, and assisted in an empire day concert given there.

The Late J. C. DePorcheron.

John C. DePorcheron, aged forty-one years, passed away at the residence of his brother-in-law, David C. Laidlaw, Earl street, Tuesday, after a long illness. Deceased was for a time in the general hospital, in Montreal, but came here about seven weeks ago. He was a brother of Mrs. Laidlaw. OPENING OF LEAGUE

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEAMS PLAY THIS EVENING.

Major Graham and E. F. Trimble Will Officiate at the Opening—Queen and Brock Are the Teams.

The baseball league of the Sunday School Amateur Athletic association opens this evening at Victoria school grounds. Brock and Queen street teams will play the first game. An invitation has been given to every pastor and Sunday school superintendent whose school is represented in this league, to be present. Major Graham and E. F. Trimble will form the battery to formally open the league. Fans are reminded that it requires money to run this league as well as the city league, and they will therefore go to the field prepared to contribute their mite to the box, which will be passed around during the game. There are several city league players on both teams who play this evening, and a lively game will be the result. The game is scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock and the teams are warned to be there on time.

A meeting of the executive of the S.S.A.A. was held Tuesday evening for the purpose of receiving and adopting the baseball schedule drawn up by President Trotter and Secretary Trener. The staff of umpires, picked at a former meeting, were unable to act so it was left to President Trotter to pick one for the first two games and a meeting will be held next Tuesday evening to appoint umpires for the season.

First Golf Match.

The first golf match of the season was played at the links, Barriehed, Wednesday morning, for a pewter cup, which the losers were to put up. The teams were captained by the president, D. M. McIntyre, and the captain, George E. Hague. Mr. Hague's team won by the close score of 8 to 7.

President's team—D. M. McIntyre, Capt. A. Z. Palmer, Prof. John Watson, Major Sedgwick and Capt. Cochran.

Captain's team—G. E. Hague, O. T. Macklem, J. M. Farrell, J. Taylor and Capt. Hammond.
