HAVE BECOME ALARMED

AT THE LARGE INCREASE OF IMMIGRATION TO CANADA

And they Declining Immigration to United States—Steamship Lines May Alter Their Service.

Antwerp, May 29.—The trans-Atlantic shipping companies of Northern Europe are alarmed at the steady decline of emigration to the United States...

It is believed by Belgian emigration officials at this port, and in shipping circles generally...

The most important competitor of British lines for emigrant traffic to Canada at present is the Canada line which is an amalgamation of the Holland-American, Hamburg-American, Red Star, and North German Lloyd lines...

It is possible that the proposed changes may result in another rate war, for at present the route is one of the most profitable in the shipping business.

British Press Stirred by Imperial Conflicts. "London, May 29.—The Nation says: 'Each conference goes farther in the direction of the early imperial vision...'"

The Saturday Review says: "Asquith and Laurier will be frequent perpetrators on the legislative autonomy of every state in the empire..."

PRIEST PREVENTS BIG FIRE. And Was Badly Burned About Hands and Wrists.

Windsor, May 29.—As the large crowd which attended the funeral services of Joseph Kirk at Our Lady of the Lake church, Walkerville, yesterday, were about to file into the church...

WOLGAST WON GORY BATTLE. Frankie Burns, Outfought, Outpaced and Outgeneralled.

San Francisco, Cal., May 29.—Outfought, outpaced, outgeneralled, everything but outfought, Frankie Burns of Oakland, was forced to hoist a white flag of surrender at the going round for the beginning of the seventeenth round of his fight with Ad. Wolgast, lightweight champion.

Will There be a Surrender? Even Lord Rosebery says that the hereditary principle can no longer be allowed to dominate.

Backed Into River. Clayton, N.Y., May 29.—John Colon lost two valuable horses, which backed off the dock into the river while drawing coal ash from the rear of the First National Bank.

Offers Another Park. New York, May 29.—Miss Julia I. Taylor, of Cobalt, Ont., has offered the city of New York a park lying north of Manhattan Island.
