

A HAPPY WEDDING

THAT OF W. F. NICKLE, M.P.P., AND MISS GORDON.

A wedding of unusual interest to Kingstonians took place this morning at the residence of the Very Rev. D. M. Gordon, D.D., principal of Queen's University, when his elder daughter, Miss Katharine L. Gordon, was united in marriage to William Folger Nickle, K.C., M.P.P., of Kingston. No happier announcement than this could possibly be made, for never were two people more sure of their friends' sincere regard, and warm liking, and from young and old will every good wish follow them.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Gordon, assisted by Dr. John Mackie at half past ten. The drawing rooms and dining room were arranged with quantities of peonies and spruces a combination that made a most artistic and effective appearance.

The bride was charming in a smart gown and coat of grey rajah, relieved with bands of black satin, and finished with baby Irish lace at the cuffs and collar. A large black and white hat trimmed with white lace and flowers completed the costume, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The groom's gift to her was a pearl and diamond ring.

The bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Gordon, sister of the bride, was most becomingly gowned in white silk with overdress of black embroidered chiffon and wore a large black hat trimmed with white lace and flowers. She carried red roses, and wore the groom's gift, a pearl pendant. The best man was James Richardson, of Toronto and his gift from the groom was a seal ring.

Owing to the bride's family being in mourning, just the immediate relatives were present, and included Mrs. Macpherson, of Charlottetown, R.E.I.; Mrs. George Smith, of St. John, N.B.; Mrs. Guy Robinson, of Toronto; Huntley Gordon, of Dundas; Mrs. Nickle, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nickle, Masters Willie and Douglas Nickle; Miss Evelyn Nickle; Dr. and Mrs. John Mackie; Miss McKay and O. H. Linton, of New York.

After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Nickle left on the noon train for the north.

Brown-Crawford Wedding.
One of Kingston's fairest June brides was carried away by a rail-dent of Ottawa, Tuesday morning, when Miss Edith Lorena, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Crawford, Alfred street, was united in marriage to Allan L. Brown.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of both parties, in St. James' church. The knot was tied by Rev. T. W. Savary. The bride was very prettily attired in a gown of ivory paillette over silk chiffon, with the regulation veil and orange blossoms, and entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. She was supported by her sister, Miss Rhea Crawford, who was gowned in pale blue satin striped, and wore blue satin. She wore a black hat, trimmed with lilacs and pink roses, and carried a bouquet of pink peonies. The groomsmen were R. Rose, of Peterboro. The flower girl, Miss Marjory Moss, Renfrew, cousin of the bride, was dressed in white dotted Swiss over yellow silk, and carried a basket of lilies. The ushers were Kenneth and John Crawford, brothers of the bride.

After the ceremony at the church the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride, where a reception was held. The decorations in the dining-room were lilies of the valley, sweet peas and roses.

The happy couple left on the fast train at noon, amid a shower of rice and confetti, and with the good wishes of a host of friends, for a trip west, before returning to take up residence in Ottawa, where the groom has a lucrative position.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, to the bridesmaid, flower girl and organist, gold bar pins set with pearls, and to the groomsmen and ushers gold cuff links.

Among the invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Galt, parents of the groom; Mrs. McKenzie, of Galt, aunt of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Moss, Renfrew, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. H. Moss, jr., cousins of the bride; Renfrew, Miss Marjory Moss, cousin of the bride; Renfrew, Mrs. Reynolds, aunt of the bride; Pontiac, Mich.; Miss L. Crawford, aunt of the bride; Toronto; Miss Ethel Crawford, cousin of the bride; Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. George Hazlett, Prescott; Miss Clara Miller, Prescott; Mrs. Waddell and Miss Gladys Waddell, aunt and cousin of the bride; Kingston; Dr. and Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson; Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Savary; Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, Miss Henry, Miss Pearl Crawford, Miss May and George Wright, Miss Clare Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. A. Aykroyd, Mrs. George Coward, Miss Lou Nicholson, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsh, of this city.

Dr. Gibson's Marriage.
The marriage of two popular Kingstonians, Dr. William Gibson, of the medical staff of Queen's university, and a practitioner of this city, and Miss Lillian O'Reilly, was celebrated at five o'clock, Tuesday morning, in St. Mary's cathedral, by Rev. Father James O'Reilly, brother of the bride, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of both parties.

The bride was dressed in a black and white travelling suit, with hat to match, and was supported by her sister, Miss Rose O'Reilly, who was gowned in blue silk, with white trimmings, and hat to match. Dr. James G. Dwyer, of the medical staff of Columbia university, New York, was the groomsmen.

After the wedding a breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's parents, on Brock street, and the happy couple left on the steamer Toronto, at six o'clock, for Montreal and other points before returning to the city to take up their residence.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold brooch set in amethysts, to the bridesmaid, a ring set with garnets, her birthstone, and to the groomsmen a signet ring.

The groom, who is a grand knight of the Frontenac Council of Knights of Columbus, was, on Saturday evening, presented with a chest of silver by the members of the order and an address testifying to the esteem in which he is held in this order.

Although the wedding was of a very quiet nature a large number of presents were received from friends far and near.

To be Preserved.
A. R. Davis, Napanee, and John N. Lake, Toronto, asked the Bay of Quinte Methodist conference for $500 towards the cost of the renovation of the old Methodist church at Adolphustown, which was built 130 years ago and is the oldest in the province. Mr. Davis also announced that he purchased the old Macdonald homestead in that vicinity, and he proposed that it be preserved as a memorial of Sir John Macdonald. A committee will preside over the raising of the money asked for the old church.

Victorian Nursing.
Owing to the small number of members present at the Victorian Order meeting, on Monday afternoon, no business was transacted. The nurse's report for May shows an increasing amount of work—100 nursing visits were made and eleven casual visits, thirteen cases cared for, of which four were Roman Catholics, three Methodists, two Anglicans, two Presbyterians, one Baptist and one Hebrew. Donations were received from Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Gill.

Fixtures at a Bargain.
Counters, shelving, tea chests, safe, desks and many other things too numerous to mention, all at sacrifice prices. At Kirk's.

TRAIN JUMPED TRACK

PASSENGERS ON K. AND P. TRAIN HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Express Left the Rail's Near Murvale on Monday Afternoon—Visiting Ministers Were Among the Passengers.

Passengers on the express on the Kingston & Pembroke railway, on Monday afternoon, had a miraculous escape when the train, running at a good rate of speed, jumped the track, about a mile and a half the other side of Murvale. The engine and a couple of coaches left the rails, but strange to say, no person was injured.

The express from Sharbot Lake was due in Kingston about four o'clock, and as a result the passengers did not reach the city until 7:15 o'clock. As soon as word was received of the accident the Bay of Quinte train, with Conductor Marshall Parks in charge, was sent out to bring in the passengers.

The railway officials could not account for the accident, but it is believed that the spreading of the rails was responsible.

The passengers all received a bad shaking up, but when they arrived at the station it was reported that no person had been injured. The engine which figured in the run-off is No. 1. As a result of the accident the Bay of Quinte train could not make its usual trip.

A couple of ministers, on their way to attend the annual meeting of the Congregational union of Canada, to be held in this city, were among the passengers on board.

Railroad officials cannot account for the accident, and engineers are at the scene of the wreck to-day, to endeavor to find out the cause of the run-off. The train was on a straight piece of road when the accident occurred. The engine and one car, so it is reported, had just passed over a small culvert, and the culvert was almost totally destroyed by the other two coaches.

The auxiliary was at the scene all night, and work was continued on Tuesday morning, and it was expected that the line would be cleared all right by noon.

The damage to the engine and cars will not be very great.

A PERMIT TAKEN OUT

For the Erection of the Commerce Bank Building.

On Tuesday morning, a permit was taken out at the city engineer's office by T. Cannon & Son, contractors, Toronto, for the erection of the new Bank of Commerce building at the corner of King and Brock streets, the foundation for which was prepared over a month ago. On account of labor troubles locally, the contract for the erection was not awarded until last week. Work will be started at once. The building will be three stories in height, with stone foundation, and brick and terra cotta walls. It will cost $30,000.

Robert Crawford Manager.
The annual meeting of the Thousand Island and River St. Lawrence company was held at Cape Vincent, Monday afternoon, when Robert Crawford was elected general manager of the company, in addition to the position of president, which he now holds. All the other officers were re-elected. The local officers of the company went over to the Cape on the steam yacht Ramona.

Large Number of Deaths.
During May, the registration of deaths by the city clerk was three against one in many years. The total was forty-nine, as against thirty-eight births. The marriages for the month numbered sixteen.

Late Mrs. James McCammon.
Monday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. James McCammon took place at Cataragui cemetery from her late home, 333 Queen street. Rev. Dr. MacFarlane conducted a service, and the pall-bearers were four nephews of the deceased, Dr. MacFarlane, ex-Mayor Robert MacFarlane, of Kingston; William MacFarlane, of Pittsburg township; Maxwell MacFarlane, of Kingston, and a grandson, H. Dunn, Montreal. Deceased had lived in Kingston for fifty years.

James Gowan and wife, of Barrack street, went to Toronto, to-day. Mr. Gowan will attend a meeting of the Chosen Friends. See Bibby's wash vests, $1.
