WILLIAM MURRAY, Auctioneer.

Married at Malloytown.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Armstrong, Malloytown, was the scene of a pretty wedding, Wednesday, at eleven o'clock, when their only daughter, Miss Jessie Lenora, was united in marriage to William Chester Stevens, of Phillipsville, by Rev. E. A. Pocock, Presbyterian minister of Lyn.

The bride was attired in white satin with pearl and lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Isabel May Stevens, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and carried pink carnations. Mr. Stevens was ably supported by Frederick G. Armstrong, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast, when the health of the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Pocock and ably responded to by the groom. Mrs. Stevens' popularity was testified by the number of useful and costly presents she received. The gift of the groom to the bride was a diamond and pearl pendant and a tie pin to the best man, and to the pianist, Miss A. McLean, a gold necklace.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left on an honeymoon trip to Chicago, in their new automobile, and on their return will reside at Phillipsville. Mrs. Stevens left in a blue serge tailor made suit, with hat to match. Mr. Armstrong gave her a piano and Mr. Stevens a substantial cheque.

CIVIL SERVICE TEAM DEFEATED THE RETAILERS

By Seven Runs to Four—Cook's Buried Bethel by Twenty to Nothing—Y.M.C.A. Athletic Standings.

"Joe" Daley's civil service pirates cleaned up the Retailers at the cricket field, Thursday afternoon, in their first scheduled game of baseball, defeating them by the score of seven runs to four. The game was won in the fourth inning, when on a nice two-base hit by Daley to right field, the civil service men started to score. On a couple of wild throws while the civil service men were running bases, they scored four runs this inning. The Retailers started off well in the first inning, when Daley was touched for four hits in succession, allowing three runs. The Retailers were somewhat hampered by the absence of Leader, who twirled for them last season. He was unable to be present through sickness in the family, and Lee occupied the hot. This was the first game he pitched, but he managed to strike out five men in the five innings, while Daley struck out one. Score by innings:

Civil Service 1 2 6 4 0-7
Retailers 3 0 1 0 4-7

Umpire—E. Hatrick.
