Intercolonial Railway Improvements at Halifax

SEALED TENDERS ADDRESSED TO the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Pier and Sheds," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon of the 20th day of June, 1911, for the construction of a reinforced concrete pier and shed at the Deep Water Terminal of the Intercolonial Railway at Halifax.

Plans, Specifications and Form of Contract to be entered into may be seen and full information obtained on and after the 20th day of June, 1911, at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, Ont., and at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Intercolonial Railway at Montreal, Que., or at the office of the Consulting Engineer, Mr. John Kennedy, Montreal.

Parties tendering are required to accept the fair wages schedule prepared or to be prepared by the Department of Labour and to schedule will form part of the contract.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders for this work are considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and in the case of firms who are not attached to the actual signature, the nature of occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm.

An accepted bank cheque for the sum of $25,000.00, or its equivalent, to be ordered by the Minister of Railways and Canals, must accompany each tender, which sum is to be held in trust for the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work, at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the contractor if his tender is not accepted.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

L. K. JONES, Secretary.

Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, June 13, 1911.

Miss Irene Swift, King street, returned home from Toronto on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Finney, of Lechmere, is expected to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wornowith, Earl street.

Mrs. Benjamin and Miss Lois Benjamin motored in from York on Thursday and spent the day in town.

Mrs. Irene Swift, King street, returned home from Toronto on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Finney, of Lechmere, is expected to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wornowith, Earl street.

Mrs. Katherine Fairlie, who has been some time in Indianapolis, arrived in town on Tuesday and will spend the summer with her parents, Rev. John and Mrs. Fairlie, Brock street.

Miss Kathleen Ryan, made her debut. Mrs. Ryan, in a handsome matron gown of cashmere de soie, with eyelet trimmings, was assisted by her young husband, who, in a suit of grey, looked charming in a dainty frock of white chiffon over white mousseline, with pearl trimmings and touches of American Beauty roses.

Miss Nora Scully, of Montreal, who is Mrs. Ryan's guest, was most becomingly gowned in pink satin. "Lockwood House" and grounds seemed particularly well suited for an affair of this sort, and the hostess felt herself fully repaid for her trouble by the enjoyment of her guests, which was increased by her daughter, who would add to the pleasure of the evening had been omitted. The huge marquee on the lawn, where supper was served, and where comfortable sitting-places had been arranged, were extremely popular. The many colored lights and lanterns outside, and the pretty decorations of ponies, which were used profusely inside, made a most attractive toilet ensemble. The programme of twenty-three dances, and three extras was greatly enjoyed by all the guests, who included: Miss Colonel and Mrs. J. G. Lowe, Misses Helen and Madge Grosse; Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. R. E. Kent, Misses Hilda and Doris Kent, Misses Nora and Helen Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Anglin, Misses Susan and Marie Anglin, Dr. and Mrs. W. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Birmingham, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. G. S. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dalton, Miss Mabel Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, Dr. J. J. Hart, Dr. and Mrs. James Third, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kilbourn, Mrs. H. A. Betts, Mrs. Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mrs. H. Finney, of Lechmere, is expected to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wornowith, Earl street.

Mrs. Katherine Fairlie, who has been some time in Indianapolis, arrived in town on Tuesday and will spend the summer with her parents, Rev. John and Mrs. Fairlie, Brock street.

Miss Kathleen Ryan, made her debut. Mrs. Ryan, in a handsome matron gown of cashmere de soie, with eyelet trimmings, was assisted by her young husband, who, in a suit of grey, looked charming in a dainty frock of white chiffon over white mousseline, with pearl trimmings and touches of American Beauty roses.

Miss Nora Scully, of Montreal, who is Mrs. Ryan's guest, was most becomingly gowned in pink satin. "Lockwood House" and grounds seemed particularly well suited for an affair of this sort, and the hostess felt herself fully repaid for her trouble by the enjoyment of her guests, which was increased by her daughter, who would add to the pleasure of the evening had been omitted. The huge marquee on the lawn, where supper was served, and where comfortable sitting-places had been arranged, were extremely popular. The many colored lights and lanterns outside, and the pretty decorations of ponies, which were used profusely inside, made a most attractive toilet ensemble. The programme of twenty-three dances, and three extras was greatly enjoyed by all the guests, who included: Miss Colonel and Mrs
