Notwithstanding the dark clouds and occasional showers, Kingstons turned out en masse to welcome the bride of one of Kingston's most popular boys, on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. W. Balfour Mudie held her post-nuptial reception. She received at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stephen Huebner, and very lovely she looked in her long-trimmed gown of duchesse satin, the bodice trimmed with a pearl bolero, and finished at the waist with silk cord, the sleeves and yoke studded with pearls and silk roses. Miss Carrie Waldron assisted the bride in receiving, in the drawing-room, where quantities of pink and white ponies made a most effective decoration. Mrs. J. B. McMurphy, of Gananoque, mother of the bride, poured tea and Miss Nora Gordon cut ice cream, at a table that was centered with a huge cut glass chandelier of white ponies. They were assisted by Miss Ethel Waldron, Miss Mabel Brownfield, Miss Margaret Fairlie and Miss Grace Hemming.

Mrs. James Rigney, Johnson street, was the charming hostess at a small bridge, on Thursday afternoon, Miss Regan, of London, Ont., was the raison d'etre. There were two tables in play. Miss Browne, Miss J. Brown, Miss M. Dalton, Miss Fanny Sullivan, Miss Marion Reddan, Miss Loretta Swift, Miss Ryan of Prescott, and Miss Carrie Waldron. The prizes were won by Miss Mabel Dalton and Miss Loretta Swift. Among those who came in for tea were Mrs. Hugh Craig, Mrs. Hugh Nickle, Miss Ethel Waldron, Miss Edith Folger, Miss Mona Knight and her guest, Miss Marjorie Wilson of Pieton, Miss Irene Swift and Miss Joan Craig. Miss Eleanor Phelan assisted Miss Geraldine Regan in passing refreshments. During the afternoon the guests were delighted with several vocal selections, and Miss Geraldine Regan played the violin in a charming manner.

Mrs. Walter Macnee, Bagot street, was hostess at a delightful lunch, at the Country Club, on Friday, with Mrs. George Clark, Detroit, as guest of honor. A large basket of pink ponies and white carnations made a most artistic and lovely centre piece. The guests included Mrs. T. Benson, Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, Mrs. J. Gildea, Mrs. Iva Martin, Mrs. Francis Macnee, Mrs. E. E. Kent, Mrs. Hallaway Waddell, Mrs. Hansard Hora, Mrs. Victor Anderson, Ottawa and Mrs. Frank Strange.

A nice break was made in the routine of work in the Synod Hall, on Thursday afternoon, when the visiting clergymen and their wives were entertained at tea. Mrs. E. J. Bidwell presided at the tea table, in the centre of which was a huge bowl of the loveliest pink, red and white ponies. Some of the guests were Bishop and Mrs. Lennox Mills, Rev. C. A. and Mrs. French, Rev. C. W. and Mrs. Harris, Rev. and Mrs. J. Serson, Dr. and Mrs. Pierce, Chancellor Macdonald and Mr. J. Walker.
