When you came you were aware of the fact that the outlook was gloomy, though you did not shrink, but boldly took up the work, and we have only words of praise to bestow upon you for the results attained.

Mr. Bourke replied, thanking the congregation for this unexpected mark of their esteem, and assuring them that he would ever remember kindly the people of Brock Street Methodist church and his stay in the city of

SUNDAY AT THE CAMP

PROTESTANT AND CATHOLIC SERVICES ARRANGED.

The 14th Regiment Will Take Part—Trenches Cut in the Ground to Allow the Water to Run Off.

On Sunday morning, at Barriefield camp, Roman Catholic church parade will be held at 8.30 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Hanley, of St. Mary's cathedral, will have charge of the service.

The camp looks like an irrigated farm, with small trenches to let the water run away all over the ground. After drill is over early in the afternoon the men make themselves scarce and read and sleep until evening.

The different bands in camp are attaining efficiency, due to continued practice. A soccer match between the 49th and 45th regiments was played last evening on the grounds.

The 4th company of the 45th regiment challenges any team in camp to a game of baseball. The Y.M.C.A. is preparing to have a "stunt" night Saturday evening.

A soccer, soft ball and baseball league has been formed in the camp and the first games were played last evening. The rawness of the recruits is wearing away now under the constant and never-ceasing drill.

Wrestling matches were pulled off in the Y.M.C.A. tent Friday evening to the amusement of the larger number of soldiers who gathered there. The volunteers are getting a taste of the real thing. Every day since the camp was opened it has rained and some of the soldiers have almost had to sleep in wet places.
