THE PETAWAWA CAMP

THE ARTILLERY IS IN ACTIVE TRAINING.

The Men Well Cared For—Fifteen Batteries in Action—Each Day Splendid Results Recorded During Practices With Live Shell.

Petawawa, June 16.—The end of the first week found the central military camp growing day by day. On June 5th the 2nd Brigade Canadian Field Artillery and the permanent staff were the only troops on the lines. The numbers increased gradually until there are to-day nine hundred men in camp, including the 8th Brigade, C.F.A., of Kingston, and the 9th Brigade, C.F.A., of Ottawa. It is expected that there will be 4,800 men and 2,500 horses undergoing training by June 17th.

The weather has been for the most part excellent, there being only one electric storm Monday and one other rainy day. The absence of the intense heat that often prevails here in June has greatly increased the enjoyment of the troops in training. The military authorities are putting forth every effort to make this camp popular with the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the non-permanent units. Each line of tents has its complement of showers and other sanitary conveniences.

WHO GETS PROFIT ON BEEF?

Kansas Investigation to Determine Cause of Difference.

Topeka, Kas., June 17.—Who makes the profit on beef? The stockman says not he, the retailer declares he is making a bare living, and the packer can prove by yards of statistics that his only profit is what he gets for the hoofs at the glue factory.

WOLF ISLAND NEWS.

CROPS AT LISKEARD.

Board of Trade Delegates Meet With Surprise.

New Liskeard, Ont., June 17.—Crops never looked better than those seen yesterday afternoon by the members of the board of trade delegation on their arrival at Liskeard. A heavy rain the past two days had painted the fields with the deepest shade of green and the visitors were driven for miles in all directions in a tour of inspection. The special train was met at the Liskeard station by acting Mayor J. H. Brown, and President MacLachlan, of the local board of trade, and a great concourse of members of the council and board of trade and citizens generally. Mayor Brown read an address of welcome in which the agricultural resources of the town and country were noted.

His Trouble Was Double.

A story is going the rounds of one of the young organization men who is frequently absent from his home on "politics."

His wife has known for a long time that he was very busy with "politics," and then the recent campaign kept him still more occupied. The other day she came down town with him, and while they were riding in a street car a strange woman came in and stared at the young politician. She passed him and went to the front of the car still staring. When she took her seat she fastened her eyes on the young man with a most astonished expression.

A Heartless Father.

"I need some help with my household duties," announced a woman when her husband came home the other night.

"What's the matter with our daughter?" the husband wanted to know.

"Our daughter? The idea! Why, Jim, you know she's awfully delicate, and she would die if she had to do any household work. She has her school, and—"

STARVED NERVES

Cause Neuralgia—Must be Treated Through the Blood.

Neuralgia is a cry of the nerves for more and better blood. It literally means that the nerves are being starved. Like every other part of the body the nerves receive their nourishment through the blood. There is therefore no doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure the worst cases of neuralgia. They actually make new rich blood, carrying to the starved nerves the elements they need, thus driving away the sharp, torturing pains which nearly drive the sufferer wild. In many cases of neuralgia have yielded to treatment through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that every sufferer from this dreaded trouble should lose no time in giving the pills a fair trial.

DAMAGES BY STORM.

Allisonville, June 15.—The heavy thunder storm passed over this place on Saturday night, doing damage to Mrs. Robert Morton's home. The lightning struck one corner, passing through the bedroom, splintering one bedpost, without doing Mrs. Morton any harm. On Monday afternoon, another heavy electrical storm with a heavy down-pour of rain passed over this place. The lightning killed a colt pasturing on Norman Laid's place, and struck Arthur Morden's house, doing quite a lot of damage. On Monday June 12th a quiet marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd, general merchant, when their youngest daughter, Ida, was united in marriage to William McPaul, rove of Wellington, and eldest son of Arnold McPaul, of Wellington. The marriage took place at nine o'clock, and after partaking of a dainty breakfast the happy couple left for Picton, where they took the boat for Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. A. Hogle returned home this week, after visiting a few days in Trenton and Frankfort. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davison, of Napanee, are visiting Mr. Bruce McPaul's this week. THE Dominion Insurance Act Requires all Canadian Life Insurance Companies to bring their entire Policy Reserves up to a 3-1-2 per cent. interest basis by January 1st, 1915.

This ultimate Higher Standard which the Government will require from all companies in 1915 has from its inception been the lowest standard maintained by

The Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada

The Imperial was the first Canadian Company to place its entire policy reserves on a 3-1-2 per cent. interest basis. Unlike many other companies, it has not taken in the past, and will not need to take in the future, one dollar from policyholders' profits to make up any deficiency between its reserves and those required by law.

The Imperial's present high standard of reserves—nearly half a million dollars in excess of Government requirements—places the Company in an enviable position to earn profits for policyholders, and to continue to do so.

DRINKS FOR HIS NERVES

You who have never touched liquor cannot understand a strange nervousness in some people which nothing else can allay.

In Three Days The Gatlin Treatment

without hypodermic injections, will remove the cause—no more craving or desire for liquor.

Nine-tenths of all those who drink liquor would gladly stop liquor every trace of this poison from their systems, but they cannot because they are so drunk that they have the least effect anything will allay it but alcohol. That is why men keep right on drinking when they know just as well as you do that it is ruining them mentally, physically, and financially. They simply CAN'T STOP.

The cause of this nervousness is due to accumulated alcoholic poison in their systems. Before they can or will stop drinking liquor every trace of this poison must be driven out. The Gatlin treatment is the only one in the world that will eliminate this poison; other methods of treatment will not, because EFFECTS are treated instead of CAUSE. The Gatlin does away with the CAUSE, and with it goes craving, desire, nervousness and all other effects of alcoholic poisoning. But THREE DAYS TIME is required to cure any case by either Institute or Home treatment.

Come to the Gatlin Institute for three days and you will return home with no more desire for liquor than you had the day you took your first drink.

You will be treated under a legally executed contract, and if you are not satisfied the full fee paid shall be refunded on leaving the Institute.

Call or write for books giving full particulars and copies of contract.

The Gatlin Home Treatment is for those who cannot conveniently come to the Institute. It is effective in each case where plain, simple directions are followed.

GAMBLING IS SUPPRESSED

In Geneva, the City of the Great Divine, Calvin.

Geneva, June 17.—The federal council at Berne has given its final decision in the question of gambling at the Cercle of Geneva, and the Cercle des Etrangers is definitely closed. This ends a controversy which for some time had been a leading topic of conversation in this city.

At one time the people of Geneva might be said to have been divided into two factions—for or against gambling at the Casino. The arguments advanced by those in favor of the suppression of gambling are sufficiently obvious. Gambling being a vice, the reformers, it must be suppressed by law, and no homical considerations must be allowed to interfere with this reform in the city of Calvin.

On the other hand, there are many persons who have business interests here and who are skeptical about the possibility of making people virtuous by act of parliament who regard the discussion of their case more difficult to argue, for no one cares publicly to defend gambling.

At the same time they point out that though gambling is undoubtedly a vice, it may also be an amusement, and that the existence of the Cercle des Etrangers had the effect of creating an atmosphere of elegance and gaiety which tourists liked to find in Geneva. To support each point of view all kinds of arguments and cases in point were advanced, but as the matter has been settled to the satisfaction of those desiring the suppression of gambling, the Cercle des Etrangers may be regarded as closed.
