

"MY BACK IS KILLING ME"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" WILL CURE

Backache means Congestion of the Kidneys. Dull ache in the back—sharp, shooting pains—headache and nervousness—mean that the Kidneys are overworked. The Bowels are constipated and the skin is inactive, so that the Kidneys are compelled to do the work of both bowels and skin in throwing off the waste of the body. The Kidneys thus become irritated and inflamed and backache results. The only possible way to relieve the congestion and cure the pain is to force the bowels and skin to do their share of the work.

"Fruit-a-tives", the great fruit medicine, is the best and most scientific Kidney Remedy in the world.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Pain in the Back and Kidney Trouble. 50c. box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. Dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

DEFINING THE LAW.

There is a mistaken idea, that if ice cream parlors take out restaurant licenses, and serve biscuits, cakes, sandwiches or the like, they will be entitled to sell ice cream on Sunday. This idea is erroneous. Before a place can sell ice cream or soda water on Sunday it must be "a bona fide restaurant," a place in which a person may get a satisfactory meal or lunch at any hour of the day and while it is open. It must be properly equipped as a restaurant. These facts were clearly brought out at the appeal hearing before Judge Madden, last Thursday. The Campbell place, on Princess street, can sell ice cream and sodas on Sundays, because it is a bona fide restaurant, and because ice cream is only one of many eatables it sells. The rulings of five Ontario judges are now on record, and all agree that ice cream, in a mere ice cream parlor or a confectioner's store, cannot be sold on Sunday.

VERY EASILY ALARMED.

Sir Charles Tupper is the only survivor of the fifteen who signed the Act of Confederation. His speech, in London, at the unveiling of the tablet in Washington Palace Hotel, reminded one of the wail of Elijah, when he fled from Ahab, and felt that he alone was left of the faithful in Israel. Sir Charles is filled with fear lest the consolidation of the empire fail. It can be said of him, as it was of Elijah, that there are thousands who are quite as sound politically, and as ready to perform their duty to the country and the empire. Some of our great men need a revelation. Sir Charles Tupper is one of them. He did not see any danger to the empire when he was in the Macdonald government and sought reciprocity in trade with the United States, and he would not see it now if the conservatives were in power.

THE STUDENTS IN DRILL.

The Arbours, the magazine which was recently founded by the undergraduates of Toronto University, and designed to stimulate literary effort among the graduates, has a timely article on "The Duty of Imperial Defence." It is from the pen of an old boy, (class of 1883), but contains a reference which is interesting to the boys of 1911. Here it is:

"The government of Canada has been assured that for a comparatively trifling outlay, they can have in McGill, in Queen's, and in Toronto, as large a number as they choose of the best and brightest of the youth of the country, to train for future commissions in the militia. A modification of the Officers' Training Corps, as organized so successfully in Britain, not only can be had for the asking, but has been actually urged upon the militia department at Ottawa, by the authorities of these three universities. We trust that shortly the reproach which in the writer's opinion fairly rests upon Canada in the matter of imperial defence may be, so far as our undergraduate bodies are concerned, completely and finally removed."

The cry that comes from the camp at Niagara is that the men of the day cannot be enlisted in the defence of the country, and here are the colleges with a proposition which should be at once accepted. The commander of the forces in the United States wants the high school boys drilled so that when they become men they can be depended upon to do occasional service in an efficient way.

The young men represent the recruits for military exercises everywhere, and the students of our colleges should have a preference, because they do nothing half-heartedly. There is an enthusiasm about all this organization which is characteristic of them. Why the militia department hesitates about the equipment of the corps referred to is a question which fills us with astonishment.

RIVAL MEDICAL SCHOOLS.

The Whig discussed, on Friday, with a member of the medical council in Kingston in connection with the oral examinations—the probable results of the legislation which the Toronto University is pushing. He said he had carefully considered it, and he expected it would pass. "And what," asked the Whig, "will be the effect of it on the other medical colleges of the province?" His reply came at once. "I do not think these schools of medicine will be adversely affected. The standard for the Toronto University should not be different from the standards of Queen's and Western Colleges."

That is not the view taken of the subject by the president of the Kingston Medical and Surgical Society. In the paper which he read before this society on February last he said:

is proposed," said Dr. Garrett, "to have a bill enacted in the legislature of the province to permit all her graduates in medicine to practice in the province without passing the examinations of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, while the graduates of all other schools must submit to the council examinations. By such an enactment the province would be indirectly subsidizing students to attend Toronto University. Further, by such an enactment a premium would be put upon the teaching of the university, while it would lead the intending student to fully believe that that teaching and curriculum of the other schools must be of such inferior standard that further tests must be applied, in the way of provincial examinations, before their students will be admitted to practice. The university is to take a large part in establishing a standard of medical teaching and a curriculum for rival schools, to which they are not obliged to submit. Further, the laws regulating the College of Physicians and Surgeons may be changed, altered, or annulled by the legislature, and if those in authority in the medical department of the Toronto University can bring such pressure to bear on the assembly as to make the proposed regulations law; it does not require a very large burst of imagination to foretell what further legislation may be enacted to further annihilate rival schools."

Before the bill again comes up for consideration in the legislature the medical schools should agree upon a campaign which will have one very definite aim, namely, to insist that there shall not be any discriminations in medical education. The Toronto University is not wholly to blame for its monopolistic and arbitrary tendencies. The management has been made to feel that it can have what it wants or do what it likes, and the president of the local society is correct in his assumption that it has not much regard for rival schools. But the legislature cannot let injury be wrought upon these rival colleges without a cause. The curriculum that is good enough for Kingston is good enough for Toronto, and vice versa.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
The common house fly seems to have heard about the dead set which was preached upon it. It has made itself scarier than usual this summer.

Some people felt too tired, yesterday, to go to church. But they had no hesitation about walking to the military camp, and back, and showed no signs of weakness.

The opponents of the trade agreement are annoyed because the Bishop of Ontario saw fit to call them the "blue ruin songsters." It is not a pretty name, but it is a correct one.

The board of trade should follow up that idea of a Grand Trunk connection between its main line and Ottawa, via Kingston. This is the place for that connection and our business men cannot make that point too clear.

Minneapolis, Minn., has the distinction of curing about 75 per cent. of the victims of their drunkenness. Can not Minneapolis pass that recipe a long for the good of every community which is cursed by the drink traffic?

Good music should not be regarded as a desecration of the Sabbath whether it proceeds from an organ and choir, in a church, or a band in the park. The Sabbath needs protection, but the Lord's Day Alliance may carry their ideas to extremes.

Mormonism appearing in Canada! It has been deep-rooted in the west. It is the Macleod-Carleton-Magrath-Gleiche, district for many a day. Whether it is polygamous in its character is another question, and one the government should have no difficulty in establishing.

Sheldon, sentenced to five years in prison, told the judge that he took the people's money "with the best intentions." Same old story. Every gambler who has reached the penitentiary in the last ten years—and some of them were even called bankers—could say the same thing in extenuation of his offence.

CHICAGO RIGHT IN LINE.

Old Boys and Girls Getting Ready For Trip.
The old boys, and girls too, of Chicago, are making arrangements for a trip to Kingston, on Friday, July 29th. "We are going back to our old friends and the familiar scenes of our childhood days," reads a circular which has been sent out advertising the excursion. The circular contains a cut showing the water front of Kingston. It is expected that a very large number will come to Kingston.

ARRIVED IN KINGSTON

RIDING FROM VANCOUVER TO MONTREAL.

Thompson Clark Had Some Hair-Breadth Escapes on the Route—He Will Leave Montreal for England.

Thompson Clark, secretary of the British Columbia Football Association, who left Vancouver, B.C., on April 17th, to ride to Montreal on a bicycle, reached here on Saturday afternoon, about three o'clock, and after stopping for a short time in the city, proceeded to Montreal, where he will take ship for the old country.

His purpose, as has been stated before, in going to England, is to get someone interested in football, to give a perpetual trophy for competition in the western provinces. He left Vancouver on April 4th, and will reach Montreal on the day he said he would when he started. He took the C.P.R. line as his guide and travelled the ties all the way with the exception of about 600 miles in Alberta, where the prairie afforded better travelling. He has had many hair-breadth escapes on the trip from bears to railroad trains. Once he was caught in a tunnel but managed to get to the open air before the train came along. Another time he was caught on a trestle and lowered himself and wheel over the sides again and rode to London and thence to the Glasgow exhibition, where he will endeavor to interest some fan in his pet project.

Mr. Thompson used a bicycle of English manufacture, with Canadian tires. One pair lasted him to Toronto, a distance of 2,300 miles. He expected to be in Montreal, Sunday.

Mr. Leavens takes the standing crop and the price is understood to have been $15,000. Mr. Leavens has sold one field of less than twenty acres to Edward Purcell, whose farm adjoins, for $1,500. Mr. Leavens is now advertising for a buyer for his farm two and a half miles out of Bloomfield.

An Ungrateful People.
Montreal Witness.
A notable feature of the elections is the defeat of three of the ministers, and the loss of the two liberal seats in Cape Breton. Whether the election of two conservatives in Cape Breton is meant as a punishment to Messrs. Fielding and Murray because the bounty was not continued on wire rods we do not know, but, if so, Cape Breton is ungrateful for the many millions the iron industry there has received from the country, and which Mr. Fielding could not continue indefinitely even if he wanted to.

Do You Think So?

THE "WHY" MAN
The man on whose shoulders rests the responsibility of the home is naturally a "Why" man. He wants to know why this is better than that? Why it performs its duty better than the other? Why it is suited to his conditions? Why it is cheaper?—and so on. AND HE'S RIGHT, TOO.
So he naturally says, "Why should I COOK WITH GAS, and we say, "Because it's the Cheapest, Cleanest, and most convenient of fuels. We can prove it. Put it up to us to deliver the goods. In any event, let us have the opportunity of talking it over with you."
Call in at the Office of the Works, Queen Street, or Phone 197, and we will send a man to talk it over.
