PREMONITION CORRECT

MOTHER DIED BEFORE STRANGE MESSAGE

From Her Dead Son—Bottled Message—His Mother Waited in Vain. Montreal, June 23.—After a weary wait of ten long and anxious years, for word of the son who had gone to sea to seek his fortune, and from whom never a word had been heard in that long period, Mrs. P. J. O'Reilly died last September at 128 Ottawa street.

For years the aged woman had been firmly convinced that her son was dead. Her premonition was not at fault, for the other day there floated ashore near the Saginaw, Conn. lighthouse a little tin can, sealed at both ends, which was found to contain an old paper bag with the following message written on it:

"Ship Mary St. Crayne, London to River Plate, wrecked off Hatteras, on February 2nd, 1901. Have been on raft ten days. Last bit ate and drank, please tell mother. James P. O'Reilly, 32 Saint Catherine street, Montreal, Canada."

There was no one named O'Reilly living at the address given on the message so strangely recovered from the ocean, but Mrs. James Comm, who lives at 126 Ottawa street, said she knew Mrs. P. J. O'Reilly, very well, when the letter was her next door neighbor.

"She often told me of her last son, James," said Mrs. Comm, "and many a time she sobbed as she said she was sure he was dead. She never said that he went to sea, but he was, apparently her favorite child."

A Recollection of 1896.

WEDDED ON TUESDAY.

The Ceremony Was Performed in St. Paul's Church.

The marriage took place in St. Paul's church on Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, of Miss Ethel Williamson, daughter of Mrs. A. Williamson, 198 Rideau street, and James R. B. Gage, also of this city. Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald officiated. The couple were unattended, and after the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, at which the immediate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gage left later in the afternoon on a trip to Toronto and other western points, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends.

The bride was the recipient of a handsome collection of presents, gifts being received from many outside points. The collection included cut glass from the Young Men's Club, of Queen street church, of which the groom is a member; also a brass jardiniere, stand, and a handsome chair, from the Sunday school teachers, the A.Y.P.A., and choir of St. Paul's church.

PETTY THEFTS AT CAMP.

Soldier Skipped Out With Suit of Clothes.

According to reports made to the police, there has been a great deal of petty thieving, at the camp, this year. A young man, who was at camp but a few days, is alleged to have skipped out with a suit of clothes, belonging to one of the other soldiers. Another soldier made off with a watch, but Constable Aniel succeeded in recovering it. There will be no prosecution.

Some Soldiers Left.

Praise for George Mills.

George Mills, proprietor of the Mills hat and fur house, received great praise for his scheme of decoration of the postoffice.
