Should Sink Derelict. The hull of an old boat sunk in the channel near Kingston, on Tuesday, at Dead Man's Bay, has been causing some trouble this year, and it is the opinion of many who are camping thereabouts that the hull should be blown to pieces.

A small boat struck it the other night about eleven o'clock, and had some difficulty in getting off. The wreck has been lying there for years, and in the summer it is just out of sight, being only a few inches under water. Most of the local boatmen know of this, and steer clear of it, but strange boats run into it.

The Dust Was Awful. The dust was such a nuisance on Princess street, Wednesday morning, that the merchants complained to the city engineer, who sent a watering cart up and down the thoroughfare.

Princess street is one of the roadways to be oiled, and received a coating last week. For some days the heavy dust lay under control, but the wind of the morning whirled it everywhere. Merchants had to close their store doors to keep it off their goods. It will take a great deal of oil to keep the dust on that street under control. For the present it will be watered again.

THE SPORT REVIEW

ATHLETICS MEET TO APPOINT MANAGER.

Meeting Will be Held To-night on To-morrow - No More Postponed Games - Sunday School Series - Other Sport Notes.

The Athletic baseball team will meet some evening this week to appoint a manager in place of John Stansbury, who resigned after the game last Saturday. They may meet this evening and possibly not until Thursday evening. The name of Palmer, who managed the Irishmen last year, is being mentioned in baseball circles as being the probable manager for the remainder of the season.

The Game This Evening. The postponed game between the Railroaders and Wormwits from June 12th will be pulled off, this evening, in the cricket field at six o'clock, when the fans of this league will have the opportunity of seeing the Railroaders in harness for the first time this season. They will be without the services of Millan, this year, as he is playing with the Civil Service team.

No More Postponed Games. The Sunday school game, which was postponed from Tuesday evening until this evening, between Brock and Delphi, has been postponed till next week. The president, H. W. Newman says there will be no more postponed games for any reason at all. If one team can get its players on the field at the appointed time, the game will go to that team by default. At the present time there are three games played in the senior series.

The Games Thursday. Two baseball games are scheduled for Thursday evening, one in the Mercantile League between Locomotives and Civil Service at five o'clock, and one between Cooke's and Sydenham at 6:30 o'clock, in the Sunday school series. The first game should be a hummer. Locomotives are making a bid for first place in the Mercantile series; while the Civil Service say they will take a back seat for no one. The game shall decide which is the better team.

The second game should prove an easy victory for Cooke's, as Sydenham team has partly fallen to pieces during the past few weeks.

With the Bowlers. Some interesting games were played on the Queen's Club bowling green, on Tuesday. In a very exciting match, Skip J. M. Elliott defeated Skip J. W. Corbett by a score of 11 to 10. An extra end was necessary to decide the match. Skip W. Jackson defeated Skip Dr. Watson, by 22 to 9, and Skip L. Sills defeated Skip A. Strachan, 16 to 10. The scores follow: John Gillies, A. R. Williams, G. E. Searle; J. M. Elliott, skip-11. George McKeller, Dr. Boyce, L. Leslie; J. W. Corbett, skip-10. T. Carnovsky, E. E. Parde, A. McLean; Dr. Watson, skip-9. W. H. Warmwith, R. Uglow, W. P. Spaulding; W. Jackson, skip-22. Dr. Boyce, Mr. McQuaid, J. W. Corbett; A. Strachan, skip-10. W. G. Ferguson, D. Murray, J. C. McConachie; W. E. Sills, skip-16.

FOUR - GOOD BOOKS

The Story Girl. By L. M. Montgomery. Author of Anne of Green Gables, Anne of Avonlea. The remarkable success of her Anne books and of the charming Kilnenny of the Orchard has established her as one of America's leading authors. In the Story Girl the touch of the finished artist is evident—a smoothness and a polish which heightens the unusual style of a gifted author. Publisher's Price $1.50. Our Price $1.10. A Soldier of Valley Forge. By Robert Nelson Stephens. The story takes as its theme an incident in the Revolution, and the scene is the "debatable ground" north of New York. George Thorne. By Norval Richardson. Author of the big Southern Novel, "The Lead of Honor." Mr. Richardson's new story is striking in thought and treatment. Taking a man from the rubbish heap of poverty, the author places him in surroundings of wealth and refinement, and then traces the effect of the new influences upon his character. A Captain of Raleighs. By G. E. Theodore Roberts. A typical Roberts romance—dashing and brisk with the scenes for the most part laid in the infant colony of Newfoundland at the time when Sir Walter Raleigh and other famous captains swept the seas for England. Sir Walter is one of the characters in the romance, but the chief interest centres about one of his officers, Captain John Percy.
