The Tidings From Various Points In
Eastern Ontario—What People
Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Eagle Hill Echoes.

Eagle Hill, June 29.—Strawberries were an excellent crop. Several from here attended the funeral on Saturday of Mrs. W. Charlton, Beaufort, who died suddenly, Thursday evening, of blood poisoning. The eldest of the family was seriously ill, and the father, W. Charlton, is away at Sudbury. The new woodshed the trustees had erected had added much to the appearance of the school yard. J. Rahm and son, William, are visiting boy on Kittawa farm, G. W. and J. John are home from the Soo, to spend the summer months, also Miss Fanny John, from Oswego, N.Y. James Irving is making preparations to build a barn.

Holefield Happenings.

Holefield, June 30.—Instead of keeping school, yesterday, the teacher, Mrs. Babcock, had a picnic on "Cox's Island" for her pupils and their parents. Dinner and tea were served on the island. Five of the public school pupils wrote on the high school examination this week, viz., Misses Luella Martin, Mildred Redmond and Masters Clinton, Dwight and Arthur Walker. Charles Martin is very ill. S. Davy has his new dressings nearly completed. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholson are attending the Hornerite camp meeting at Yarker. Ernerter Babcock went to Michigan last week to visit his uncle, J. Babcock. Mrs. J. W. Redmond has returned from a three-day visit in Harrowsmith, accompanied by her niece, Miss Helena Redmond. Mrs. M. Dwyer of Watertown, N.Y., spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Collins of this place. George W. Shibley, representative of the British Whig, made several business calls throughout the town. Mr. and Mrs. Babcock attended the funeral yesterday of the latter's mother, Mrs. W. Seales, Verona, J. B. Redmond, general merchant, is spending a few days at Mountain Grove. Mrs. A. Thompson, Hartington, called on her mother, Mrs. J. D. Walker, yesterday. Miss Aggie Alton, Unionville, at D. Walkers; Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Spaffordton, at S. Davy's.

MOUNTAIN GROVE BUDGET.

Mountain Grove, June 30.—The Sunday school picnic passed off pleasantly in spite of the showers. Over fifty dollars was taken in. Mr. May, of Enterprise, gave a moving picture exhibition of "The Life of Christ" in the town hall on the 22nd and 23rd inst. A large number from here went to the 1,000 Islands on th' Oddfellow excursion from Havelock on the 22nd. On Monday evening an ice cream social was held at the parsonage, as a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, who left on Tuesday for Arden. The sum of $15.25 was taken in, and presented to them by D. J. Cronk, who gave a short address to which Mr. Richmond coolly replied, speaking of the friendly relation between himself and people during his three years' pastorate. W. Hall, Roblin, succeeded Mr. Richmond. Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. R. Crozier visited Newburgh last week. Miss Gertrude MacDonald is at home. A. Leeder, Barreldale, spent the weekend at D. H. Price's. Misses Jenny Crozier, Newburgh High school, Pearl Crozier, Sydenham High school, Winnifred Thompson, Agnes Price and Purvis Barr, of Albert College, Belleville, are home for their holidays. Seventeen candidates attended the entrance examination held here this week. Miss Files, Sharbot Lake, was in charge. Miss Mabel Price has returned to Arden after spending a couple of weeks here. Miss Marjory Parker, Kingston, is visiting her parents. Miss Mabel Stanford is spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Richmond. Robert Flynn was around last week taking the census. Stewart Somers went to Kingston General Hospital last week with typhoid. Wm. McKnight, road commissioner, with his gang, has improved the roads greatly.

Hartington Coronation Event.

Hartington, June 29.—A Coronation festival was held in the school grounds on Friday, 23rd inst. The grounds were prettily decorated and lighted for the occasion, and the brilliant costumes of the eastern nations formed a pleasing contrast to the darker garbs of the more sombre-hued Canadians. A good programme was provided. Rev. Mr. Hanna, of Sydenham, opened with a prayer. Dr. Edwards gave a patriotic address on "Canada." Addresses were also given by Rev. Mr. Crane, of Vernon, and by Rev. Mr. Melnes, of Harrowsmith. Two drills followed, a flag drill by the nations in costume, and a garland drill by eight ladies. Misses Muriel and Mildred Sigsworth sang a duett and a solo was rendered by Kathleen Cleow. A dialogue, "The Somnambulist," caused much amusement. The choruses, "God Save the King," "O, Canada," and "God Prosper Him, Our King," were heartily rendered. Tableaux were also an interesting feature in the programme. Following are some of the dramatic personal: Canada, Misses Ruby Sigsworth and Eva Whitty; England, Misses Freeman and Marie Watson; Ireland, Misses Pearl McDonald and Ethel Moore; Highlanders (Clan Donald), Mrs. Revelle; John Bell, Robbie Freeman; Uncle Sam, Frank Sigsworth; Japan, Misses Gusta Whitty and Anna Watson; Holland, Misses Dot Campall and Juanita Purdy; Italy, Miss Minnie Campall; Egypt, Mrs. Loyd and Miss Meta Campall; Gibraltar, Miss Marion Cleow; New Zealand, Mrs. Dennison and Mrs. Trousdale; South Africa, Mrs. R. Leonard and Miss Lilia Freeman; British Tar, Earl Leonard; Tommy Atkins, Carl Purdy; Chinese Mandarin, Ian Revelle; Hindoo, Adrian Revelle. The receipts were about $85.

At Old Orchard Beach, Me., an undertaker cost the life of William N. Marshall, a Montreal bay and grain dealer, while he was bathing with a party of friends. N. Hillary, of Toronto, was also carried beyond his depth, but was rescued.
