THE SPORT REVIEW

THE LIVE COALS DEFEATED WORMWITHS 8 TO 5

In a Mercantile Baseball League Game, Which Caused a Great Deal of Warmth—Notes on Other Games. "Jack" Stansbury's "Fire Eaters" handed the blue job to G. Y. Chown's favorites at the cricket field Wednesday evening in a Mercantile baseball league game...

To Play at Picnic.

The junior game between Queen and Cooke's, which is scheduled for Friday evening, has, by mutual consent, been switched to the afternoon, and will be one of the features at Cooke's picnic on Friday.

No Word From Toronto.

Although three letters from officers of the City Baseball League have been sent to the secretary of Eaton's baseball team, Toronto, regarding the playing of an exhibition game here on civic holiday, no reply has been forthcoming.

Two Games This Evening.

Bethel and Cooke's, in the Sunday school series, and Bankers and Retailers in the Mercantile series, are the games scheduled for this evening, the first at Victoria school grounds, at 6:30 o'clock, and the other at the cricket field, at five o'clock.

Leading in Series.

W. G. Laird, now of Winnipeg and formerly of Toronto, a player who learned his golf in Scotland, headed the field of fifty-four who started in the qualifying round of the seventh annual amateur championship of the Royal Canadian Golf Association...

Great Baseball Here.

Another evidence of the fact that the brand of baseball which is played in the city league here is that which pleases fans is forthcoming from the fact that an Ottawa team was here, last week, and saw the game between the C.L.C.'s and Victoria was very much pleased with the style of play.

To Effect a Settlement.

A special baseball meeting has been called for Thursday evening, to try and effect an amicable settlement in regard to the outcome of the game on Monday afternoon, between the Victoria and C.L.C.'s, at the fair grounds. While the game was an exhibition one, and not run under the auspices of the City League, it has been thought advisable to leave it to the meeting, to-night, is open to anyone who is interested in baseball and who might in any way throw light on this subject.
