SULLIVAN WAS RIGHT

IN HIS DECISION IN MONDAY'S BALL GAME.

He is Upheld by the Toronto Star Sporting Editor—Athletics and Victorias Play This Afternoon.

The question in dispute in regard to last Monday's baseball game between Victorias and C.L.C.'s at the fair grounds, was submitted to the sports editor of the Toronto Star, who replies, in Friday's issue, that the run does not count. The man who left first base before the fly was caught, was out in the way of a double play, being touched by the ball when he failed to go back and touch first base. This is the view taken by all old ball players who know the rules and have seen them in operation. Umpire Sullivan's decision was correct.
