AN AGED LADY DEAD

THE LATE MRS. MARY J. ABBOTT GANANOQUE.

A Boy Knocked Into a Raceway by Stepping on a Loose Board—He Crawled Out Without Mishap.

Gananoque, July 15.—Another well-known octogenerian, of this town, Mrs. Mary Jane Abbott, relict of the late Elijah Abbott, a former prominent manufacturer, passed to rest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Russell, King street west, on Thursday evening in the eighty-second year of her age. Several years ago deceased by a nervous fall received injuries which crippled her and she could only go out through the medium of an invalids chair. Her misfortune was borne with Christian patience and fortitude, and she was highly esteemed for her many estimable qualities. Deceased leaves one daughter, Mrs. A. P. Russell, King street west, at whose home she died, also four sons, Samuel, Charles and George settled near Hartford, Conn., and Walter S., proprietor of Crystal Hall, a prominent merchant of the town. The funeral takes place this afternoon to Willow Bank cemetery.

The Gananoque Canoe Club held another sport evening for the juniors of the club at their course in front of the club house last evening, when three good events were pulled off.

Gunwale race—1st, Wiltse, 2nd, Chadwick, (senior); 3rd, Rattray.

Double blade single—1st, Chadwick, (senior); 2nd, Wiltse, 3rd, Rattray, 4th, Phillips.

Tilting tournament—1st bout, Wiltse beat Phillips; saw off, Rattray beat Wiltse.

The club is arranging for a special evening for lady paddlers next Friday.

Gananoque Yacht Club held another of their series of weekly dances at the club house last evening, which was well attended. The Citizens' band orchestra furnished music.

The steamer Britannic from Montreal, at noon yesterday, left off considerable freight and on her return trip last evening took on a large consignment of shovels from the D. F. Jones Co., for the eastern trade.

Some six or seven hundred excursionists benefitting by the Fresh Air Fund are expected to spend a few hours in Gananoque to-day.

The steamer Mississquoi had a large crowd on her trip to Brockville yesterday. The Citizens' band has been engaged to give an open air concert at the Frontenac Hotel, Round Island, this evening.

A mishap that might have had serious results happened yesterday morning about five o'clock. As a young lad about fifteen was on his way to the spring at the rear of the works of the Skinner company, limited, a loose board tipped with his weight, precipitating him into the water by bulk head. The lad's only way out was a walk through the water to the other end of the race way, where he was assisted out, not much the worse for his mishap.

Residents of this section, many of whom have relatives and friends in the Porcupine fire zone, are manifesting considerable uneasiness. Inability to reach the section by wire has added to the state of their feelings.

Recent arrivals at Hay Island House include L. A. Turner and Miss Turner, Toronto; the Mesdames H. F. Griffith and B. J. Farrington, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibbs and the Misses Emilie Frey and Hazel White, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. L. Wahlen, New York city; H. Desbarats, Montreal; Mrs. H. M. Meyer, Miss Meyer and Master R. Meyer, Miss Lillian Bownow and Miss Rheaume, of Ottawa. The latter is a sister of Rev. Fr. Rheaume, curate at St. John's church.

Roy Wilson, Kingston, spent a few days this week with friends in town. Lewis Fraid, Montreal, a former merchant of the town, spent a short time here with his father, Joseph Fraid, this week.

Miss Carrie Clow, King street, left, yesterday, for an extended visit with friends in Smith's Falls, Theresa, N. Y., and Chaumont. Mr. and Mrs. George Laughton, Alexandria, are visiting relatives in town.

In Memoriam.

The death of Samuel Walmsley, of the township of Athol, removed one of its oldest and most highly esteemed residents. His decease took place at his residence on June 30th, 1911, having attained the ripe age of seventy-eight years, five months and twenty-one days.

He was born and lived on the farm where his decease took place, and during the earlier part of his life occupied many public positions in his township, to the entire satisfaction of those who honored him with their confidence. Mr. Walmsley was deprived of leaving his home, only for short intervals, by rheumatism from which he suffered untold agony for years. He leaves behind him two sons, James who lives and managed the farm most successfully for many years, and ranks highly among our most progressive farmers, Thomas, the youngest son is a successful practising barrister-in-law, of Picton. His wife predeceased him about five years ago, the other members of the family died quite young.

LIVE COALS BEAT BY RAILROADERS, 10 TO 0

In Mercantile Baseball League Game—Statement Concerning the Much Disputed Baseball Play.

The Live Coals side-tracked the Railroaders completely in their postponed game at the cricket field, Friday evening, shutting them out after scoring ten runs themselves. The Live Coals all through are a heavy hitting bunch, and this feature, coupled with good base running, won them the game. A large crowd was present and cheered for their respective teams in a lively manner. This makes the third straight win for the Live Coals, and unless they receive a serious set-back, bid fair to win the cup.

Score by innings:

Live Coals	1	0	7	2	x	—	10

Live Coals—B. Stansbury, l.f.; J. Stansbury, c.; Crawford, 3b.; Nicholson, s.s.; O'Neil, 2b.; Powell, p.; Hunt, lb.; Muckler, c.f.; Dick, r.f.

Railroaders—Boyer, c.; S. Driver, p.; G. Driver, 1b.; Rutherford, 2b.; Gratton, s.s.; Dunlop, 3b.; Attwood, r.f.; Allaire, c.f.; Morris, l.f.

That Disputed Decision.

A New York baseball fan, who didn't see the game, writes the Whig asking for a detailed account of the play in the game at the fair grounds at the Irish picnic, on July 3rd, at which the Victorias and C.L.C.'s played. According to the umpire's decision the game was awarded to the Victorias, with the score standing 3 to 2. As far as the Whig has been able to get the play it was as follows:

The C.L.C.'s had the last innings of the ninth, and one man was out when the strange play happened. Dice was on third base and Saunders was on first, when Ewart went to bat. The latter knocked a fly to right field and was caught out. Dice held third base until the fly was caught and then went home on the throw in. The ball was thrown to the pitcher, who held it. In the meantime Saunders stole second and third and was starting for home when Davidson on first base ran to Gillespie, took the ball away from him, ran across the diamond and touched Saunders within a few feet of home. Umpire Sullivan declared at the time that the run did not count.

A meeting was held a short time ago in an endeavor to settle the dispute but no decision was arrived at. Thinking that some outside authority was in a position to say whether the run counted or not, the sporting editor of the Toronto Star was appealed to. He upheld Sullivan's decision. Two Buffalo papers and the scorer of the Eastern League say the run does count.

The United Irish societies say that they have done nothing in the matter. The purse which they gave for the game was handed over to Bernard Tierney, president of the city league, to give to the winning team, and the money will be handed over as soon as a decision is arrived at. An official of one of the Irish societies said they would be willing to add more money to the purse if the teams would play over again.

LATEST STYLE BURGLARY SUCCEEDS IN NEW YORK.

Modern Safe, Steel Bars and Wall of House No Hindrance to Gang Which Gets $30,000 Loot.

New York, July 15.—One of the most finished accomplishments in the fine art of burglary, which the police here have lately seen, was revealed late, yesterday, when a big five-foot, double-doored steel safe in the jewelry store of Joseph Fass, on the east side, was found with a spacious hole cut cleanly out, through which robbers had abstracted $30,000 worth of precious stones and jewels.

An electric drill, which had done the work, and other burglar implements lay beside the looted safe. A large hole sawed in the wall between the store and an adjoining barber shop and three steel bars of the barber shop window cleanly sawed off indicated the entrance and exit of the robbers.

By Way of China.

"When I was travelling in China the year before last——" A. E. Smith, majority leader of the assembly, was saying.

"I guess you mean Chinatown—I've been there myself," cut in "Big Tim" Sullivan, "but go on; maybe it will be a good one."

"In China the year before last," continued the majority leader, unperturbed, "I made the acquaintance of a highly intelligent mandarin. Peking, I think, was the name of the town. This mandarin did a number of favors for me, and before I left I wanted to leave him some little thing to remember me by. An English friend of mine had a bull pup, a very valuable dog, which he couldn't carry around any more, so he gave it to me. I thought that would be a bully present for the mandarin. So I sent it around. But what was my horror when I opened the mandrin's letter of thanks on shipboard next morning to read something to this effect:

"'My Dear Al.: I have received your honorable dog with thanks. I have not been in the habit of eating that species myself, but my suite had it for breakfast and they enjoyed it immensely.'"—Albany correspondent New York Herald.
