COUNTRY NOTES AND THINGS IN GENERAL

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Dr. Morley Currie, Picton, has been promoted to the rank of major in the 16th Regiment.

Postmaster Pettit, Picton, picked large ripe tomatoes off vines in his garden for last Sunday's dinner.

A quiet wedding took place last Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, Picton, when their eldest daughter, Ethel Louise, became the bride of Elmer Vincent.

Miss Ethelwyn Vandusen, youngest daughter of the late George E. Vandusen, Picton, who has been in training at the Ottawa normal school, was successful in passing examinations for kindergarten director.

A large number of men assisted in the raising of Alexander McDonnell's mammoth barn, at Concession, on Tuesday and Wednesday. George Keogh had the misfortune to have several of his fingers badly mangled.

Mrs. J. P. Hughes, Picton, found in her henhouse, on Saturday, an egg measuring 9 7/8 inches. A poultrey of this large egg is a soft outer covering through the outer skin is a good sized egg with a hard shell and a yolk and the white of another egg.

What might have resulted in a fatal accident to Mrs. W. S. Fox, Centre-Prince Edward county, being gored by a bull, after being thrown some feet in the air, and received a broken rib and several other bruises, was averted by the prompt action of her husband, who drove the animal away when he was about to attack her again.

George M. Young, of the High Shores, had dinner in Picton, on Saturday, on his way to pay a visit to friends in the western part of the county.

Long Point News. Long Point, July 13.—The farmers in this vicinity have commenced haying and are well pleased with the good crops. A number from here attended the Orangemen's celebrations at Westport and Prescott yesterday.

Mrs. Samuel Chipman and Master Mildred Murphy, at Jacob Bryan's, Mrs. H. J. Palmer and Mrs. Mary Desmond, of Canton, N.Y., are visiting their friends here.

Excursion to Western Canada. The Grand Trunk Railway System announce that on Tuesdays, July 11th and 25th, August 8th and 22nd, September 5th and 19th, 1911, homeseeker excursions will be run from all stations in Ontario and Quebec to Chicago, via Chicago and Duluth or via Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, at reduced round trip fares.

The well-known double track line of the Grand Trunk from the east to Chicago appeals to the traveller, and the superior train service that is offered by this line, including the famous "International Limited," the finest and fastest train in Canada, many passengers will be attracted this way.

Death of Yarker Resident. An old resident of Yarker passed peacefully away on June 19th, in the person of Peter VanLoven, in his eighty-first year.

Monster Mosquitoes. The late Henry Guy Carleton, the playwright, lived at Atlantic City, and when the mosquitoes were bad, he would tell his Madras mosquito story, says the Los Angeles Times.

Died at Sackets' Harbor.

On July 8th, Helen E. Robertson, widow of the late George S. Robertson, died at her home in Sackets' Harbor, N.Y., at the age of fifty-five years.

Mrs. Robertson was born and brought up in Adolphustown, and her many friends will be grieved to hear of her death. The remains were taken to Thomsburg, Hastings county, and placed by her late husband. Four brothers are left to mourn: Charles E. Robin, Melita, Man; John N., of Sackets' Harbor, N.Y.; William D., of Adolphustown, and C. Frank, of Vancouver, B.C.

Admitted He Lied.

An interesting case was heard in Smith's Falls last long ago. It seems a man who was on the Indian list asked a friend to get him a bottle, which he did. When on his oath this friend swore that he got no liquor for him and the case was dismissed.

A few days afterwards his conscience troubled him and he owned up to the inspector that he had got the liquor. He was given a fine, and it was doubtful if the man could be discharged with a fine. However it was settled by him being fined $100 and one day in jail.

Features at Ottawa Fair.

The programme includes daily flights of Curtiss aeroplanes and reproduction of famous naval review as seen at the coronation of King George V. Big creases in prizes for live stock, poultry and farm products; manufacturers' exhibit of great magnitude.

With further beautified grounds, new and improved buildings, a more extensive array of agricultural and manufacturing exhibits than ever before presented, and the most costly and novel special attractions available, the Central Canada exhibition of 1911 will be held in Ottawa, from September 8th to 16th.

Successful Pupils of Miss Knapp.

The following pupils were successful in the recent Toronto Conservatory examinations held here—Miss Annie Burns, junior piano, junior harmony, junior counterpoint with first-class honors; Miss Florence Smith, senior harmony, junior counterpoint, with first-class honors; Miss Nellie McLeod, junior harmony, junior counterpoint; Miss Sadie Edwards, junior piano, with honors; Miss Margaret Keeley, primary harmony, first-class honors; Miss Beatrice Gates, primary harmony, with honors; Miss Gertrude Murton, rudiments, first-class honors.

Death of Yarker Resident.

An old resident of Yarker passed peacefully away on June 19th, in the person of Peter VanLoven, in his eighty-first year.

He was a life-long reformer and Methodist and took an active part in temperance work. He was sick over seven months, the greater part of that time in his bed. For many years he suffered with lumbago but bore his sufferings with Christian fortitude, never murmuring at his condition.

He leaves to mourn for him a devoted wife, one son, F. E. VanLoven, coal and grain merchant of Nanapan, and one daughter, Mrs. M. C. Dunn, of Yarker. Many of the prominent men of Nanapan, who were personal friends of his, attended the funeral, which was held at his late residence, conducted by Rev. Mr. B. Stone. The remains were borne to their last resting place by his four brothers, one son and son-in-law.

“Down and Out”

How Often Have We Felt Like This!

This all-gone, tired-out feeling is no new sensation for the most of us—especially in the hot summer months. It is a timely warning that there is something wrong.

ELECTRIC BEANS are composed of a substance capable of supplying the real needs of a starved, over-wrought nervous system. They contain a compound easily absorbed by the hungry tissues and they possess unique tonic and reconstructive qualities.

You have heard what "Electric Beans" have done for others. You have possibly observed how they have infused renewed energy and elasticity into starved nerves; how they have enriched the blood, regenerated the appetite; in short, how wonderfully they have helped to make the human machinery FIT to perform its work.

Do not fail to write us for our free generous sample package. "Electric Beans" are sold on "the money-back plan" if not satisfied.

Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage. Sold at all Druggists and Stores, 50c. a box.
