London Argonaut. Bishop John L. Nuelsen, in an address in Omaha, said of intolerance These intolerant people make me think of young Parson Brownslow. Parson Brownslow, one Sunday morning, was passing a pond when two voung skaters went through the ice. The parson, a good swimmer, plunged into the cold, black water promptly. and after a deal of diving and floundering and struggling, he managed to rescue the two boys. He laid their limp forms on the bank side Mid-Summer by side and then he began to work their arms vigorously, so as to restore animation, whence deeps were proachful voice cried from the reside "Parson !"
