A GIRL FIGHTS For Release of Her Lover From Asylum.

SHE STILL IS WIFE

OF GEORGE O. HAYNE, MILITARY COLLEGE GRADUATE.

Wedded Him in Toronto Some Years Ago—He is Suing Her for Divorce
—The Girl Is Granddaughter of Emperor of Austria by Morganatic Marriage.

Montreal, July 26.—The application for the release from St. Joseph Benoit Asylum of Justin MacDougall would, it seems, reveal a romance which is said to involve a morganatic granddaughter of Emperor Francis Josef of Austria, an American broker, a Montreal man unable to resist the call of beauty, a divorce and two habeas corpus proceedings.

The application is for the release of Justin MacDougall, who is detained in the asylum at the instance of his father, who wished to protect him from the morganatic member of the royal house of Austria, with whom he is said to be enamored. The application states that the young man is detained in the asylum against his will and without any legal proceedings.

The story is that Archduke Rudolph of Austria, eldest son of Francis Josef, contracted a marriage with an Austrian baroness, which was refused recognition. Both committed suicide, but before they did so, a child was born. This child was sent to America by the orders of Francis Josef. As Alma Vevera, she grew up in New York, until, shortly after her 16th birthday, she met G. Osborne Hayne, an American broker, whom she married. The two went to Austria, seeking recognition, but were sent back to America.

Mrs. Hayne then alleges that her disappointed husband commenced to ill-treat her.

Just at this juncture MacDougall appeared, and with him she went to New York to consult lawyers concerning a divorce action, accompanied by her little son. In New York the father kidnapped the son and instituted divorce proceedings on his own account.

MacDougall and Mrs. Hayne returned to Montreal, whereupon the young man's father had him incarcerated.

Something last week a party of his friends motored down at night to rescue him, but were repelled by fire arms.

In the meantime, MacDougall, sr., has talked with Alma Vevera, and has offered to help her defend herself in the divorce case which her husband is bringing. Mrs. Hayne, however, seems determined to stick to her other adviser, and was in court with her lawyer, Mr. Gaudet, to take part in the action for securing his release from the asylum.

The principals are well-known in several Canadian centres.

The young woman in the case, formerly Alma Vevera, who it is claimed is the daughter of an Austrian archduke, who married a baroness of lower degree, came to Toronto as a young girl, and was educated in a convent there.

At sixteen, when in New York, she met George Hayne, a Canadian graduate of the Military College at Kingston. He came from Cobourg. They married and came to Montreal. He represented R. M. Bauer, the financial firm of London and New York.

Justin MacDougall met them and when Hayne got into difficulties and went to New York, he went to New York with Mrs. Hayne and baby Hayne. Later divorce proceedings were instituted there by her, and when Justin MacDougall came to Montreal, his father, A. W. McLouglin, former Ontario lawyer and one of the original holders of La Rose mine, had him put in St. Joseph's asylum.

He takes a kinder view of the case to-day, and may allow his son out without court action going further.

Two attempts were made to release MacDougall. The first was when Mrs. Hayne went to the asylum in an auto, and when released her mission to see him, left chocolates for him. In the box with a file and a message that an auto would wait next night. The guards heard of the file and saved the situation. The second attempt was at night when guns were fired to drive away the rescuers.

Nat Goodwin Again Divorced.

New York, July 26.—Supreme court Bischoff, yesterday, granted a final decree in the divorce action brought by Edna Goodrich Goodwin against Nat Goodwin, the actor. The action was tried last winter, and the referee recommended that a decree be granted Mrs. Goodwin. The actor is barred from marrying during the lifetime of Mrs. Goodwin.

Acquires Interest in Yukon.

London, July 26.—The Daily Mail learns that the Consolidated Gold Field company of South Africa, under the advice, it says, of John Hayes Hammond, has acquired considerable interest in the Yukon fields and intends to float a new company with a capital of $8,000,000.

The Grand Trunk Pacific line ought to be through Ottawa in two years," said E. J. Chamberlain, general manager.

WHALES CONSOFT WITH SUBMARINES.

Officers of "Narwhal" Report That Big Fish Fear Them Not.

Newport, R.I., July 26.—The officers and crews of two of the submarines of the Atlantic fleet said, yesterday, they have learned that whales are not the least afraid of the underwater warships. Whales have been reported off Block Island several times this summer, and last Wednesday during the naval war game the men in the submarines Narwhal and Salmon had personal experiences with the big fish.

Early in the morning the Narwhal, when off Block Island, met a whale and the fish accompanied the boat for several miles. Just before dusk that day the Salmon when off No Man's Land had much the same experience. The big fish evidently mistook the submarines for one of their own kind.

LEAVES WIDOW $100,000.

New Haven, Conn., July 26.—Burr Peck, who at the age of 78 years eloped three years ago with May Burns, a waitress in a Yale student boarding house, died yesterday, leaving his young widow $100,000. He owned several pieces of productive real estate near the centre of the city. His mother died a few months ago at the age of 97.

CLAIM GUN WILL BRING DOWN AIRSHIPS

Government Officials Now Believe Aeroplanes Will Not Be Menace to Ships.

Washington, July 26.—A gun with an instantaneous acting sight, which will scatter projectiles that in turn will explode and scatter more projectiles—fan-wise—at a speeding aeroplane, has been perfected by war department officials, at the Watervliet arsenal.

With the completion of this marvelous gun, the war experts believe they have mastered the question whether the aeroplane, in its highest perfection, can be a serious menace to ships. The experts say that they will prove, at Sandy Hook, in the very near future, that the danger from aeroplanes loaded with destructive material has been met and obviated by American skill and ingenuity.

The gun is portable and can be used on picked lines at the farthest advanced outposts and run no danger of being captured by cavalry.

Confering With King.

London, July 26.—The cabinet met yesterday and later on the prime minister and Chancellor Lloyd-George went to the foreign office and had a conference with Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs. The latter subsequently went to Buckingham Palace and had an audience with the king.

It is supposed these conferences are in connection with the situation in Morocco, and Germany's demands for territorial compensation in Africa in return for her withdrawal from the former country.

Woh by a Frenchman.

Tokio, Japan, July 26.—Hundreds of persons were killed in a typhoon which swept over Japan this morning.

MAN TO BE WEDDED ON HIS DEATH BED

A. S. Muir, Formerly Chemist in Toronto, Will Never Leave the Hospital Alive.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 26.—What in all probability will be a death marriage, will be solemnized to-day, if possible, in "F" ward of the city hospital, when Archibald Stewart Muir, a former Toronto chemist, and Cordelia R. Yarnold will join in wedlock for the brief span that is still allotted to the unfortunate groom.

Muir is of Scotch birth and came to Canada when quite a young man. He first landed in Toronto, Ont., where he was connected with some of the largest chemical houses in the dominion.

He broke into the limelight a little over a year ago, after coming to this city, when Mrs. Mary E. Muir suddenly appeared upon the scene and caused his arrest on the charge of bigamy. Muir declared that he had married Miss Yarnold, believing his Toronto wife had obtained a divorce. Attorney Frank Gusweiler, acting for Mrs. Mary E. Muir, brought proceedings for divorce, obtaining a decree last June with substantial alimony for her and money for the support of her three children. The bigamy charge was dropped.

On June 17th, Muir was taken to the city hospital from his home at 1435 Hamilton avenue, and his disease was diagnosed as cancer and necessarily fatal. Yesterday Miss Yarnold arrived in the city and after a brief interview with Muir, went to the probate court for the marriage license, and Dr. Robert Watson, of the Presbyterian Church of the Convict, will perform the ceremony at the bedside.

Legge Thieves Sentenced.

London, July 26.—At Manchester assizes two men for the theft of luggage, which was diagnosed as cancer and necessarily fatal. Yesterday Miss Yarnold arrived in the city and after a brief interview with Muir, went to the probate court for the marriage license, and Dr. Robert Watson, of the Presbyterian Church of the Convict, will perform the ceremony at the bedside.

The Steel Plate Association of the United States in New York, was organized in the autumn of 1900 to overcome destructive competition.

MANUEL DIRECTING MONARCHIST CAMPAIGN.

Publicist at Madrid Says Deposed King Has 10,000 Troops.

Madrid, July 26.—A son of Home Cristo, the Portuguese monarchist and publicist, in an interview given in El Liberal, declared that Manuel was personally directing the campaign for his restoration to the throne of Portugal. The deposed monarch, he said, had offered to place himself at the head of the monarchist troops. He had contributed something of his fortune to the monarchist cause and raised 10,000 men to his support.

Cristo said that if the alignment of arms seized aboard the steamer Goncalo and at the railway station at Orense, Spain, had been allowed to fall into the hands of the monarchists that the war of restoration had been begun two days later.

LIBERALS SURE OF BEING ABLE TO SWEEP THE COUNTRY

IN GENERAL ELECTION

THE FARMERS ARE STRONG FOR RECIPROCITY.

The Opposition to be Given a Dose of a Twenty-four Hour Session

—How Things Look at Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 26.—Morning sittings commence to-day, and the commons will be kept in session until a late hour each night. There will probably be some twenty-four hours' continuous sittings for the purpose of either forcing reciprocity through or demonstrating to the electors how determined the opposition is to block it, and how impossible the position of the government is, thus justifying the calling of an election.

The liberals confidently believe they will sweep the country. Reports from all parts of the dominion indicate a steadily-growing demand for reciprocity. In Quebec and the maritime provinces the farmers are holding their hay for sale in the United States as soon as the reciprocity measure is law. In the west the farmers, with two hundred million bushels of wheat in sight, are looking to the United States' market more keenly than ever. The fishermen and the lumbermen have been heard from in favor of the agreement, and even the manufacturers are less militant against reciprocity than they were three months ago.

On the conservative side there is still, outwardly, great confidence.

They are relying on generous financial aid from the manufacturers to pull them through the election and to defeat the government. It has been publicly stated more than
