RAILROADERS DEFEATED LIVE COALS, 10 TO 7.

Only Two Innings Were Played—Sunday School Baseball Executive Turns Everything Topsy-Turvy.

The Railroaders defeated the Live Coals in a two-innings game at the cricket field, Monday evening, by a score of 10 to 7. The game was very late in starting, on account of Live Coals' team not being on the field at the appointed time. It was just about seven o'clock when the game began. Railroaders had all their own way in the first innings, getting four runs to Live Coals two, in the second innings they were more evenly matched. This game will have to be replayed Friday evening, if satisfactory to each team, on account of them not playing at least five innings. George Vanhorn umpired.

ICE CREAM AND COOL DRINKS YESTERDAY.

It Was a "Scorcher," and Kingstonsians Had to Cool Off—Heavy Demand for Supply of Ice.

These are hard days on the ice, the ice cream, soda, and all kinds of cool drinks.

"Yesterday was one of the busiest days we had all summer," remarked one dealer in ice cream. "We had so keep on the jump all the time. The ice cream parlor was filled nearly all the time, and besides, we were rushed with orders for different parts of the city."

The weather has been so warm that a great deal of trouble has been experienced in keeping the ice cream hard. In some of the stores yesterday afternoon the ice cream used in the soda was very soft, in fact some of it could not be served out, with the result that many complaints were made.

The ice men are all very busy. They do not have to solicit much trade these days; the excessive warm weather was sufficient to bring the trade without soliciting.

This summer is regarded as the warmest in many years, that is there has been more steady heat than other years. Had there been more rain at intervals it would have been regarded as an ideal summer for the crops.

This is expected to be a hotly contested game as Frontenac lost in their game with Kingston, but having since been reinforced by such men as Penny, Markle and Evans, Princeton '11, the feel confident of winning.

Sunday School Baseball Matters.

The meeting of the executive of the S.S.A.A. was held, Monday evening, in the Y.M.C.A., to deal with protests from both Brock and Cooke's. The latter's protest against Brock was not sustained, but Brock's protest against Cooke's was allowed. The protest was in on Somerville, who had not placed his certificate in the hands of the secretary. The game will be played off Thursday evening.

The tie game between Cooke's and Queen will be played in the cricket field on August 16th. "Ned" Hartwick will umpire.

Cooke's juniors and St. James' juniors will play off for the championship, Monday evening next.

The field day which was to have been held next Wednesday, was indefinitely postponed, on account of other things coming up that would necessitate it being so.

Sunday Ball at Cape.

This is the Cape Vincent story of the Sunday ball game there: "There was something doing" in the baseball line Sunday afternoon, when the local aggregation tackled a Kingston team on the diamond at the fair grounds. This was the second time the teams had come together, and, as the visitors were the winners in the first contest, the Cape boys went onto the diamond with the intention of winning, and the Canucks being equally sanguine, it made a game that was good to look at. At the end of the ninth inning the score was a tie—five runs each. In the tenth the Kingston stone city boys scored a tally and won the game. The attendance was large, a good many being Kingstonsians."

ARCHBISHOP-ELECT SPRATT.

Who Succeeds Archbishop Gauthier in Kingston.

ARCHBISHOP-ELECT SPRATT.

The Whig presents a cut from the latest photograph of Rev. Father Michael Spratt, the new archbishop of Kingston, who will be consecrated in October. Father Spratt, parish priest of Belleville, is a native of the township of Ops, near Lindsay, and was born in 1854. He was educated at the schools of that town, later going to St. Michael's College, Toronto. He took his course in philosophy and theology at Pointe Levis and the grand seminary at Montreal, being ordained at Trenton in June, 1882, by the late Archbishop Cleary. Others ordained with him were the late Archbishop McEvay, of Toronto. After his ordination he assisted his brother, Rev. Father T. J. Spratt, at Wolfe Island, for a time. Later he was curate at Prescott and then became parish priest at Kitley. He labored there for several years and made many improvements in the parish. He built the fine priest's house at Toledo, and the splendid church and house at Elgin. He then succeeded the late Father Twohey as pastor at Trenton. Two years ago he was appointed, upon the death of Rev. Father Twomey, pastor of St. Michael's church, Belleville.

AT LAKE ONTARIO PARK.

A Great Crowd Was Out There on Monday Evening.

There was a splendid bill presented at Lake Ontario Park last evening, and the big crowd were well pleased with the programme. Nat Retter, as a wooden shoe dancer is certainly an expert, and his scare crow dancing was amusing. He also sang two capital songs, "You Needn't Go to College," and "You've Been to College Inn," and "You're Mine, All Mine."

The singing, dancing and character acts of the Misses Mitchell and Brady, were of high-class character. As a duet they gave "I Will Be With You Honey in Honey Suckle Time." Miss Brady sang sweetly "Dusky Salome," while Miss Mitchell's song, "If He Comes In, I'm Going Out," in character was fine. They also sang "The Indian Boy," and has a final one gave "Dixie" in fine style. Their make-up is good and their dancing is above the average.

Miss Rosevear, in connection with the illustrated pictures, sang charmingly "Pity Is Akin to Love" and "I Don't Believe You." Some of the moving pictures deserve mention, especially "The Crusader," "Foxy Izzy" and "Bobby the Coward." The same bill will be repeated to-night. Children's one-cent day, on Wednesday.

Several ladies bathing suits are missing from the park, and the practice will have to be stopped, as the parties who took them are known.

STEAMER MARSHALL WENT ON NEAR SWIFT'S.

Was Released by the Steamer Donnelly on Tuesday Morning—Lago Freighter Arrived From England—Marine Notes of Interest.

The steamer Samuel Marshall, loaded with pulpwood on her way across the lake went into Swift's wharf, on Monday night, to coal up, and when pulling out, went aground just a short distance off the wharf, and was not released until eight o'clock, on Tuesday morning. She was pulled off by the steamer Donnelly, of the Donnelly Wrecking company, and did not suffer any damage. A little more dredging at this point would be a great benefit.

The steamer Renville arrived at the government dry dock this morning, from Port Arthur, on her way to Montreal, with grain.

M. T. Co's elevator: The steamer Beaverton is due to-night, from Fort William, to discharge a full cargo of wheat and barley; the steamer Acadia, loaded with grain, from Fort William, is due to arrive to-morrow, to discharge; the tug Thomson arrived from Montreal, with two light barges.

The barge Kelly went over to Garden Island, to-day, to take a spar.

The steamer Britannic is expected to arrive at Richardson's elevator, from Chicago, with a cargo of corn.

The steamer Mildred Queen passed down, on Tuesday morning.

Another lake freighter, the Yorkton, has arrived on the great lakes from England. It was brought out by the Matthews line of Toronto. The steamer is designed after the same pattern as the vessels heretofore brought out and has all modern equipment. It is 257 feet long, beam 42.6, depth 18.6, and is double bottom, electric lighted, steam heated, and has steam steering gear. The vessel is 100 A1 which permits her carrying cargo for any part of the world. The Yorkton can make twelve miles an hour and is driven by single screw engines 1728.46 by 33 stroke. Two boilers natural draft 12 x 11. The vessel left Middleboro, England, on July 7th, and made a fast trip across the Atlantic. Capt. George C. Holloway, of the Royal Naval Reserve, brought the boat across in fifteen days. Holloway turned the boat over at Montreal to Capt. Kay, who will sail it on the lakes.

At Swift's wharf: Steamers Toronto and North King, down, this morning; steamer Rideau Queen, from Ottawa, to-night.

The steamer Altha did not get away on her trip up the bay until four o'clock Tuesday morning, owing to the fact that she had to undergo some repairs.

Owing to the high wind, and the fact that the Steamer Samuel Marshall was ashore near Swift's wharf, the steamer Toronto had a very hard time landing on Tuesday morning.

Lake Ontario fell 12 of a foot during July, according to the lake survey report just received here. It is .75 foot lower than for July a year ago and 1.25 feet lower than the average for July. It is expected to fall 2 feet during August.
